

Let Go and Let God - May 14, 2004

From Quan Yin Channeled by Nasrin

My Children of Light, I am Quan Yin. It is my pleasure to be asked to offer my prayer of hope and blessing to all the people of the world at this time of great changes. As the Mother of Compassion, the energies of Quan Yin and Lord Buddha are vastly sent to the Earth and humankind. Beams of light from my heart and from Lord Buddha's heart are bombarding our beloved planet Mother Earth as we speak to bring you back to loving compassion, to assist you in opening your hearts in seeing the love that the masters and the sainted beings of light feel for you and to see our extended auras beckoning you to walk in our direction and in the direction of the light.

As the spokesperson for the energies of mercy and compassion, I invite you to open your heart. I invite you to set aside your anger, your fears, your negativity, your greed, and move away from pain. Enter into the realm of peace and surrender. Let go and let God.

Never before have you had the opportunity to lose the pain this easily. At this point in the evolution of your souls and the soul of Mother Earth, we are guided to come to you, to all the masses of humanity, and to offer you love and compassion, to take your hand and bring you to a place of peace and harmony

The chaos will continue around you. The more you imbued yourself in our loving compassion, the greater the chance of attaining peace and harmony. In that peace, you can be a beacon of light, a guiding post for others to follow.

As beings of light, I invite you to feel yourself present and accept to be that guiding light for others. Feel the presence of God within your own heart. Call upon the presence of the I Am That I Am, God in action, and breathe the breath of light from that magical presence into your own lungs and repeat this process every day, every hour, every moment because in the days to come you will need to be anchored in the power, the wisdom and the love of the I Am That I Am.

For yourself and for all those that you shall guide into the light, the light is awaiting you. You are the beacons of that light. You are the sparks of that light. Become empty vessels and let the light shine through you and reach out to the multitudes.

My children, remember the light. Remember your own true essence in the presence of the I Am That I Am. Become the light. Become the I Am. Become the magical presence and the force of the light. Become the power, the wisdom and the love of the I Am That I Am and know that I am with you with my opened arms to receive you.

I am here upon your asking. I can do a great deal more on your behalf upon your asking than you can do on your own. I can assist you and through my assistance, you can help others. Open your hearts and receive me. Call upon me and I shall be with you at all times everywhere.

In your love, I am your mother Quan Yin.
