

The Consuming Violet Flame - May 14, 2004

From St Germain Channeled by Nasrin

Brethren of Light, I am Saint Germain. For hundreds of years I have worked on behalf of humanity and Mother Earth to bring peace and light of the I Am That I Am to Earth and to open the hearts of all souls to their own true essence in the presence of the I Am That I Am. I have made great efforts to leave large bodies of literature, devotional prayers, decrees, invocations, dispensations, to bring you to light, to assist you, to anchor the three-fold flame of power, wisdom and love in your hearts and in the heart of your Mother Earth.

The energies of Venus are open for humanity to receive and benefit from. Venus is much like your older sister. If you could only dream of setting foot where Venus has left off, you will be in good hands. For this reason, all the Ascended Masters who have been involved in the construction and the spiritual evolution of Venus are now present in the atmosphere of Earth and willing to give assistance to all those who ask for it. Simply call upon the Ascended Masters from Venus and upon Saint Germain, the patron, the Chohan of the Seventh Ray, and ask for the transmutation of all negativity through the violet consuming flame of love that burns in Venus and burns in the heart core of all the enlightened star systems of this entire universe.

By asking the consuming violet flame to release all negativity from all your lifetimes, you will lighten your load and you will reach to the light faster and your journey will be an easier one. Now is the time to constantly call upon the presence of the I Am That I Am and the transmutational vibrations of the violet consuming flame from the heart of divine love, from the sacred core of the central Sun of this entire universe.

The central Sun of this universe is opening its gateways to you. This has been given to you through the intercession of the planet Venus and the Ascended Masters who work with your planet and Venus. Envision Venus providing a filter that will prevent you from being exposed to the extremes of light.

-This filter is mainly constructed on ultra-violet energies that are brought forth through the violet consuming flame. These ultra-violet energies reflecting the light from the central Sun will clear and cleanse your planet Earth and the karma of every individual soul, from incarnation to incarnation until such point that karma is no more and the universal law of karma or cause and effect is no longer necessary or applicable for Earth or humankind.

This is then replaced with the universal law of divine love which is the order in higher evolved planets and star systems which have become enlightened-- such as Venus, your older sister, or Jupiter, a much older brother or perhaps a great uncle. And obviously the Sun for your own solar system which is the greatest and the most highly evolved star of this entire system.

Call upon the masters and beings of light from these planets and star systems to come to your assistance in the name and in the presence of the I Am That I Am. Call upon the presence of the violet consuming flame to release your load of many incarnations worth of karma and cause and effect and clean your slate from all debts, karmic or chosen by your soul on its journey from the heart of God to the depth of darkness at this point where you are about to make the turn in the direction of the return journey home.

At this point, you do not need to take back with you all the burdens that you have carried from the beginning of time through the depth of darkness. As you turn around and face the light, know that to return to the light, you only need your heart, your emotions, your joy, your happiness and your wholeness in body, mind and spirit.

We can help you find your happiness, your joy and your wholeness. At this point, we can assist you in pointing you to the direction of light and showing you your journey homebound. We can do this only if you choose to ask for it. We cannot give you assistance unless you ask for assistance.

The law of your planet requires that assistance be given when it is asked for because the law of your planet requires that it be a free-will soul. That means your own free will supercedes any will that may be externally imposed upon it, good, bad or indifferent. There are exceptions to these rules, but for the most part, your free-will planet requires us to wait until you ask for assistance and to only give you assistance when [we] have been asked for it.

I, as your older brother, ask you to remember to request our assistance. Remember to call upon us to bring you help and guidance. Remember to call upon us even in moments where you believe what you wish for is unworthy of asking. Ask and call upon us even over matters that seem trivial to you. It is in the details that sometimes you spend the most amount of time and finding yourself lost and confused.

In general principles, most of you are aware that we are on our journey homebound. The question is: Which fork on the road will you choose to take? And which of these paths that are offered to you will be of greatest benefit and of the highest interest of your soul's evolution? So, you see, it is in details that you need our guidance, and we can bring you the greatest guidance merely by the fact that you have asked for it.

We have your point of view because we know your heart. We have God's point of view because we are connected to God's heart. We can relate these two points of view to one another, not because God needs a translator but because you need a translator. And we can play this role as an older sibling would for, after all, this is what we are. We have followed the same path only we have done it a few eons before you did and we have learned from taking the same steps in the same direction, seeing the results for ourselves.

This is an open-ended story for you from where your standpoint is. This is a story we have written and concluded from where our standpoint is. So, if you want to know the last chapters of this book, all you need to do is to ask us. We would be happy to guide you to the final conclusion that will serve you, humanity, the Earth and this entire universe with greatest light.

There are many ways that you can write these ending chapters of your book of life. The choice is yours, whether you would write it in 144 chapters or you would write it in 12. If you so choose to call upon us to assist you in finding the path, the path of straight and narrow, the path with greatest light, the most victorious and glorious path of light, we are here at your service. Give us a chance to help you and together we shall fill the Earth and the consciousness of all souls with pure bright white light.

In your love, I am Saint Germain.
