

Quan Yin - Mantra for Fulfilling One's Mission

Mantra for Fulfilling One's Mission in Alignment with Career Change

Channeled by Nasrin on 8/25/2004

From the point of light within the heart core of the Undifferentiated Source,

I call forth the original blueprint for my mission in this lifetime.

I embody this blueprint.

I awaken the presence of the I AM THAT I AM through this blueprint.

I now release all obstacles, all distractions, all fears, all thought-forms, and all actions that stand in my way of embodying my mission.

In the name of the I AM THAT I AM, I ask that I fulfill my highest purpose through a career in service to light.

In the name of the I AM THAT I AM,

I embody my original blueprint in service to light and I receive abundance, prosperity, comfort and luxury.

From the heart core of the Undifferentiated Source to my heart core,

I am now the embodiment of my mission.

I am now fully compensated for serving the light.

I am now filled with joy in serving the light.

I am now celebrating the light of service in my life and in my being.

Light of God I AM, Love of God I AM, Bliss of God I AM, I AM, I AM, I AM.
