

Mantra for Truth - September 11, 2004

From Melchizedek Channeled by Nasrin

It [has been] a rule agreed upon by the collective consciousness of humanity that blood cleanses. Let us override that rule by calling upon the light of truth to cleanse. May the truth cleanse the world of all sadness and sorrow, of all fear and pain, of all violence. May the light of truth shine in every heart. May the light of truth cleanse the minds, the hearts, and the hands of all souls from all pain, from all sorrow, and from all fear. Make this your mantra with every breath. The energies of truth must be anchored. All untruth has to be released - hence, all the violence, all the abrasiveness, all the bloodshed [has to be released].

Every day in the course of your day, become aware of the presence of Christ Maitreya and call forth the energies of truth by saying over and over again:

May the truth of light be known.

May the truth of God be known.

May the truth of God be spoken.

May the truth of Christed Maitreya Buddha reign on earth now and forever.
