

QUAN YIN'S GRID FOR PURITY AND INNOCENCE - April, 2005

My Child of Light, I am Quan Yin.

We are now entering a phase in the evolution of the planet to return to the purity and innocence that God intended for the planet itself and all the souls on it.

Today I am here to speak to you of the return of the Purity and Innocence, energies that go hand in hand with one another, the energies of truth in the color of emerald green rays are emanating throughout the entire solar system and most especially moving into the atmosphere of earth.

The reason for this bombardment of pure energies is that we are moving toward the Thousand Years of Peace. On the Equinox day of 20th March, 2005 we will enter at the moment of sun moving into the equator into a new life line for Mother Earth. In this new life line we need to bring forward the energies of truth and the energies of the return of purity and innocence. It is imperative that those of you who have a pure heart pray for the return of purity and innocence. For this reason I ask you to make a grid and light three white candles, 3" x 9" pillars, through the 5th of May or for as long as they will last.

Making the Candle Grid

If you were to set them on a piece of paper, cut 12 inches across, you will have a square in which you will draw an equilateral triangle of 9 inches. Then place the three candles in the triangle. The triangle should be drawn in red ink or red felt pen and be about 1/2 inch thick so that even when you place the candles on top of it, you can see the triangle.

As you place the three white pillared candles each on one point of the red triangle, you will then draw the sign of infinity in the center of the triangle, drawing it also in the color red, large enough that it will fit right in the center of the triangle. The total size can be about 3 1/2 inches across so that each of the loops will be just over 1 1/2 inches. It is perfectly fine if it is a little bigger or smaller but it must be a decent size. Then fill the entire sign of infinity with the color red and upon completing this, you want to fill it with two mounds of cinnamon – one loop of the sign of infinity is offered to the Mother Aspect energy and the other loop to the Daughter Aspect Energy.

Reason for the Grid

This triangle is to represent the triune aspect which your planet is bound by. This triune aspect is the aspect of the mother, the father, and the child, only this time we will be focusing on the female child, as we have so far in the past 2000 years glorified the aspect of the mother, the father, and the son in the form of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, now at the beginning of the advent of the thousand years of peace we will revere and hold sacred the triune aspect in its energy as the father, the mother, and the female child. So it will be the Father, the Daughter, and the Holy Spirit.

The reason for this is that upon entry into the thousand years of peace on the 20th March, we will move energetically into a new phase, a new lifetime for Planet Earth. In this new lifetime it is the creative Mother Force that is coming to the forefront and it is also the creative Child Force in the female aspect that will be promised.

We are moving into a productive and reproductive phase of the evolution of Earth. For Earth to return to that phase of unity and oneness it is important that the triune aspect be made of two female beings and one male. For the majority being in the female essence will magnify the productive and reproductive forces which are the creative forces of this entire universe. They will go back to the drawing board and bring the creative juices out and begin to recreate this plan for our planet all over again and in the course of the recreation they will take our life force energy from the female aspect, the divine Mother Aspect, the divine female Child Aspect.

Imbuing the Candles

After the grid is complete, you will sit with this grid and pick up the [unlit] candle that is on the tip of the triangle pointing upward, preferably directed to the North, and say:

IN THE NAME OF THE I AM THAT I AM, I call upon the forces of the North and the heavenly gates of the North and the brotherhoods and the sisterhoods of the White Lodge which are in the northern direction, and I call forth the energy vibration of Purity and Innocence to return to Earth.

You will hold up the candle until you feel energetically that the energies of the heavenly realms have been imbued for about a minute and then you will place it back at the tip of the triangle, pointing North.

Then go clockwise to the next [unlit] candle. Lift it up and say:

I call forth the energies of the East and the South as I place this candle in the direction of Southeast and I ask for a new beginning for all Earth and Humankind and for the opening of the heart in the name of the Father, and the Mother, and the Female Child aspects.

You will hold it up again for a minute or two to feel that the energies of the heavenly realms in the directions of east and south are imbued in the candle, then you place the candle back.

Then go on to the last [unlit] candle, again clockwise, picking up the candle that will be sitting in southwest, holding it up, and putting out the intention:

I call forth the energies of the South and the West, the emotional body of humankind and the emotional body of Mother Earth and I ask for a clearing and cleansing of all the emotional bodies and for the opening of the heart of humanity and Mother Earth. I ask this in the name of the Father, the Mother, and the Female Child who shall return to Earth. So it is, it is done, amen.

Place the third candle back onto the grid and then sit for a moment, feeling the energies pouring in.

Lighting the Candles

Then light the first candle at the top of the triangle and say:

IN THE NAME OF THE I AM THAT I AM, I ask for the return of Purity and Innocence, as God originally intended it, back to earth.

Then go to the second candle, light it up and say:

IN THE NAME OF THE I AM THAT I AM, I ask for the return of Purity and Innocence, as God originally intended it, back to earth.

Then light the third candle and again say:

IN THE NAME OF THE I AM THAT I AM, I ask for the return of Purity and Innocence, as God originally intended it, back to earth.

And again you sit for a few minutes.

Results

The most important outcome that you will feel is that the energy in your home will become so clear and sublime, even if you light these candles for only 3 or 4 minutes each day there will be a level of fineness that you feel in the air for all the five elements that embody and imbue your home and every room in the house will become finer as though they will find their own purity and innocence.

You will find that your own body will feel as though it is moving into more refined energy. As soon as you come home your body will begin to relax, your mind and your emotions become still. This is the effect of returning to the feminine principle which is of the spirit. Its impact is to bring everything to its original form, back into the spirit.

The energy vibrations of the spiritual realms are much more refined than this realm of mundane existence which is made of much more solidified matter. When you move back into the energies of the triune aspect in the male formation, you will see that it is earthly and made of a body of matter that has solidity and focus. Its benefit is to bring focus to materialize energy, to solidify energy, to create a body of matter and make it solid.

The benefits of the triune aspect in the female essence is to return to spirit, to bring forth the creative forces, to move us to the more refined energies that are capable of vibrating a higher vibration of light. It is now time for our planet, our bodies, and all the five elements to begin to vibrate that higher vibration of light and to return to the more refined energies of the spirit. I ask that you do this and that you burn these candles and continue to do this into May of this year (2005), moving through the energies of this Equinox into the energies of Ascension which are following suit in the month of April.

Ascension Day – April 24, 2005

I ask you to be very observant of energies around the time frame from the 17th April to the end of April with very special attention to the 24th of April which Mother Mary and I have called the Ascension Day. The energy we have at our dispensation, with permission of the Karmic Board, the 24th of April is a day of moving the vibration and releasing the Earth and humankind from the triune aspect in a male formation to the triune aspect in the female formation and helping that refined texture to return to all the elements and to return to the spirit body of the planet and the spirit body of humankind.

Ascension on the 24th of April does not mean that everyone has to die or that the earth has to come to its end. It means that the energies of Ascension, the higher vibration, the energies of the spirit of all things, of all people, and of all places, is returning to earth. Just as the 20th March, the Equinox has been set for the beginning day of the thousand years of peace, the 24th of April, 2005 has been set as the day for entry into the ascension energies for Mother Earth and all humankind.

Entering into the energies of Ascension means that we will no longer be bound by the body of matter and stuck in this mundane level of existence. We will be capable of opening to the higher realms which are more refined and attaining the ascension of our bodies, the bodies of Mother Earth, and the bodies of all things, all places, and all elements. The return of the refinement, the return of liquid light, the return to the higher realms, this is what we collectively call Ascension. It is the process of beginning our ascent from the mundane realm of solid matter to the higher realm of liquid light.

I would very much like it if you would consider sharing this information with your loved ones and would be very grateful if you would begin in your teachings in your classes on spiritual subjects to talk about this important event and the impact that it will have on our bodies, the bodies of the planet, and all the five elements and to give this definition of Ascension so that people can have a better understanding as to what Ascension really is.

There is so much information that people have derived by deduction and assumption and so much of it is incorrect. So many have fears regarding Ascension because, in their minds, Ascension is synonymous with passing on from the world of the body, the world of the matter. For them it is synonymous with death. But leaving the world of matter to gradually release solid foundation and return to liquid light doesn't mean that we will die. It is dust to the old and rebirthing to the new but it doesn't mean giving up this physical body just yet.

Ultimately when the cycle of birth and death comes full circle, this body will have to be released but it will not be on the 24th of April, 2005. This date is when we will mark the beginning of a new age when we return to liquid light where we are capable of receiving and digesting liquid light, where we can ascend from being stuck in this solid body of matter and absorb this brilliance. One of its important benefits will be that many people will gradually start losing the excess weight that they have accumulated that is a result of their moving deeper and deeper into the world of solid matter especially those of you who are sensitive to the light and need to absorb and digest the light and who gain extra weight just to be able to bear the lack of the liquid light, lack of absorption of liquid light for your sustenance.

You eat more food and your body stores that food in the form of excess because it doesn't have enough light to digest and absorb and it is not capable of holding onto the light so for its sustenance it continues to absorb and digest what it moves to be nutritious and that becomes fat that sits around your bodies.

Another important benefit of this energy is that the obstacles that seem so valid in your lives will start to dissolve. The feelings of loneliness that many of you have been harboring in your lives will begin to dissolve. The relationships that have become so hard to manage, whether they be between partners, parents, grandparents, children, family members, social groups, work forces in the business environment, even the relationships between countries and states as well as the global relationships, will all soften up because there is enough liquid light to digest and that energy vibration is like a bomb or a nectar that will lubricate your broken hearts and bring you to that original state of Purity and Innocence.

QUAN YIN'S GRID FOR COMPASSION – May 1, 2005

In May of 2005, Mother Mary and Lord Buddha and I will come together and we will anchor the energies of the Father, Mother, and Daughter Child aspect through the energy vibration of the Ray of Compassion which is a dusty pink color. If you add pink and purple together they become this color. From 5th of May, 2005 all the way through all the Feasts of the Virgin we will begin the anchoring of the energies of Compassion. As you absorb the liquid light and you open your hearts to one another you will be filled with the purple pink ray of compassion in the space of your hearts. At that point I would like for you to create another grid.

Up to the 5th of May you will continue with your pure white candles but on the 1st of May you will set up this other grid next to your white candles grid that will be the Grid of Compassion.

Making the Candle Grid

Get three 3" x 9" purple pink or dusty pink pillar candles. Set up the same sized paper and 9 inch equilateral triangle, only this time you will draw the triangle and the sign of infinity in the center with pink colored pen.

In this grid, instead of the cinnamon in the sign of infinity, you will place a small, clear container filled with rose water bought from any store.

Imbuing the Candles

With the three compassion candles set in the same way on the corners of the triangle in the grid, you will begin imbuing the candles. Lift the unlit candle in the north, holding it up and say:

IN THE NAME OF THE I AM THAT I AM, I call forth the presence of Buddha, Quan Yin, and Mother Mary to imbue this candle with the Ray of Compassion.

Pause for a moment to ensure that the energies have been imbued and then replace the unlit candle in the north.

Next, pick up the unlit candle in the southeast and say again:

IN THE NAME OF THE I AM THAT I AM, I call forth the energies of Buddha, Quan Yin and Mother Mary to imbue this candle with the Ray of Compassion.

Pause for a moment to ensure that the energies have been imbued and then replace the unlit candle in the southeast.

Then go to the third point in the southwest, lifting up the last unlit candle, and again say:

IN THE NAME OF THE I AM THAT I AM, I call forth the energies of Buddha, Quan Yin and Mother Mary to imbue this candle with the energy of compassion.

Pause for a moment to ensure that the energies have been imbued and then replace the unlit candle in the southwest.

Set your container of rose water in the center right over the center of the sign of infinity, which has been drawn in pink. It is important to put in the intention that we are calling upon rose water. Sit for a moment and then say:

IN THE NAME OF THE I AM THAT I AM, I call forth the Ray of Compassion to embody and imbue this grid of light.

Light each candle, starting with the northern one, and say The Mantra of Compassion:

The light of compassion I AM, the love of compassion I AM, the bliss of compassion I AM. I open my heart to the light, the love, and the bliss of compassion IN THE NAME OF THE I AM THAT I AM.

Repeat the exact same mantra as you light each of the candles without picking them up. After you have said this three times, sit for a few minutes while repeating the Mantra of Compassion.

You will find the energy vibration of compassion moving through your own body and by so doing it will anchor these energies. With permission of the Counsels of Light and in unison with my beloved Lord Buddha and Our Lady, Mother Mary, to you I turn with great love and with great gratitude for you have a pure heart and you have a compassionate heart and you have a big heart that is capable of holding so much love and compassion for all people, places, and things. After you have begun this energy vibration you will be the anchor for it and all of those who are guided to the website and these words will follow suit and together we will anchor these energies.

Events to Come

As the planet comes out of her fears, humanity will follow suit and as the humankind will begin to open their hearts and trust one another, life on earth will begin on a different course. Remember that this also means that the planet will be shaking herself out of her dross so there are events that will assist the release of the dross and the karmic entanglements from the planetary point of view. All of this is in good measure and for good reasons and all of that release is necessary.

We all need to unburden ourselves; the five elements need to unburden themselves. Humanity needs to lay this burden off its shoulders and most important Mother Earth needs to unburden herself from her scars and all the pain and pollution. The month of May, 2005 will be a month of both agony and of ecstasy where we will release the pain and in its remembrance realize how much suffering has occurred and how grateful we are to let it all go. That is the agony aspect. The ecstasy aspect is the feeling of newness, rebirth, and hope that will be so welcome and it is long overdue and yet better late than never and yet it is perfectly timed.

We are now in the first year of a seven-year cycle and look what is ahead of us. If the acceleration of this path continues on this way, imagine what will be the full fruition of this cycle; not yet three months into the first year of the cycle there are already so many changes, so much hope, the return of one thousand years of peace, the return of the energy vibration of truth.

Master Hilarion, the Guardian of Truth, is sending from his own heart the emerald green Ray of Truth and Hope that will emanate the entire planet and all humankind with the emerald green ray imbuing the five elements with that vibration of Truth and Hope.

The return of the triune aspect in the Mother, Daughter, and Father formation bringing the creative forces back to our earth, the productive and reproductive energy vibration to take us from duality to unity.

The return of the energy vibration of compassion to be the nectar that soothes your hearts and brings you back to much higher levels of trust and compassion. The nectar that washes away the scars and the wounds in your broken hearts and brings back love and bliss and ecstasy, imagine all of this in the first five months of the first year of this seven-year cycle.

Do we dare to think that by the end of the seven-year cycle we will have Heaven on Earth and we will be well on our way into the thousand years of peace? It will be my pleasure and my joy to come back and commune with you all bringing you the great news of the events to follow beyond May of 2005. In June and July we will prepare by bringing new energies to the planet. We will have the greatest celebration of light in August. August will be the opening of all of the Heavenly Gates and the brotherhoods and the sisterhoods of the white lodge will prepare themselves to send a profusion of pure white light to the planet's atmosphere and to the hearts of all mankind. This event is set for around the 12th of August 2005 through the harmonic conversions into the end of August to be followed by September Equinox of equal magnitude, of equal glory, and of great victory.

It is my joy to be with you in this year of great celebration and it is my greatest pleasure to be witness to what we have together created. This is a balm on the broken bones of we the Masters, this is a balm on our blistered skins for all that we have suffered on your behalf and for all that we have given of ourselves to see the dawning of this day. This is the greatest celebration of all time.

Take a deep breath with me and know that you will be in a different state and it is my pleasure to tell you that it will be a state of joy and euphoria once again. Euphoria of a different nature but still a feeling of peace that you will experience even within every cell of your being, the knowing of the truth of which I have spoken to you will resonate at the DNA structure and it will help you see this vision that I am portraying before you and it will bring you great joy. I must tell you that it gives me enormous pleasure to be the bearer of this good news and to be able to offer it to you for you deserve it, you truly deserve it.
