

Gateway Portal Day 3/3/2011

Transcript

Hello everyone, this is Jim, and welcome to Gateway Portal Channeling 3-3-2011, March 3, 2011. Thank you all for being here and I want to wish you a happy Shivaratri.

Shivaratri

This day is Shivaratri and it's the Festival for Lord Shiva. Lord Shiva the destroyer of karma and the remover of all obstacles. We will honor Lord Shiva and Shakti his consort today, and on the Festival of Shivaratri every prayer to Lord Shiva is multiplied a thousand times. Many people across the world take a seven day vigil, a prayer vigil, in honor of Lord Shiva and this holiday. We also, as part of our mystery school, have a course, we have the Festival of Navaratri for Divine Mother, and we have the Festival of Shivaratri for Lord Shiva, and those of you who already have that course in your membership, go into that course, and if you haven't started doing the prayers and reviewing the course, please take this opportunity to do that.

Every prayer on this day is multiplied a thousand times. Lets take a moment and say a prayer for your loved ones, and let us pray for this earth, for mother earth, and removing all the dross, pray for humankind, bring forth the energies of non-violence, bring forth the energies of compassion, and lets say a special prayer for the indigos, the star children, the crystal children and the children of light, who are becoming very active right now, and who will be come active.

As you are saying your prayers and set your intentions, visualize that you are standing on top of Uluru, the great red rock in central Australia, and see that Lord Shiva and Goddess Shakti are standing on either side of you. Begin to feel the energy of the rock, as your heart beat begins to beat in sync with the heartbeat of Uluru, and with the heartbeat of Lord Shiva and Goddess Shakti, look out over the horizon high above the ground, hundreds of feet above the ground, see this rock rising into the heavens above, connecting with earth, connecting with the five elements, connecting with Uluru, connecting with Shiva and Shakti.

Grounding with Uluru

Now feel yourself dissolve into Uluru, merging with Uluru, merging with Lord Shiva, merging with Goddess Shakti. As you merge into the rock, dissolve into Uluru, Uluru slides to the center of the earth. Imagine that the big rock slides all the way to the center of the earth and it super imposes itself over the great core crystal at the center of the earth. This rock that is Uluru is almost exactly the same size as the core crystal at the center of the earth.

Visualize that you and this entire group stand with Shiva and Shakti before the sacred altar at the center of the earth and see the pillar of light descend around you. The pillar of great light that will descend around you, individually, from the heavens above, all the way from the throne of Divine Mother at the one hundred and twenty second dimension surrounds you and your five body system, and as you establish yourself in this pillar of pure white light, see that there is a single pillar of pure white light that is going to descend around everyone in this group and every individual pillar of light of every member of this group.

Bring your attention to your crown chakra; see that your antahkarana cord, your gold and silver cord, is brilliantly illuminated. Take a breath into the antahkarana cord and let it expand your thousand petalled lotus of the crown as fully open. Brilliant white light beaming from the petals of the lotus of the crown, disc of the moon in the center, antahkarana cord extending up, move your energy up and we will all move up through the thrones.

Nodes of Light and Thrones.

We will first go to each of the nodes of light between the crown and I AM that I AM. You move through the eighth chakra, the abode of the soul, and illuminate that as we spin and spiral up together up to the ninth chakra, the throne, the abode of the oversoul. The 33 members of your soul lineage of light reside here. See that they all together with us spin and spiral up to the tenth chakra, the node of light which holds your monadic council, your own monadic council, the council of nine. As they stand around you and join us we spin and spiral up to the eleventh chakra, to the node of light which contains your council of twelve.

I Am, YHWH, Maha Elohim

As they join us and we spin and spiral up to the throne of the I AM that I AM, the twelfth chakra. See the perfected presence of the I AM standing in front of you and see Sanat Kumara, the planetary logos, his consort, Lady Venus standing there as we all together join merging together at the throne of the I AM that I AM spinning up to the throne of YHWH, Christ Maitreya and Quan Yin sitting on the throne, the 24 elders sitting around the throne. Golden yellow light filling the throne as we all merge together, spinning and spiraling up to the throne of God source, Melchior and Melchiel, the residing deities join us as we all merge together, spinning and spiraling up to the 55th. The throne at the fifty fifth dimensions is the throne of the Elohim, the Maha Elohim. Sananda and Star Astrea are the residing deities here. The seven mighty Elohim are also sitting before the throne.

Undifferentiated Source, Paramatman, Great Divine Director, Throne of Divine Mother.

we spin and spiral up to the throne of Undifferentiated source with Lord Melchizedek and Lady Malak sitting at the throne of Undifferentiated source, as the residing deities, moving up to the throne of Paramatman spinning up through the thrones of the Lords of Light, the throne of the great Divine Director, Master Thoth and Lady Vega, and we all together spin and spiral up to stand before the sacred fire at the throne of Divine Mother. As we all stand before the sacred fire, make your offerings, your prayers and set your intentions. Now as we stand before the fire, be aware of everyone else in this group entity also standing at the throne of Divine Mother, and Shiva and Shakti are standing on either side of you individually, and visualize that you are in the center of a grid of light, and we call your personal guardian angel to come forth.

Personal and Cosmic Guardian Angels

I ask each one of you to invite your personal guardian angel to come stand in front of you, and as you look into the eyes of your personal guardian angel, and you feel the energy of your guardian angel, it wraps its arms around you and merges with you, holding you. Inside your personal guardian angel your heart begins to beat in sync with your guardian. Now see that your cosmic guardian has come to stand directly behind you, towering over you, your cosmic guardian raps his wings around you, holding you in his bosom, pulling you in; you and your personal guardian angel are held within the energy and protection of your cosmic guardian. Feel the energy of your cosmic guardian, as your heart beats in sync with your personal and cosmic guardian.

Goddess of Victory

Now visualize that cosmic being, Goddess of Victory, comes to stand directly behind you and the cosmic guardian, holding her scepter of victory above her head beaming yellow gold light, holding you and your cosmic guardian in yellow golden light, and see that the legions of the Goddess of Victory, the angelic forces of the Goddess of Victory are creating a circle, standing shoulder to shoulder with their scepters above their head, their scepters of victory above their head, and see that walking to stand directly in front of you is one of the legions of the Goddess of Victory, she comes to stand directly in front of you, her scepter of victory in her hand above her head, and she begins to merge into you and your personal guardian angel, infusing you and your guardian angel with the qualities and energy of the Goddess of Victory.

Goddess of Glory.

Now visualize that standing to the left of Goddess of Victory, is Goddess of Glory, she is holding her rod of glory above her head and bathing you in copper gold light, and see that the legions of the Goddess of Glory are forming another circle around the first circle of the Goddess of Victory, beaming copper gold light and holding their rod of glory above their head, and see that one of the angelic forces of Goddess of Glory is coming to stand directly in front of you beaming copper gold light with her rod of glory in her hand. She merges with you and your personal guardian angel, imbuing you with the qualities of the Goddess of Glory, imbuing you with the essence of the Goddess of Glory.

Goddess of Liberty.

Now to the right of Goddess of Victory, comes Goddess of Liberty, she stands holding her torch of liberty above her head beaming platinum and pewter light, and see that the legions of Goddess of Liberty are coming to form a third circle around the other two. Each one of the legions of angelic forces of liberty are holding their torches of liberty above their heads, and see that one of the angelic beings of the legions of Liberty is standing before you, torch above her head, emanating platinum and pewter light from her body as she merges with you and your guardian angel, imbuing you with the energies, the essences and the qualities of Goddess of Liberty. Know that you and your personal guardian angel continue to be imbued with the energies of victory, glory and liberty rapped in the cosmic guardians love and protection. These qualities imbued in the cosmic guardian as well. Be aware that you are standing merged into your personal guardian angel, wrapped within the wings of your cosmic guardian, Lord Shiva, Lady Shakti, are standing on either side of you. Behind you, Goddess of Victory directly behind you, Goddess of Liberty to the right of Goddess of Victory, Goddess of Glory to the left of Goddess of Victory and three circles of angelic forces of victory, glory and liberty standing around you. Continue deep breathing and once again set out your intentions, both globally and personally and the next voice you hear next will be that of our beloved Nasrin.

Nasrin Speaks

Hello everyone and welcome to 3-3 gateway portal channeling session, Happy Shivaratri to all of you. Let us take a deep breath together and become aware of the group energy. Many hundreds of people have joined us on this wonderful occasion. Many people are creating groups small and large to help us not load the phone lines, and we thank them for creating the groups, especially groups all over the world in Australia, in Europe, in Central and South America, in Mexico, in the Middle East, as we pray on this auspicious time of Shivaratri.

Shivaratri is celebrated at the dark side of the moon, that falls somewhere between mid February to middle of March, according to the lunar calendar that is kept by the Indian astronomy. Where God Shiva, Lord Shiva is revered and worshiped and called upon to remove obstacles from our path and to destroy all karma and karmic entanglements. Usually a 24 hour or 7 day prayer vigil is taken around the time of Shivaratri with the various mantras, sacred hymns that are offered to him. One of the most prominent ones is Om. Namah Shivaya, salutation to Lord Shiva, who is the true self of all selves, the god self within each of us. Om Namah Shivaya, in the name of Lord Shiva, salutations to Shiva, the true Guru, the true master, the true god self, the one self that shines within each of us and greets others. Om Namah Shivaya, standing before the altar of Divine Mother let us together offer the sacred syllables to the fire at the altar of Divine Mother, Om Namah Shivaya, Om Namah Shivaya.

Visualize that the fire from the altar is rising up and allowing each of us to bathe and free ourselves from layers and layers of karma and karma entanglements. Breathe and bathe Om Namah Shivaya, Om Namah Shivaya in the in-breath, Om Namah Shivaya in the out-breath. The chakra of the third eye is the abode of Lord Shiva. Lord Shiva sends us guidance into that chakra. When you breathe Om Namah Shivaya, let the breath pause for a moment, charging the chakra, your third eye, pull the breath through your nostrils into the chakra of your third eye and pause, Om Namah Shivaya, breathe in, breathe in Om Namah Shivaya and let it bathe in the third eye chakra and then gently exhale, Om Namah Shivaya, let the air around you become filled with love for Shiva and then breathe that love back as Lord Shiva magnifies it and let it permeate in your third eye, Om Namah Shivaya, pause to bathe your third eye and then exhale, Om Namah Shivaya. You may see profusion of light as you do this, Om Namah Shivaya, Om Namah Shivaya, breathe and bath.

Divine Mother begins

My children of Light I am your very own Divine Mother.

I congratulate you on this Festival of Shivaratri and I bathe you in the love of Lord Shiva and I invite Goddess Shakti the feminine creative force and Lord Shiva the masculine creative force to come forth embodied in form as a female deity and the male deity to stand before the altar as I call you to make offerings in their name to the fire at the altar.

Lord Shiva bedecked in his ceremonial robes, he wears a leopard skin and many pieces of jewelry and Goddess Shakti wears a beautiful red robe made of silk and gold filaments with many golden bangles on her forearms and many golden rings, a beautiful tiara over her head, golden jewelry hanging from her ears, golden jewelry over her forehead and around her neck, elegant and regal Goddess Shakti is standing as abundant as always.

Standing before Lord Shiva and Goddess Shakti immersed in your own personal guardian angel and your cosmic guardian angel, and the guardian angel of Goddess of Victory, the guardian angel of Goddess of Liberty, guardian angel of Goddess of Glory, qualities of victory, liberty, and glory illumined within your own heart chakra throbbing as you connect from your heart to the heart of your personal guardian angel and your cosmic guardian angel. I have brought you these guardians, because at this time of change on earth these guardians will love you, and protect you, and help you to accomplish what you are here on earth to accomplish. It is of utmost importance that you allow yourself to be protected in the bosom of your personal guardian angels and your cosmic guardian angels.

Your personal guardian angels deal with your mundane life, deal with your life on earth in physical embodiment. Your cosmic guardian angels deals with your sublime life, the life that your soul has come to help you live by spiritizing the matter of this body, and spiritizing the matter of this earth. Your cosmic guardian angel is here to help you be the embodiment of your divine mission. Your cosmic guardian angel is here to help your personal guardian angel to accomplish everything in this world and to free your time and your life force from the repetitive chores so that you can allocate your life force, your time, your energy, your love, your attention, your light, to accomplishing greater things, to accomplishing your divine mission.

These great cosmic beings, Goddess of Victory, Goddess of Liberty, and Goddess of Glory have offered to come to earth, and they have brought hosts of their own angelic forces. The angelic forces of Victory will allow you to be victorious in all your endeavors. The angelic forces of Liberty will allow you to be liberated from the ho-hum mundane life and feel the bliss of the magical life that your soul wishes for you to live, that your higher self desires for you to live.

I guide you and clear the path. The life of bliss, the life of joy, the life of peace and harmony, that is where I guide you to find the peace and equilibrium you deserve and that is why I have called upon these illuminated cosmic beings to bring their angelic hosts. Goddess of Glory calling upon the angels of glory to shine the light of glory upon your path to spread the light of Glory like gold dust, to pave the path that you walk upon, removing the obstacles, smoothing out the kinks and the creases away from your path. Your light is so important to the world and so very important to what you and I will do together, that there is no time to be wasted. These angelic forces of Glory, Victory and Liberty are here to work with your personal guardian and your cosmic guardian to pave the path, to remove the obstacles to smooth out the kinks to glorify you to make you victorious and to liberate you from mundane trivia so you can spend your time serving the higher purpose, the greater reason for which you have incarnated on earth.

Standing around the altar, visualize Goddess Shakti and Lord Shiva, and take your scepter of power, and those of you who don't know what your scepter of power is, it is a power object that is bestowed upon you by the will of your very own Divine Mother. There are many aspects to the scepter of power. Every one of you has a personal scepter. A personal scepter can be charged and imbued from a global perspective so that what you do in your personal life can help your world.

Your global scepter is bestowed to you by the guardian of your world, the word for your world, Sanat Kumara. Your global scepter of power is larger and more potent than your personal scepter of power, therefore, it will sit on top of and it will activate your personal scepter of power. When you hold your scepter of power above your head, that becomes the sign that you are now demanding and decreeing on behalf of the light.

There are many other layers to a scepter of power, the galactic, the universal, the cosmic, all of which will empower you to the next level, so that you can pull the light from those depths of the cosmos, and that your light and your prayers can reach from the core of your own heart to the depths of the cosmos.

Visualize a golden globe attached to a long rod that is now illuminated in your hands. You are holding your scepter of power in both hands and lifting it up above your head. It might seem heavy as you lift it up, but once it becomes activated not only does it become light weight, it will make you feel lighter, and as you hold your scepter of power above your head, become aware of the presence of the Goddess of Victory directly behind you, and the legions of the angelic forces of Victory standing in circles with their scepters of victory above their heads. Golden light of victory is illuminated throughout the entire space where you individually and every member of the group form your circle. In the presence of Lord Shiva and Goddess Shakti, in the presence of the angelic forces, and in the presence of the Goddesses of Victory, Liberty and Glory, as you hold your scepter of power above your head, I call upon Goddess of Glory to send her legions of glory to activate their rod of glory. The rod of glory is a long beacon, when it is illuminated it shines a copper gold light. That copper gold light is the light of purity and innocence that your very own Divine Mother has bestowed upon Goddess of Glory and Goddess of Glory is now bestowing upon you by charging the rod in the hands of the angelic forces. See the circle of the angelic forces of Glory pointing their rod of glory emanating copper gold light. See your own scepter throbbing in your hand, pulsing and the sounds of Om Namah Shivaya are resounding inside the temple and upon the altar as you stand in the presence of Shiva and Shakti and your very own Divine Mother, Goddess of Victory, and Goddess of Glory.

Now Goddess of Liberty will stand forth holding her torch of liberty above her head and the torch is fully illuminated with pewter platinum light and the legions of the angels of Liberty stand around the circle holding their torch of liberty above their head connecting with your scepter of power and illuminating the energies of liberty, freedom from fear, freedom from ignorance, freedom from darkness, freedom from vice, freedom from vanity, freedom from ignorance, freedom from arrogance, freedom from greed, freedom from corruption, freedom from falling prey to deception, freedom to be a highly illuminated beacon of light, freedom to breathe and bathe and anchor the temple of liberty. Breathe and bathe, holding your scepter up.

Significance of Templates.

I would like to talk to you about the significance of templates. Templates are the building blocks that form to encapsulate the life force. How the life force acts, how the life force unfolds, how the life force behaves in each environment depends upon the template upon which it is encapsulated. The grooves and the etchings, sometimes the scrapes and scratches, the nicks and tears in the template cause karma or should I say karma and karmic entanglements, negative behaviors. Low qualities and energies cause grooves, scrapes, and scratches, nicks and tears within the template. The template encapsulates various qualities.

Right now I am putting a lot of energy into anchoring the Template of Purity and Innocence. Why, you may ask? Why so much emphasis on purity and innocence? Why is the template of purity and innocence so important? This template is of utmost importance right now because your world is impure. Your world is polluted in every sense of the way. The five elements are polluted. The waters are poisoned, the air is poisoned, the earth is poisoned, and fire can get rampant because it is one way to cleanse the pollution. The mental, emotional bodies of all souls are polluted. People greed after material wealth, and hoard material wealth and they believe they are smart. People hide material resources, waste material resources, rather than share and they believe it is their right. If I am in the right position to take advantage than I should has become the mantra. I should take advantage, I am smart. I am the one who is in the right place at the right time so I should take advantage, and so what if it ends up at other peoples cost. That has become the mantra, self serving, self centered, self involved behavior, impure behavior, deceiving behavior, corrupt behavior, and greedy behavior.

The pollution in the Template of Purity and Innocence has become so rampant that it is no longer a Template of Purity and Innocence with a few grooves and nicks, it's actually become the template of deception and corruption with a few instances of purity and innocence and that's another thing I want to talk to you. Sometimes the flip side of the template becomes the norm. Right now the template that is the norm is the template of corruption, deception and greed and if you take away those templates from heads of state, from people in positions of power they become angry, they move into their self righteous position of, "I deserve it, I earned it, I am smart enough to take advantage of the system. The system allows me to do whatever I want."

Scepter of Power, Glory, Victory, Liberty.

The Template of Purity and Innocence needs to return to earth, and on this night of Shivaratri, I very specifically want to ask each of you to hold your scepter of power above your head, your personal, your global, your galactic, your universal, your cosmic scepter, your scepter of glory, scepter of victory, scepter of liberty and asked to be liberated from impure thoughts and emotions, and ask that earth be liberated from impure thoughts and emotions, the five elements be liberated from impure thoughts and emotions, the five elements be liberated from physical impurity, pollution, the thoughts and minds, hearts and emotions of all souls be liberated from impure thoughts and actions through the intercession of Lord Shiva and Goddess Shakti on this auspicious momentous event of Shivaratri where every prayer is magnified a thousand fold.

Together as one united front we stand with the scepters liberty, glory, victory, the scepter that holds the template of purity and innocence, and we call upon the return of purity and innocence, eradication of corruption, deception, greed, and I ask you to put whatever other intensions you would like very specifically for yourself, for members of your family, for your loved ones, for your country, for your country people, for the continent, for mother earth and for those you know and those you do not know, for the five elements to take the path of perfection, and for the five elements to return to the perfection of the original divine plan. In the divine plan the five elements were installed in their most pure, most perfect, most innocent state. Breathe and bathe.

What is a template?

The template is the container. If you want to contain something you need a container. If you want to gather water, you need to find a suitable jar. If you want to contain earth, you need to find a suitable vase or pot. If you want to contain fire, you need to find a suitable urn. Air and ether encompass everything, and they weave their presence into the lower elements. If you want to bring specific qualities to your reality you need to find a template. Sometimes, the abuse of a template turns that template on its flip side. But even that has its face.

When you have health, you have a healthy template. When the body is abused it becomes unhealthy, then the healthy template is tampered with. The healthy template begins to find grooves and nicks and scratches. Gradually, when the abuse continues, that healthy template turns on the flip side and becomes a cancerous template, it becomes an unhealthy template. It becomes a deadly template. It is like a pendulum swing, one side one end is the perfect side.

When the template is brand new, coming from the realms of light pure and innocent, clear as a bell, and then it enters into realms of density, and as it moves into further density it gathers dross, and the density begins to show its resistance, scraping and scratching, and as it continues to swing to the other end it gets to a point where that template turns on its flip side, when light becomes dark, when good becomes bad, when pure becomes impure, when innocence becomes corrupt and when truth become untruth, when health becomes disease, when life becomes death.

Sometimes the cycle of life and death are necessary components of rebirthing. For rebirthing to happen, life has to come to fruition, and maturation, and death, so that it can lead to rebirthing. The template of Purity and Innocence that I so deeply insist on bringing is that process of rebirthing. The Template that we called when we gathered all of you to come together with the bubble of protection for the young and innocent and pure members of the human family, that event of coming together to throw the bubble of St. Germain's Violet Flame, with a special reference to people in the age range of seventeen and thirty five. The significance of that event was to bring back the Template of Purity and Innocence for these young people because the Template of Purity and Innocence has actually turned into its flip side and these young ones need a container for whatever qualities that they need to anchor. They have come to earth to be of service. They have come to earth to bring their light. They have come to earth to change the corruption, the deception, the darkness, the density.

When a template turns on its flipside then there will be a phase of disharmony.

If you go back in time, you can see examples of this. There was a phase when there was cholera, as a killer disease, another phase where typhoid was a killer disease, and another phase where malaria was a killer disease. Imagine that the template of health turns on its flip side and the grooves on that template etching in a certain way, and the etchings, the nicks and scrapes and scratches and tears formulating an environment that would welcome malaria. It still has its cycle it came and it's gone, practically gone from earth. Typhoid, it began, it had a beginning, middle and an end which is the good news.

When the template is abused and it turns on its flip side, when a template is abused and goes awry it still goes through its phase of birth, death and rebirth, this is why I keep assisting that all of you carry the seed of Purity and Innocence in your heart. This is why I keep giving you angelic beings, great cosmic beings to be your guides. This is why I give you various modalities of protection, various layers of empowerment, tools to empower yourselves, because I want you to reach to a state of where you are vibrating at such a high frequency that you flip the corrupt template back to its original pure divine state.

When you carry the seed of purity and innocence, you can turn any corrupt state of any formula, any situation, and any circumstance back to its purity and innocence. You can go to a war zone and be the cause for ending of the war. You can go to an environment of civil war that has been raging for years and years and years and see the ending of civil war. You can focus your energy on shifting the nature of the economy. You can focus your energy on ending cancer, ending aids, and by so doing, you take the corrupt template and you turn it back into its original state. Everything always goes back into its original state.

The original state of life is perfection. Purity and Innocence is part of that original state. Impurity is an imposter, impurity is a state of lack, impurity is an imposed state, not a natural state. Cancer is not a natural state of the body. Perfect health is the natural state of the body. A perfectly healthy body is always in a state of purity and innocence. A perfectly healthy economy is always in a state of purity and innocence; people share the resources with each other. A perfect forest is free from aphids and blights and vermin and imposters. A perfect house is free from rotten wood and mold and mildew. A perfect body of water is free from putrid algae. Each of these in their state of purity and innocence vibrate perfection.

When the state of purity and innocence is compromised perfection becomes imperfection. Purity becomes corruption. Pure becomes impure. Innocence becomes corrupt, truth becomes untruth, hope becomes sadness and sorrow and fear, joy becomes anger. The natural state of life is filled with joy. It bubbles with life, and when life becomes dim it moves away from perfection. What we do is to take that flipped template and return it into the purity of the original intent. That is why I say to you, I want you to be the embodiment of the Pure and Innocent seed of life. That is why I keep giving you these seeds, the seed of hope, the seed of truth, seed of abundance, seed of health, seed of wholeness. These seeds carry the perfection and when they blossom and bloom they become the template the pure and innocent template for the return of that quality.

The first template to bring back is purity and innocence, because you want everything to be returned to the state of purity and innocence. Every template gone awry, every situation turned into its flip side has its phase and cycle, just as cholera, and typhoid and malaria has had its cycle. Just as cancer and aids has had its cycle. The end of these two cycles will be seen by each of you in this lifetime, just as history has shown that typhoid, and cholera, and malaria had their turn. And they have disappeared. In your own lifetime you will see the disappearance of these diseases that right now are rampant on earth.

If you examine each of these issues, as the state of life, the state of spiritual growth, or lack thereof, you will see that we are coming to that point in the cycle where the template of ignorance, the templates of spiritual sleep, ignorance, unwakefulness, unawareness of spiritual divinity has also arrived. You will see that we have now reached the point of the flip side of this template, the template of spiritual growth that has turned on its flip side now for a few thousand years and is at its worst because this is the point where it flips back again. And we will be moving back step by step, in a gradual process, from sleep of ignorance to wakefulness, soulful behavior, sharing, acceptance, universal laws that apply to divine love rather than to cause and effect. You will see that the idea of eye for an eye will become outdated, outmoded, and impractical. Gandhi said an eye for an eye will make the whole world blind, and these young souls, the souls of the indigos, the crystal children and star children, these are the souls that have the full understanding that an eye for eye will make the whole world blind and they are the ones that will promote, they will become the embodiment of that rebirthing, they will come together to rebirth the pure and innocence template again.

Standing with your scepter of power above your head, on this auspicious occasion of Shivaratri, and if you read this after Shivaratri, remember you are connecting to that moment of Shivaratri. You are entering into the energy of Shivaratri; you are standing before Lord Shiva and Goddess Shakti. It matters not that you are in the middle of summer, fall, spring or winter. What matters is that you are connected to this energy, connected into the energy of Shivaratri. Hold your scepter of power above your head as you will notice that the angelic forces of Victory, the angelic forces of Glory, the angelic forces of Liberty are holding their scepters of power, their rod of power, their torch of liberty, scepter of victory, rod of glory, above their heads and Lord Shiva and Goddess Ask to receive the template of purity and innocence, that you will be the embodiment for the seed of perfection, and send out as a decree, as a demand, as a command. Demanding purity and innocence is not an arrogant behavior. Demanding perfection is not from a place of ego or arrogance. You are demanding your divine right. Demanding something in this context is not mean use of force. It means your determination to humbly embody the power and use it not to control others but to guide and direct others. Shakti are standing to your attention as you are offering decrees and that you are standing before the flames of the altar with your very own Divine Mother. Your Divine Mother is guiding you, instructing you and illuminating your own scepter of power. Ask for all the corrupt templates, all the outdated templates, all the impure templates, all the imperfect templates to be returned to the perfection of the original intent and for the seed of purity and innocence to be embodied, to be imbedded, to be enmeshed, ingrained into the fabric of time and space.

Demanding, decreeing, commanding the five elements to come together to bring perfection, it is your right to command the five elements The five elements have gone into the corrupt state that they are at because you as their sovereign stopped demanding of them to remain perfect. You as the sovereign for this earth stopped commanding the five elements to act from the perfection of their original divine purity. I am asking you now be the sovereign of your world, be the sovereign of your body, be the sovereign of your soul, be the sovereign of your personality aspects, and let the sovereign spirit of light enter within you to command and demand the return of perfection through the Template of Purity and Innocence. Hold your scepters up and say “In the name of love, through the intercession of Lord Shiva on this Shivaratri moment, I command and demand, I decree the return of the perfection, I embody the template of purity and innocence, I receive the seed, the seed of purity and innocence, the life force of Divine Mother encapsulated inside of the seed placed within my cosmic heart”, Prepare to receive the seed, if you so will it, if you so wish to receive the seed, then come and stand before me and receive this seed in the form of a golden nugget. Looks a lot like a peanut in its shell, and the shell when you look at the shell of a peanut, it's as if it has grooves and etchings. The seed of purity and innocence, the seed that holds the template of purity and innocence, the seed that holds the perfection of life, the creative life force of divine mother, definitely has etchings, etchings that are etched into the fabric of this seed in the language of light. The language is familiar to you but you cannot recollect its content while you are in physical embodiment in this third dimension. It is something that your soul and spirit remembers and knows and that is why it is so familiar to you.

Come forth and stand before me and allow me to offer you the seed, and I will bring the seed to your cosmic heart and it will be absorbed into the space of your cosmic heart on top of your chest, and you will feel the experience of an expansion in your chest and lightness in your body. Your breath comes in easy and comes out easy. Then go stand before Lord Shiva and ask him to bless the seed to remove the obstacles on your path to clear your path from karma and karmic entanglements, to remove the obstacles from the path in your mundane life and from the path of obtaining greater spiritual powers, spiritual wisdom, spiritual light, spiritual life force, and see that Lord Shiva places his hand over your chest in the area where the seed has now lodged itself and heat will move into your chest allowing the absorption of the vibrational frequency of the seed into every cell, every molecule, every iota of your being in the space of your cosmic heart and breathe to fully establish the energies and then go and stand before Goddess Shakti. Goddess Shakti is the feminine force. Creativity, fertility, abundance, and prosperity are hers to give and as you stand before her ask her for creativity, fertility, abundance, prosperity, success in the mundane and obtainments of spiritual growth and advancement, enlightenment in the sublime, and allow Goddess Shakti to place her hand over your cosmic heart, and again heat moving lodging the qualities that will allow you to become abundant, prosperous, fertile, not just with procreation but with all levels of creativity.

You may not want to become fertile as in impregnated, but there is nothing wrong with being creatively impregnated, abundantly impregnated, powerfully impregnated, creativity, fertility, prosperity, health and wholeness, abundant life force, abundant zest and fervor.

Those of you who are old souls and are weary and tired of the drudgery of this world of the mundane, the density of this world of the mundane, and your spirit is soaring with the possibility of returning to perfection will truly enjoy what Goddess Shakti has to offer you and she will offer it to you with the least amount of work, struggle and pain. In fact, on your behalf I ask of her to remove the work, the struggle, the pain and to replace it with joy. Let joy spring forth, let there be a fountain of joy that constantly bubbles up to the surface with every step that you take with every project that you embark upon, so nothing becomes ho-hum, that nothing becomes old chore, nothing becomes same old same old, ever.

Look into the eyes of Goddess Shakti and see the shine in her eyes, see the smile on her face, see the joy in her heart, and know that joy is contagious, and she has every reason to, every desire, every motive to transfer that joy to you if only you are willing to receive it and willing to let go of the old patterns. In fact on your behalf I ask of her to clear and cleanse the grooves. You know old behaviors become grooves, they etch their way into your psyche and there comes a point where you catch yourself, because you are doing what you only know how to do best, and sometimes what you know how to do best is dysfunctional and you get used to the dysfunctional ways, because the only way to function is to dysfunction and that's exactly what we are trying to remove here, we are turning that flipped template back into its right side up.

When we do that the dysfunctional behavior, the etches and the grooves, the old patterns will be released, and lets us ask that Goddess Shakti will see to it that it will be released once and for all. The impact may be gradual and you may catch yourself, once or twice before you fully let it go and that's perfectly fine. Sometimes, the best way to learn is to catch yourself doing something that you don't want to do anymore. For those of you who are done catching yourself, you can let it go right now. If you are done catching yourself and you don't even want it to be a gradual process, if you want to be done even learning lessons on this auspicious time of Shivaratri, lets offer it to Shiva and Shakti and say "Let me learn the lessons without even going through the phases of learning the lessons. Let the lessons be brought into the consciousness of my being and no longer dysfunctions carried around because lessons are needed.

Let the lessons be learnt and the dysfunctions be released let the etchings, the grooves be healed, let the scars be removed. So it is, it is done. Let me be done. Let me return to the perfection of the original intent" and now turn within and stand tall, remembering that you have built a bridge between yourself and your personal guardian angel, and between yourself, your guardian angel, and your cosmic guardian angel and go into that energy of that cosmic guardian angel and ask that cosmic guardian to pull into your reality, into your body and your being, into the path that you will walk from this moment on, the perfection of the original intent. Say.

"I demand and command and I decree, I desire, to embody the perfection of the original intent. I ask my cosmic guardian angel to pull the cosmic life force that holds the template of the perfection of the original intent. I ask my cosmic guardian angel through the intercession of Lord Shiva and Goddess Shakti, Divine Mother, Goddess of Glory, Goddess of Victory, Goddess of Liberty the reinstatement of the template of divine order within my five body system. The template of divine order holds the perfection, the perfection of the original intent for me and mine. I now embody that perfection. The template of divine order which encapsulates the perfection of the original intent is now fully installed within my five body system. The template of purity and innocence brought from the heart core of Divine Mothers own throne of creation is now fully enmeshed within my five body system absorbed and encapsulated inside of the seed in my cosmic heart chakra. I am the embodiment of the pure and innocent creative force of Divine Mother. I am the embodiment of the template of divine order. The original divine spark is illuminated through every cell, ever molecule, every iota, every fiber of my DNA emanating through my five body system to the five elements to all people, places and things, to all sentient and insentient beings, illuminating this entire universe and beyond.

I stand in the glory of this divinity,

I stand liberated from all impurities,

I stand victorious.

The light of victory, I Am,

The light of liberty I Am,

The light of glory I Am.

I Am, I Am, I Am.

So it is. It is done, Amen.”

My children I am well pleased with all that you do on my behalf on this auspicious eve of Shivaratri, I ask that the entire universe and all elements of light bestow on you a thousand fold all that you give. I ask from eternity to eternity, from Alpha to Omega of eternity, that you feel the bliss, the joy, the love, the light, the illumination, and the perfection.

The perfection is your divine right, the perfection that is bestowed upon you, the perfection that is illuminated through you.

May that perfection return to you a thousand fold from eternity to eternity. I stand as your very own Divine Mother and I hold you in my own heart. Blessings to all of you and so it is.

Nasrin: Thank you everyone and goodnight and God Bless all of you.

Jim: Thank you Nasrin, Divine Mother, and all of you, goodnight.
