Hello everyone this is Jim and welcome to the 8-8-2014 Gateway Portal Channeling. I welcome you all on this wonderful night and I thank you for offering yourself in service like this. It is very much appreciated by all of us and I know it's appreciated by Divine Mother and the Cosmic Council of the Divine Feminine.

Tonight the 8th of August is the anniversary day for Nasrin and I doing the first one of these back in 2008. So it's our 6 year anniversary of Gateway Portal Channeling events. Some of you have attended every one all the way back to 2008, and we give you all of our love and our gratitude for all of the work that you have done and we welcome all those of you that are new to this work. So again I thank you and without any further ado take a deep breath and we'll begin.

Grounding Meditation: Feel your feet flat on the top of the great red rock that is Uluru in Central Australia. Feel the heartbeat of this gigantic rock, this vortex, amazing vortex of positive Energy and of Light. Be aware that everyone that's on this call is standing there with you creating a Group Energy and as we all fall into sync with the heartbeat of Mother Earth, the heartbeat of Uluru and the heartbeat of each other, we slide into Uluru. Feel that you move down into the red rock surrounded by the clay red color. Feel the nurturing Energy of Uluru. This Light also clears and cleanses your body and your Five Body System of dross as you expand into Uluru.

Now imagine that from the bottoms of your feet you activate your Hara Line- the Pillar of Light that goes from the bottoms of your feet and your tailbone down. It surrounds the Chakra that's just below the bottoms of your feet called the Earth Crust Chakra. See that fully illuminated as you send the Pillar of Light all the way down to the Core Crystal of Mother Earth. Visualize that you're extending roots- a root system- down around the Hara Line from the bottoms of your feet and tailbone all the way down to the Core Crystal and see them wrapping around the Core Crystal.

See that a tree trunk forms around you, and this tree trunk sends its roots down around your roots, all the way down to the Core Crystal holding your roots even tighter to the Core Crystal, grounding you even more to Mother Earth. See that that tree trunk that surrounds you, the outer layer of the tree trunk is an Emerald Green Light. It's bathing you in Emerald Green which is the bandwidth of Abundance, Health & Wholeness. Imagine that this tree trunk continues up through the heavens all the way to the Pool of Creation where it spreads out into branches and leaves into the Pool of Creation, far in the heavens.

Now focus on the Core Crystal of Mother Earth: you have your roots wrapped around the Core Crystal. The Core Crystal is a mixture of Golden White Light and the Red Life Force Energy of Mother Earth; together it mixes and makes an Amber colored Light in the Core Crystal. So pull that Amber colored Light up through your root system. Let it come all the way up to the bottoms of your feet and begin to fill your body with this Amber colored Light. It fills the bottoms of your feet. You can do it slowly and really feel that Amber Light clear and cleanse every part of your body as it moves up through your legs, your calves, your knees, your thighs, up to your hips where it embraces your Root Chakra and all the Chakras of the Physical Body; as it moves up through your torso; filling your bones, your muscles, all the tissues of your body, your circulatory system, your nervous system, all the organs of your body, your digestive system. Let it fill all of those places; every iota of your Being and your Five Body System and Light Body as it expands out. Moving up now to your shoulders, down your arms to your hands, your neck, filling your head and through the Crown, up into the Antahkarana Cord, which is the Pillar of Light that extends from your Crown Chakra all the way up to the heavens.

That Amber colored Light will move up; see the tree trunk around you; it fills the tree trunk, your Antahkarana Cord and moves all the way up through the heavens and pours into the Pool of Creation. The Amber colored Life Force Energy of Mother Earth that you are the catalyst to pull up into the Pool of Creation.

We ask for the Cosmic Mother of the Cosmos to pour her Cosmic Life Force Energy into the Pool of Creation and down through the tree trunk and this is also an Amber Colored Light. It's a slightly darker, richer, more vibrant Amber colored Light- as it pours down through the tree trunk- filling the tree trunk, reaching your Crown Chakra, and pouring into your head and into every part of your body, and all of the Chakras of the body, all of the tissues, bones, nervous system as you move down the back, and every organ.

The Life Force Energy of Mother Earth, which is moving up simultaneously, gets enriched and invigorated by this Light as it continues to pour down through your body, through the bottoms of the feet, continuing down through your Hara Line all the way to reach the Core Crystal of Mother Earth where it invigorates Mother Earth and adds Cosmic Energy to the Core of Mother Earth. You have performed the service of being the conduit to bring Earth's Life Force Energy to the heavens and to bring down the Cosmic Life Force Energy to Mother Earth.

These Lights in the Core Crystal- a mixture of the Cosmic and the Earth Life Force Energies mixed together- are reinforced by Mother Earth and sent back up. As they reach the bottoms of your feet and surround you, we move up together with the Light, the Amber colored Light, all the way up. And imagine you're now swimming in the Pool of Creation surrounded by the Amber colored Life Force Energies of the Cosmos and of Mother Earth with the Turquoise Blue of Great Silent Watcher and the Copper Gold of Divine Mother. We step out together onto the deck that surrounds the Pool of Creation. Your personal Angels, the two are standing waiting for you with their trays held out with your Ceremonial Robes and your Scepter of Power; you slip the robes on, the cape over your shoulders, your crown on top of your head and you take your Scepter of Power in your hands.

We look forward and see our Beloved Divine Mother sitting on her Throne in front of us. We walk together and stand before Divine Mother as she stands spreading her cape out and pouring onto each of us the Copper Gold Light of our own Divine Mother. You can see the orange sapphire in her headdress, the ring on her finger with the diamonds, with the sapphires and emerald. We each step into the bosom of Divine Mother and she wraps us in her Copper Gold cape pouring the Copper Gold Light onto us, her love, her Light onto each one of us. Take a deep breath; I'll give you a moment now to set your intentions, to say your prayers and to talk to Divine Mother. Offer your love, your gratitude to Divine Mother for the great, great opportunity to be in her presence in this way and to be of service to her, to Earth and humankind, and to yourself and your loved ones.

I thank you for all that you do; the next voice that you hear will be that of our Beloved Nasrin. So It Is.

Nasrin begins: 10:49

Hello everyone and welcome to 8-8-2014. Let's go see what Divine Mother has in store on this anniversary session for all of us. Remember that you are inside of Divine Mother's Copper Gold Signature Energy, inside of her bosom, inside of her Light.

Divine Mother begins: 11:20

Meditation to Install Divine Mother at the Throne of the I Am

My Beloved Children of Light I Am your very own Divine Mother.

We're going to embark upon a landmark event. It is simple, it is easy, and it is probably one of the most potent things you will ever do, especially for humanity and for your own Soul; for your own Personality Aspects; and most especially for your own Higher Self; and for the merging of your Higher Self, your I Am Presence, into your Body and Being.

What we will do, is that we will glide together inside of Divine Mother's Merkaba Field from right here at Divine Mother's Throne. Together each of you imagining that you are inside of Divine Mother's Beingness, fully merged into the Copper Gold Light. Also each of you are aware that we have created a Group Entity together that consists of every member of our group, and everything we've ever done together. Even if this is your very first time joining us know that there is already a framework ready for you; a container that has been cleared and cleansed; a slate that is pure and clean and ready for you to etch your Signature Energy into it.

We are going to glide together from Divine Mother's Throne down the Antahkarana Cord, from Divine Mother's Throne, going down the Dimensions and Realities and making the Antahkarana Cord wider and more potent as we bring in the Copper Gold of Divine Mother with us. Down every Dimension, every Reality, every Throne, we go through all the layers, all the realms; and we slow down when we approach to the 13th Dimension of Reality where the Throne of I Am that I Am resides. There is a Node of Light - that is a circular node, a sphere- where Energy moves and flows, twists and turns and twirls to magnetize all good things.

Inside of this node there is a Great Hall. In the center of the Great Hall there is a Sacred Fire. In the position of north of this Sacred Fire there is a Throne. The Throne itself carries the consciousness of I Am that I Am. At various times, the Perfected Presence that resides upon the Throne- always known as the Perfected Presence of the I Am that I Am- carries the Signature Energy of a Deity. That Deity from this moment on- when together we perform this ceremony- is going to be Divine Mother. That is what is so significant about this event tonight. We are inaugurating Divine Mother to sit upon that Throne merging with the existing Perfected Presence of I Am that I Am. You can imagine that you continue to stay inside of Divine Mother's bosom as we walk around the Sacred Fire 3 times and pickup sacred items like spices, fruits, gems, oils, all sacred offerings and we hold each one together close to our hearts and pray for the success of this ceremony together, and for all the good things to unfold from this moment on. Offer it to the Sacred Fire at this beautiful Throne.

Then we stand directly before the seat which is considered the Throne. It's a beautiful, ornate, large seat, like a huge armchair, which is made of Gold with a very intricate design, and now you will see that the fabric of this armchair is a golden colored fabric. Notice that the chair has its own consciousness. It carries the Signature Energy of the Presence of the I Am that I Am. There's always the Essence of that Perfected Presence which is God taken form- Spirit, I should say taking form- as when we say God then we can get it confused with everyone considering their own version of who and what God is to be sitting there; and what it really is, is the Essence; the Essence of the Source of all things. You can say the Creator Force and that's the closest to the truth because it's a Force. It's the Creative Force.

When that Creative Force comes to this level of existence by default it will have form because the 13th Dimension of Reality is the top layer where solid form still exists. From the 3rd Dimension all the way to the 13th Dimension is the range of layers and realms that sit one on top of the other to create the Dimensions that we call solid form. Of course the higher the Dimension the lighter the form, the more ethereal and cloud like that form becomes, but still we say this is solid form, and the less solid Energy starts beyond the 13th Dimension.

So imagine an Energy Essence that is permeating from that Throne which you can even see in the form of a Being. That Energy Essence which is the Perfected Presence of the I Am that I Am is going to merge with Divine Mother, and from this moment on Divine Mother's own Energies are going to be etched into that Throne.

So once again remember that you are inside of my Being. This is important because inside of my Being you have this experience firsthand, and you play a role in etching my Energies into that seat. You also play a role in etching your own Energies into that seat. Both of those are very important:

- a) You as the witness are observing my merging into those Energies that allows them to become real for humankind.
- b) You as your own Being are etching your own Signature Energy into the mix will allow you to benefit from everything that happens. It gives you- and everyone who's connected to you in anyway- the benefit of all the merits that you gain from being a witness, but also being a participant in the transaction that you are now involved in. So inside of Divine Mother's Body you are etching your own Signature Energy.

As I approach the seat and I get closer and closer, and the Energies of the seat- in the same way that I opened my arms and my robe and received you, the Energies of this seat- will open themselves. The consciousness of the I Am that I Am will receive us; and you inside of my Being will feel we are together, now seated and fully merged.

When the merging happens the Copper Gold Light of Divine Mother turns color to represent the Energies of the Perfected Presence of the I Am that I Am. That Copper Gold absorbs a mixture that is Yellow- the Yellow for Joy and Gratitude- mixing with the Gold and a touch of- as if you dropped one drop of- Red Light into a pail of Golden Yellow; and that single drop just gives it a touch that turns it slightly Peach colored. So it's a Golden Peachy Yellow Light. The drop of red is to bring passion, action, activity, motion; to bring it to resonate with the Energy Essence of humankind; the blood that runs through your veins. When exposed to light, to air, it turns that red color. A drop of that red representing life, passion, action, motion, mixes with the Yellow for Joy and Gratitude and the Gold which is the pure Essence of Divine Mother's own Energies with little bit of Copper which enhances that Peach, so together it becomes a Golden Peachy Yellow color that is now emanating from the entire Throne and it allows Divine Mother to be the residing Deity.

In the past you have had occasions for various residing Deities who have sat upon this Throne. The rightful heir of this Throne is Sanat Kumara. He should be the one residing on this Throne. What we are doing together on this occasion is to prepare the Throne, imbuing it with Divine Mother's own Creative Life Force. The Creative Life Force that applies to this Throne is different in its texture and in its vibration than the one you experience when you go to Divine Mother's Throne in the 122nd Dimension. There it's Copper Gold, here it's a Golden Peachy Yellow colored Light. It is important for Divine Mother to prepare the path. Therefore, Divine Mother's arrival from the 122nd through the Antahkarana Cord- to the Throne of I Am that I Am- and taking residence in the 13th Dimension at this Throne becomes important. The decision to make this a reality now is based on the need for Divine Mother to step down her Energies to overlight all the Thrones, and especially to embrace and embody the Perfected Presence.

We are at the point where we need to seed the next Seed Race. That Seed Race will begin to live on Earth in 3,000 years. We have to plant that seed. We have to begin to plan the process of preparing the best; the ripest, the most appropriate seed; and we have to prepare the grounds, the Five Elements, the Earth to receive that seed. When the planning phase which is approximately 3,000 years goes smoothly you can be sure that at least the path is paved for a smoother unfolding of a new Seed Race.

Now you might ask, what is a Seed Race and why should I care about being involved in the planning phase of the next Seed Race? The answer is, every 12,000 years! Just like you seed your vegetable garden with new seeds at every season that you can plant for you harvesting your vegetables: you start in spring you harvest in summer. That's the length of your season.

For the Earth to have one series of generations of humankind guarded and guided by generations of Higher Beings, to come and achieve a specific Divine Mission, that is a specific purpose. The period is 12,000 years from sowing the seed to completion. That's a 3,000 year cycle before we begin counting til the birthing of the seed, where the gestation period is complete, like say: the pregnancy for earth's new Seed Race takes 3,000 years. This is the point of conception. So the period of pregnancy, the period of gestation for a Seed Race is approximately 3,000 years, that's the conception period into fruition, into fulfillment. That seed will then become alive. All the Energies that are carried inside of that seed with the Divine Purpose that will fulfill the Purpose necessary will be in place for a period of 12,000 years. Whatever needs to happen, whatever needs to be accomplished must be accomplished in that 12,000 year cycle. Whether it is accomplished or not the next cycle will begin. It will only make matters harder if one Seed Race doesn't accomplish their mission and the time comes for the next one.

So the 3,000 year period before the seed has begun its process of germination and action as well as the 12,000 years that the seed is in action gives you a 15,000 year cycle for the gestation and fruition of a Seed Race, but remember the 3,000 years for the next cycle will also happen in the last quarter of that cycle. So in essence every 12,000 years the whole process repeats itself. The reason why this merging of Divine Mother and the stepping down of the Energies of Divine Mother from the Higher Thrones into the lowest Throne available, is the need to be involved in the seeding of the next Seed Race. So how you can participate in the process is itself important. To this moment you have participated in etching your own Energy into the Throne and observing, being a witness to the anchoring of the Energies of Divine Mother into that Throne.

Now there is one more step that will complete the work we need to accomplish to then be of use to the Seed Race, and to the anchoring of this phase where we officially move into the 3,000 years of seeding or conception period. And that step is for you to fully merge and feel that you are not only inside of Divine Mother's Body; Divine Mother's Light, but now you are also fully merged with Divine Mother into the essence of the Perfected Presence of the I Am that I Am, and you are calling upon that aspect of your own Higher Self which is the bridge between Divine Mother's Energies and the I Am Presence to then merge with you for the purpose of returning with you to the consciousness of your body.

Now for those of you who have been working through this Mystery School for the past number of years you know that you have had many layers of merging in this very Throne with various Aspects of the I Am that I Am. What makes this one different than all the ones you have already merged with? The answer is, this one is a combination of the Essence that has resided upon that Throne with the Essence of Divine Mother. Both are the Creative Force. Divine Mother carries the totality of the Essence of Creative Force for this entire Hierarchy that goes from 0 to 144th Dimension. The Perfected Presence has been carrying that Essence in various phases while holding this seat right here where you are now merged. The combination, the meshing, the merging of the Energies of Divine Mother's Highest Aspect with what has been there of the Creative Force- inside this seat, inside this Throne, that combination- also has the Essence of your own Higher Self. As you might remember your Higher Self has resided here for many thousands of years.

We have done a lot of work, a lot of classes and courses to entice the Higher Self to move down from this Throne, down the Antahkarana Cord into the consciousness of the body, with a view to reside inside of the body in the Chakra known as the Cosmic Heart Chakra. You've done this many times, and if you are new and you haven't, that's perfectly fine too because time doesn't exist. You, doing it now, means you have connected with all the times that this Group has done various renditions of this act. What is different this time is now you are carrying the step-down Essence of Divine Mother merged into the Divine Presence, the Perfected Presence and gathering your Higher Self -which carries the seed of both- and inviting that Essence to return with you. So this is what you will do now. You will fully merge and witness Divine Mother's merging into the Perfected Presence. Then from the combined forces of the Perfected Presence and Divine Mother, you call your own Higher Self; and as you do this, as the Higher Self is beginning to be prepared to merge into you, you sit for a moment, and while the Higher Self is getting ready, you ask that Divine Mother would clear and cleanse you from the pain and the trauma, the struggles, the scars that might prevent you from fully embracing this Energy that is going to be coming into you and you open yourselves.

Each of you imagines that you fully open yourself, trusting that Divine Mother will take care of you. Anything that is low self worth, anything that is lack, lack of self confidence, lack of self worth, lack of trust, lack of acceptance, anything that is of fear, fear of trusting, fear of betrayal, fear of union, fear of succeeding, fear of uniting, fear of pain, fear of struggle: offer all of that to Divine Mother, offer all of that to be transmuted.

All fear stands in your way of loving; it stands in your way of trusting and accepting. Lack of self-worth, lack of self-confidence - these are a form of fear. Pain and struggle are caused by those scars and grooves which leave you with bitter memories. If those bitter memories are erased then it will be easier to be accepting, trusting, and loving. So whatever stands in your way, whatever makes you hesitate, whatever delays your ability to embrace love, whatever stands in your way of seeing this world as if Divine Mother was looking.

When Divine Mother looks at each of you I can only see love, I can only see goodness. I see your soul. Imagine how wonderful it would be if you could see through my eyes. While you are letting go of fear and lack ask to be able to see everyone and everything in this world as if you were looking through Divine Mother's eyes.

Tell yourself "I am going to practice seeing everyone the same way I want to see Divine Mother. My love for Divine Mother is so vast, if I could allow myself to treat every human being as if they were an embodiment of Divine Mother I would never have doubt or fear, or mistrust."

Because you won't have those feelings anymore you won't pull anyone that would express those feelings; anyone that would hurt you in those ways; because when they don't exist within your Being you wouldn't pull them to yourself. Even when you do pull them, you don't see those parts in them; so they have no other choice but to act according to your belief; according to your love of them. Everyone is attracted to love, everyone. Everyone wants to be loved, everyone wants to be wanted; everyone likes to be respected; heard; if you give everyone that chance.

Ask Divine Mother as your Higher Self is being prepared for you to clean your slate, clean your Mental Body, your Emotional Body, your Physical Body, your Etheric Body, your Spiritual Body and if you don't know how to do that, then just offer it. Offer everything to Divine Mother: lock, stock and barrel. Give it all to Divine Mother. Let me clean the slate, let me remove the scars; let me make room for your Higher Self; let me fill your chalice; your holy grail with the Perfected Presence of the I Am that I Am; which gets encapsulated, which gets encased, to become your Higher Self. Let me clean up that chalice so the Higher Self can fill the entire chalice; and then let that chalice become the container that is you; the container that you operate from, the container that becomes your reality; the container that becomes your medium for all relationships, all interactions.

Recap and summary- I am going to go through the motions, through the steps of this exercise. When I finish I am going to bring you back here and I am going to get busy for the next 15 minutes after we come back clearing the chalice that is you, clearing that holy grail that is you, clearing you of all lack, of all fear, of all mistrust and all those qualities that no longer serve you. So I am going to go through the motions because I want you to see the end result, but at the end I am going to bring you up here. I am going to ask you to go deeper and deeper and feel your consciousness reach into deeper parts of yourselves as I clear your consciousness, clear your Five Body System of all the scars and all the pain and the struggles.

Right now imagine that the end result has come and your chalice has become cleared and your Higher Self is fully encased ready to merge with you. That Higher Self is brought in to where you are merged with Divine Mother. That Higher Self then pours into you. In this union all Aspects of the Higher Self merge into all Aspects of your Consciousness; and even if there are any scars still remaining by the time I'm done with you they will be gone.

The more you do this exercise- through the course of the next month until we come back together-the easier it will be for you to absorb all of your Higher Self and release all that no longer serves you. The part of this meditation that you want to keep repeating is that part where you go all the way up to the Pool of Creation, you join and merge into Divine Mother, you glide down the Thrones, you bow down to the Sacred Fire, make the offerings, you go with Divine Mother to sit upon the Throne, and then you ask Divine Mother to do the clearing, and you go deeper and deeper and deeper allowing Mother to reach all the recesses of your Being throughout all the lifetimes that you have picked up drama, scars and painful memories and erase those memories, clean the scars, heal the wounds. Then just when you're ready to come out of meditation you see yourself merging with the Higher Self as though the Higher Self is being poured into the chalice that carries your consciousness, then that consciousness will drop. Inside of Divine Mother's Body there's the consciousness of you now merged with your Higher Self.

Imagine that Divine Mother gets up from the Throne carrying you; together we drop from that Throne in the 13th Dimension down the Antahkarana Cord to reach to the Lotus of your Crown, we sit inside of that Disc of the Moon, that shining shimmering sphere that sits on top of your Lotus. We get recalibrated; we get stepped down ready to enter into the consciousness of the body. Then we pour into the Lotus, and from the Lotus on top of your head into your head cavity, then down the throat, then down into your torso, coming down the entire torso, the entire chest cavity, filling your chest cavity and all the Chakras that cover from the throat into the top of the chest.

Then imagine the Node of Light which is your Cosmic Heart Chakra just below your throat begins to spin and absorb all that is pouring down, the entire encapsulation of your Higher Self carrying that Golden Peachy Yellow Light fully absorbed into your Cosmic Heart Chakra. Everything that got spread from the throat to the top of your chest is now pulled into the sphere that is your Cosmic Heart Chakra and it is now gently spinning and the spin helps with the integration, and this is the final phase of the meditation. If you want to do it daily that would be perfect.

Now I am going to leave that part which has already merged into your Cosmic Heart Chakra, but I am going to ask you to bring your consciousness up and we'll go back up out of the top of the head into the Lotus and up the Antahkarana Cord back to the Throne, and you're going to sit on top of the Throne with Divine Mother and I'm going to ask you to go deeper and deeper and deeper using that beautiful Golden Peach Yellow Light, Golden Peachy Yellow Light as your main focus. Let the surface of the screen turn into that beautiful color. Let Joy and Gratitude fill you, let your entire Being expand, and let Divine Mother in to go through all the nooks and crannies and go through all the layers of all the lifetimes and catch every scar, every etched groove, every bump that has left its mark which you no longer need and clear it.

I am going to ask you to give me 15 minutes with this very first experience, every time you come back up you can spend as much time as you want, even if you spent 2 minutes that's fine. The first time is important because it gives me access, and I want to do this with each of you individually. So we will finish this session and each of you go lie down and look at the clock and give me approximately 15 minutes. If you have to get up before that time, that's fine, ask that I shall continue. Give permission for the work to continue. If you fall asleep and you wake up in 2 hours or 10 hours that's even better and then every time you do the meditation you go through the steps as I requested. If you don't have 15 minutes in each meditation give me 2, give me 3 or just set it by saying,

"I will go deeper and deeper and Divine Mother has access to reach into all layers and all lifetimes clearing the chalice of my Being, past, present and future and the work will continue under Divine Mother's supervision for as long as necessary, even when I am no longer in mediation. I ask this in Divine Mother's name. I ask this through Divine Mother's grace. It is done, So It Is."

Now I am going to ask you to go deeper and deeper and I am going to ask that there would be no talk after this. So everybody is going to leave and cut the phone lines and continue to go deeper and deeper, lying down and giving Divine Mother access, seeing the Peach, seeing the Golden Peachy Yellow Light before the surface of your screen. Seeing your Physical Body, your Etheric Body, your Emotional Body, your Mental Body, your Spiritual Body getting cleared and cleansed of all scars, of bumps, tears, scrapes and scratches, of all blemishes, of all pain and trauma. You go deeper and deeper and deeper.

Each of you go deeper with me as we say goodbye to each other, as you say goodbye to other members of the group but you stay with me. Each of you go deeper with Divine Mother, each of you individually moving into those Energies where your past, the present, and your future is a wide open book where Divine Mother can turn the pages and clean it all up. Each of you stays with Divine Mother as the members of the group say goodbye to each other. Each of you will continue to go deeper and deeper experiencing this Light.
So it is!
