Hello everyone this is Jim and welcome to the 10-10-2014 Gateway Portal Channeling event.

Grounding with Uluru-Take a deep breath and visualize that you are standing on top of the great red rock in Central Australia called Uluru or Ayers Rock. Feel this huge mammoth rock beneath your feet. It is a very critical and sacred vortex of Energy, Uluru. As you feel yourself connecting with the rock and as you connect to the rock you connect to Mother Earth and you begin to feel the power of this vortex.

Be aware that everyone that's doing this meditation right now is standing with you, this entire group of people all as one group entity. As we bring our Energies into one united front they're magnified and we can feel ourselves now begin to slide into Uluru and see the red rock of Uluru all around you. Feel it's nurturing Energy and take a moment to focus on your Earth Crust Chakra which is a Chakra that is just beneath the bottoms of your feet. You can feel that Uluru takes all the dross and the cobwebs out of your Earth Crust Chakra as it does out of your Energy Field, your 5 Body System as you're sliding into Uluru.

Now send down energy -from the bottoms of your feet and illuminate the Hara Line which extends- like a Pillar of Light from the bottoms of your feet and your tailbone down to the Core of Mother Earth. Imagine sending roots down around this Hara Line that extends all the way down to the Core Crystal, a bright Amber colored Light in the center of Mother Earth; and you wrap your roots around the Core Crystal holding you tight to it. As you do that, imagine that a tree trunk forms around you and extends the roots of this tree trunk down around your own roots holding you even tighter to the Core Crystal. This tree trunk extends up through the heavens, all the way to the Pool of Creation. It has an outside layer as the bark of this tree trunk is an Emerald Green Light that pours this Light and the qualities of Abundance and Healing and Wholeness to you and anything that passes up and down through the tree trunk.

We focus now on the Core Crystal and pull the Amber colored Light up through the roots into the Hara Line and up all the way into the bottoms of the feet. This Amber colored Life Force Energy of Mother Earth moves into the bottoms of your feet and your calves. As it moves into your body, you can feel it energizing you and clearing and cleansing you of all the static and what no longer serves you as it moves up through your legs, through your hips into your body. It's rejuvenating your muscle tissues, your skeleton, circulatory system, nervous system as it moves all the way up through your body to your shoulders, down your arms, hands and neck, your head and filling your brain and head cavity. It pours out through your Crown Chakra and continues to move all the way up through the tree trunk to the Pool of Creation and spreads its branches and leaves into the Pool of Creation. This Amber colored Life Force Energy pours into the Pool of Creation.

We call on Mother of the Cosmos to pour her Light into the Pool of Creation now and she pours her own Amber colored Life Force Energy into the Pool of Creation. This Light is a little bit darker, a little richer, a little more vibrant Amber colored Light; and it pours down the tree trunk mixing with the Life Force Energy of Mother Earth, invigorating and enlivening it; it reaches your Crown and pours into your head, your body, rejuvenating your body and clearing and cleansing your body as it moves through from the top of head to the bottoms of your feet, down the tree trunk and the root system and your Hara Line all the way to the Core Crystal where it mixes with the Life Force of Mother Earth.

Once again you are the conduit and create this flow; you've allowed yourself to be a conduit for the Life Force Energy of Mother Earth to pour up into the heavens and for the Cosmic Life Force Energy to pour down to Mother Earth. Take a deep breath.

As the Cosmic Life Force Energy mixes in the Core Crystal with the Life Force Energy of Mother Earth and comes back up one more time; we'll ride with it; we'll go with the flow and we'll move with the Amber colored Life Force Energy all the way up to the Pool of Creation. Feel and see yourself swimming in the Pool of Creation, surrounded by this Amber colored Light.

Standing on the deck are your two Angels with their trays. Step out of the Pool of Creation onto the deck. Put on your robes and crowns taking them from one tray and from the other tray our Scepter of Power. Take it in your hand and we look up to see our own Beloved Divine Mother sitting on her Throne in the distance and glide towards Divine Mother. As you come closer, she stands up from her Throne, spreading out her arms; with her cape spread, Copper Gold Light is beaming from her cape to you, Mother is beaming her love and her Light and her nurturance and her unconditional acceptance and love to you. As you step into the bosom of Divine Mother and she wraps her cape around you, take a moment and feel the Copper Gold Light surrounding you, filling your body and your being. Say whatever you would like to Divine Mother as we rest in the bosom of Divine Mother.

The Throne of the I Am That I Am- Now as we're enveloped in Divine Mother's Energy and in her robe and in her Merkaba Field we will altogether travel with Divine Mother down through the Thrones, down through the heavens until we reach the 13th Dimension, The Throne of the I Am That I Am. There is a Sacred Altar in front of us, beyond that the Throne of I Am That I Am. Within Divine Mother's bosom, within her Energy, the Copper Gold all around us we go with her as she goes to sit on the Throne of the I Am That I Am.

Peach colored Light is emanating from the Throne. As we sit with Divine Mother on the Throne we can feel the Energies of the I Am That I Am. This Throne as you know has its own consciousness; its own Power and its own Light; you can feel it as Mother embraces it with her own Copper Gold Light mixing the Copper Gold with the Peach colored Light. Great Silent Watcher behind Mother's Throne- See that Great Silent Watcher is standing behind Mother's Throne holding her Scepter of Power high above Mother's Throne. She's bathing her in her Turquoise Blue Light, pouring the Turquoise Blue Light onto the Throne along with the Cobalt Blue Light of Power and Protection.

The Turquoise Blue Light of Great Silent Watcher has the qualities of Protection, Fearlessness and Divine Power and the Cobalt Blue brings another level of Power to that Light that she pours onto this Throne, onto Divine Mother and you can see the Turquoise Blue Halo around you with the Cobalt Blue also beaming to you. You can feel how this Cobalt Blue Light mixed with the Turquoise Blue feels. It's like a bubble of Turquoise Blue and right inside it a bubble of Cobalt Blue bringing that extra level of Power that is needed in the lower Thrones in this 3rd Dimension.

Call your Higher Self Aspect- Now as you're sitting in the midst of the Copper Gold and Peach, with Turquoise Blue and the Cobalt Blue pouring in, you can call to the highest level of yourself, your Highest Self to join you within these Energies, within the Turquoise Blue and Copper and Cobalt Blue. Ask for that higher essence of yourself to pour down through the Antahkarana Cord to join in and to mix with your Energies and to become one with you as you sit in this location at the Throne of I Am That I Am surrounded by Divine Mother and Great Silent Watcher's Energies and feel the presence of your Higher Self. You may feel a presence that's very familiar but you haven't felt for a long, long time. As you sit in these Energies I will give you a few moments to talk to your Higher Self, embrace your Higher Self and Divine Mother and the Throne of I Am That I Am and the next voice that you hear will be that of our Beloved Nasrin, I thank you. So It Is.

Nasrin begins: 13:49

Hello everyone and welcome to 10-10. This is indeed an auspicious month because we started the month with the Navaratri celebration, the celebration where Divine Mother -over a 10 day period- fights the forces of darkness and conquers on the eve of the 9th celebrating her conquering on the 10th day of Navaratri.

Jim and I performed ceremonies with water the first 4 days as per Divine Mother and ceremonies with the fire- a fire pit, a makeshift fire pit that we created in our backyard- for the last 5 days. Some of those days the fire was going on for 6 & 7 hours; very powerful! The first few days the fire was very messy, everything that went into it came out really smoky and we prayed- for not only the intentions of each of you, whatever is in your hearts, and for yourselves and for your loved, everyone that crosses paths with the Mystery School, Waves of Bliss, Indigos Awaken. We also prayed for the intentions of Divine Mother, the Divine Feminine Council and the Masters.

I remember as I was making offerings, double scoops of the concoctions that I had made with sacred spices and herbs, I was making offerings on behalf of Sanat Kumara and the soot, the fumes from the fire was really coming really dark, and then on the last two days there was nothing I could do to make it dark. It was just so bright and clear and the fire and the embers and everything turned beautiful, the coals were beautiful and the ashes were beautiful and ultimately at the end of the last day which was a Friday half of the pit was full of white beautiful ashes; everything burnt literally to dust. Then right after we finished our final ceremony the rain started, and it rained on and off for about 4 days afterwards.

It is said in the scriptures that when the Gods receive your prayers and accept your prayers, the signs that they give is rain! To show that everything is accepted, and that the rains come to wash it all away. We offered a lot of honey, and the honey was coming from the bottom of our fire pit and going everywhere, and the bees were gathering and it rained and rained and rained, and it cleared all of what had come out of the fire pit, it was a beautiful fire ceremony.

If you haven't had a chance to take the course Navaratri 2014 there is still a chance to do it. The Energies are still very fresh and we're moving into the Energies of the new spiritual year in the beginning of November. We are moving into the Energies of the lunar eclipse that was on the 8th on the full moon a couple of days ago and the solar eclipse that is going to coincide with Festival of Diwali. Diwali being the New Year for more than a billion people across the globe, coinciding with the solar eclipse is going to be a very interesting new year.

For those of you who are familiar with the planetary bodies and astrological signs, maybe you can tell us more about it, but the obvious thing is that we're going into this Diwali with cleaning our slate, the Navaratri clearing with fire and water, the lunar eclipse a couple of days ago, the solar eclipse that happens on the final day of Diwali.

In different parts of the world Diwali is celebrated differently. Some celebrate it over a 7 day period, some over a 5 day period, some the final day or the completion, and this year the completion falls on Thursday the 23rd which is the solar eclipse. We will be moving into the Energies of Diwali by the end of this week and then we will be continuing on through to the end of the following week, so please be aware that Divine Mother is very present, Goddess Lakshmi, the Goddess of Lights is extremely present. She represents the Aspect of Divine Mother who is celebrated at Diwali, so be mindful of Goddess Lakshmi, she is the Goddess of Material Possessions and Spiritual Abundance. With one hand she pours golden coins at your feet, with the other hand she gives you the book of knowledge and places the Energies of the book into your 3rd Eye, your Throat, your Cosmic Heart and Personal Heart Chakras.

We offer this healing which is the event where we all get together across the globe for the Navaratri Celebration, together for the Diwali Celebration and since we will not get back together until 11-11 we would have entered the new spiritual year on the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th of November. Therefore we will celebrate entry into the new spiritual year tonight in this get-together.

Let us take a deep breath and go deep within and clear our soul, our mind, our hearts, our bodies from all past events, from all dross, from all pain and struggle and let's come together with a clean slate. See yourselves emanating Golden Pink Light, the Light of Divine Love, and see that Golden Pink Light emanating to all members of the group, and expand to everyone we touch, all our loved ones, all the children of the new age, and we ask for peace on Earth and healing of all hearts and souls, and we ask for raising of the vibration of our planet.

When we asked Divine Mother how do we help our world and all the turmoil that is going on from wars and natural disasters to manmade disasters and calm our own mental, emotional state, her response was: “Raise your own vibration!” When we raise our vibration we all move our consciousness from pettiness and fear, fear mongering, war mongering, bitching and bickering to a place of loving, accepting, sharing, appreciating, experiencing gratitude and expressing that gratitude to our Mother Earth, to the Deities and to each other. Let's pray together for raising the vibrations so that the Energies of Joy and Gratitude are always with us.

When our physical bodies are healthy we can address each day from a place of acceptance and tolerance. When our mental emotional state is still and calm we can address every situation without fear. When we feel safe and everyone of our loved ones are safe and secure we can then extend ourselves to the rest of the world and have compassion on others, on our planet and on the 5 Elements; we can then have the luxury of taking care of more than just ourselves and our loved ones. Let's pray for that!

I ask you if you haven't started reading Linda's blogs on IndigosAwaken to specifically read her blog, the 34th that went out today. One of the things that she says in her blog, which is very true and it really struck a cord with me and I made a point of remembering it for this channeling session is that she says: “when you work with Divine Mother and you start moving off your path”, and I am paraphrasing what she saying, I am using it in my words, “she gives you a sign”.

The signs are given when we go into the ego, we go into selfishness, self centered behavior and she comes in and says: “watch out!” But she doesn't push us. If we don't want to hear, if we don't want to listen she says: “Okay that's perfectly fine you're entitled to do it your way and I have compassion, I can wait.” Linda's point is Divine Mother is subtle in her ways and she's not pushy, but she's always there, always watching, and always making sure that if she can prevent a bad situation she would do it. She's one of those Beings who would prefer to pick us up and prevent us from falling and grazing our knees rather than saying: “okay it's good for you to fall and graze your knees next time you won't do it!”, but she will only pick us up and prevent us from falling if we let her.

Today in a conversation, Jim said “I want to know if there is any way that I can do more in involving Divine Mother and the Masters and the Divine Feminine members in every day life”. As he said that- it was a conversation, we were having a conversation, as he said that- I heard Divine mother say,

“Please tell him, ask more, don't feel shy of asking more. I am here; I am standing by your side. I am happy to give you, so are all these Deities who love you. All we ask is for you to remember and ask. Just because you know we are here doesn't mean we will interfere or we'll get involved. We will only get involved when you ask.”

You know, we take it for granted that since Divine Mother is so close and we can feel her Energy that she would get involved. It's a revelation to find out that she doesn't like to get involved unless she knows she is invited to get involved. It's very easy to get up in the morning and before you put your foot down from your bed to say:

“Mother I offer this day to you, I invite you to walk with me and guide me, be involved. It's very easy just before you fall asleep at night to say Mother let's go into dreamtime together, guide me where you want me to go, where I can be of service to you. I know when I am in deep sleep I am working with you, I want to be of service and I want specifically to be of service to you and to your intentions and for the benefit of our world, and for the benefit of our soul lineages, for the benefit of my loved ones, of this planet.”

You don't have to be so long winded like I am! You can just simply say in your own words whatever you want to say that basically tells her: “Mother this morning, through the day, this night, through the night be involved, I invite you to be involved. That's all you need to say. Good morning Mother I invite you to be involved in everything I do today, and guide me. Good night Mother I invite you to be involved in everything we do in dreamtime, that's all it takes.”

Now, I hope you don't think I'm lecturing you. What I'm saying is for myself to hear it. I do it as best I can all the time but I know there is even room for me. Every time I start breakfast, I say I offer this meal; I cut the pieces I say Divine Mother, Divine Mother, Divine Mother as I am chopping the onion. I say, “Divine Mother, Divine Mother, Divine Mother....” as I am chopping the meat, the vegetables, whatever it is I am cooking, whatever it is I am making.

I take a shower, as the water pours down I say, I offer this water, this washing as an Abishakam- an offering of cleansing with water to Mother. As I finish my shower I turn 4 times and say, “Divine Mother, Divine Mother, Divine Mother, Divine Mother, Divine Mother” thinking that I am offering the Energies of the 4 Directions, the Energies of the water to Divine Mother, I'm bathing in her name. As I start the day, as I begin responding to emails, as I start working on books, as I begin channeling, as I start reading the Khadga Mala- prayers to honor divine Mother- I do it. As I start the engine in the car I do that, but I still know that there are other ways, at other times when I forget. If only I could remember to invite her every minute of every day I will be so in bliss, and we will be able to do so much more. If only we all could remember to invite her more and more and more, also inviting other Deities and your special teachers and sending the blessing for everyone who needs it.

So remember that you are sitting on the Throne with Divine Mother bathing in the Energies of the Throne, bathing in the Energies of Divine Mother, bathing in the Energies of Great Silent Watcher and we will see what Divine Mother has in store for us.

Divine Mother begins: 32:52

My Beloved Children of Light I Am your very own Divine Mother.

My gift to you on this occasion as we move through the Energies of Navaratri, and I thank all of you for remembering me during Navaratri, I invite those of you who haven't had a chance to work with the Energies of Navaratri to do so and to connect yourselves with the Energies of Navaratri and Divine Mother and think of the fires during the 9 days- where Divine Mother is battling- as a way to clear and cleanse all karma and karmic entanglements. I also invite you to remember as we move through the Energies between the lunar eclipse and the solar eclipse to offer as much as you can every day to clear and cleanse.

We're moving into the Energies of Diwali, we're moving into the Energies of the Spiritual New Year. To prepare you for this, what I would like to do in this session is to give you phase 3 of our work together at the Throne of I Am That I Am. What I will do on this occasion is to invite Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan with the Warm Orange Light that establishes the Divine Plan, a new Divine Plan for each of you who are witnesses to what we are doing at the Throne of I Am That I Am, and to everyone who will be affected with the heightening of the Energies.

I ask you to envision just as Great Silent Watcher stands behind the Throne holding her Scepter above us and the Throne, that Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan joins in and stands right next to Great Silent Watcher. She will hold both her arms up extending her hands to the heavens above, calling beams of Warm Orange Light to be summoned from the Cosmos, from the Cosmic Realms; weaving the filaments of Divine Plan which serve this planet, the Hierarchies of the Throne and everyone who is connected to this Throne- in terms of Deities who wish to participate. I also invite every one of you who are witnesses and participants in this transitional phase, -where more Deities are supporting Divine Mother's Energy- to participate in merging into the Throne.

Imagine that you are seated in Mother's bosom. You look up and see not only Great Silent Watcher pouring her Turquoise Blue Light with streams of Cobalt but also Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan is pouring her Warm Orange Light and notice in her Warm Orange Light there are streams of Red Light. Remember I talked about the Red Light infusing the Throne of Divine Mother at I Am That I Am, 13th Dimension because the Red Life Force Energy which is your own Life Force Energy carries action, passion, and motion.

In the higher realms, Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan's Light consists of a Warm Orange Light. Right here in the 13th Dimension she is summoning streams of Red to be added to her Warm Orange Light. Notice that as she is holding her arms straight up guiding and directing these beams to be summoned from the Cosmic Source they turn into a Rod of Light, they congeal and condense into a Rod of Light, they form in her hand. One point of the Rod is in the Cosmic Realms pulling filaments of Light on her behalf. The other point of it is right above our head, our heads, my head and your head and every member of the group who is participating.

This Warm Orange mixed with Red Light is pouring on one side onto the Throne and into Divine Mother's 5 Body System and Light Body. Through my 5 Body System it is absorbed into your 5 Body System and your Light Body. Begin to absorb the Warm Orange Light mixed with streams of Red and continue to remain aware that Great Silent Watcher has wrapped this entire Throne into a blanket of Turquoise Blue Light with streams of Cobalt.

I ask you to continue this visual meditation for the next ten minutes. I will close this session by offering each of you love, happy lunar and solar eclipse, happy Navaratri and Diwali and happy Spiritual New Year until we get back together. I ask each of you to lay down or sit in meditation for 10 to 15 minutes after we close this session and receive the exact bandwidth of Light which is beneficial for you carrying those events and circumstances from the highest of Divine Plan which Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan will summon to move from the Higher Realms through her Rod into my 5 Body System and Light Body and from my 5 Body System and Light Body into your own all that qualifies as best for each of you individually and uniquely.

I hold you in my own heart with great love. This is one of those occasions where the Energies are very clear, very potent and everything is received in its highest and best quality. It doesn't happen very often but when it does it makes up for the hard times. Enjoy the Energies and ride the joy. I Am your very own Divine Mother. So It Is.

Nasrin concludes: Thank you everyone and goodnight.

Jim concludes: Thank you Nasrin, thank you Divine Mother and I thank all of you, goodnight until next month.
