Hello everyone this is Jim and welcome to the 12-12-2014 Gateway Portal Channeling. I welcome you all and I thank you for offering yourself in this service as we move into the end of the Gregorian Year of 2014. We're moving into the Spiritual Year of 2015 and I wish everyone happy and glorious holidays and a wonderful New Year.

Take a deep breath and we will begin. Visualize that you're standing on Uluru, the great red rock in central Australia, the place that we always begin our grounding. It's a sacred site from ancient times. Feel the heartbeat of Uluru underneath your feet, be aware that everyone on this call is also standing with you and as you begin to have your heartbeat in sync with Uluru you'll slide into the great red rock. See the Clay Red color all around you and feel your energy kind of expand into Uluru as this sacred site wraps its arms around you and nurtures you, clears and cleanses you of all the cobwebs, all the static from your day.

Now visualize that from the bottoms of your feet and your tailbone where your Root Chakra is a Pillar of Light extends down from you all the way down to the center of Mother Earth where there is a bright Core Crystal lit up in the colors of Amber. Visualize that Divine Mother is wrapping herself around you in her Copper Gold Light and wrapping her roots around your roots as you extend roots down around the Hara Line, this Pillar of Light that's extending from the bottoms of your feet. You're going to visualize that you're sending your own roots down to wrap around the Core Crystal and hold you tight to Mother Earth, and Divine Mother is wrapping herself around you sending her roots down around your roots.

As you move down, continuing to slide into Uluru you begin to pull up through your root system the Amber colored Light from the Core Crystal, the Life Force Energy of Mother Earth. Visualize that this Amber colored Light is moving up through the Hara Line, through the roots, all the way to the bottoms of your feet. See that this root system becomes a tree trunk wrapped around you that extends all the way up through the heavens to the Pool of Creation where it spreads out like a trees branches and leaves into the Pool of Creation.

This tree trunk that surrounds you is Emerald Green in color. It's a thick Emerald Green shell around the tree trunk, just like the bark of a tree. It beams that Emerald Green Light to everything that moves up and down including to you, pouring the Emerald Green Light of Abundance and of healing to you and everything that moves up through the tree trunk.

As this Amber colored Light moves into the bottoms of your feet all the way from the Core Crystal of Mother Earth, filling your legs, every iota of your Being is being filled by this Life Force Energy from our Beloved Mother Earth, into the tissues of your body, the bloodstreams, the bones, even all the way down to the DNA, your Physical Body, all of your Energy Bodies and your Light Body filled with this Amber colored Light as it moves up through your body, your hips, your torso, your arms and hands and neck and your head and out through the Crown at the top of your head into the tree trunk, moving all the way up through the tree trunk to pour into the Pool of Creation, moving the Energies of Mother Earth into the Pool of Creation.

Now we call on Cosmic Mother of the Cosmos to pour her Life Force Energy, the Cosmic Life Force Energy, into the Pool of Creation and into the tree trunk and this is also an Amber colored Light, a little bit darker, a little bit richer, more vibrant as it pours down through the tree trunk to your Crown, into your body, mixing with the Amber colored Light from the Core Crystal and moving through your body all the way down to the bottoms of your feet and pouring down through the Hara Line, through the root system, all the way down to the Core Crystal. You've now done the service, the great service, performed a great service of moving the Life Force Energy from Mother Earth all the way up to the heavens and pulled from the heavens the Cosmic Life Force Energy down through you as the conduit and anchored it in Mother Earth.

Feel your roots and your root system and Mother's root system around you and this tree trunk with its root system that we've formed around us holding you tight anchored to Mother Earth, as we want to be fully anchored to Earth as we perform this meditation, and in that way we can fly higher throughout the realms, through this meditation and be of greater service and have it be more beneficial for us as well and certainly for Mother Earth.

So now see the mixture of the Cosmic Life Force Energy that's mixed with Earth's Life Force Energy and the Core Crystal now moving up. Once again as it moves up and surrounds you we move with it all the way up to the Pool of Creation and we find ourself swimming in the Pool of Creation surrounded by the Amber colored Life Force Energy, Cosmic and from Mother Earth. Take a minute and be in this Energy for a minute, let it be palpable around you.

Now we look on the deck at the edge that surrounds the Pool of Creation and we see that there are two Angels standing there with trays in their hands for you. Each one of us has our own pair of Angels and we step out of the Pool of Creation before the Angels. On their trays they have our ceremonial robes and cape on one tray with a crown and on the other tray our Scepter of Power which we pick up and hold in our hands.

We look now before us and we see our own Beloved Divine Mother in the distance sitting on her Throne. As we walk towards Divine Mother, see that she stands and she opens her arms holding her cape as wide as she can. The Copper Gold pouring from her cape to you as we walk close and give our own Divine Mother a huge hug as she wraps her arms around us and holds us in her bosom, wrapping the Copper Gold cape around us. We take a moment to express our great love and gratitude to Divine Mother for all that she's done for us and the Divine Feminine has done to move us into the new paradigm. Feel the Copper Gold Light satiating your body and your being. Feel Divine Mother's love. Feel free to say whatever you would like to our own Beloved Divine Mother.

Now with Mother we walk towards the Sacred Altar, see it as we move around and stand before the Sacred Altar with Divine Mother, and you can see all the Great Beings that are standing around the Sacred Fire. Great Silent Watcher is standing behind Divine Mother and each one of us as we stand next to the fire. Goddess of Victory emanating her Pink and Gold is standing there, Goddess of Liberty and her Pewter colored Light and robes, Cosmic Guardian of the Divine Plan, Mother of the Universe in Vibrant Pink, Mother of the Cosmos in rich Amber colored Light, we see Sanat Kumara also standing next to you, Mother on one side, Sanat Kumara on the other next to Goddess of Victory, and you see 144,000 Silent Watchers in rings upon rings around this Sacred Altar, and 2 billion Angelic Watchers all in their Turquoise Blue Light. Great Silent Watcher in her Turquoise Blue Light holding her Scepter of Power towering above everyone, her Scepter over the center of this Sacred Altar. You may make an offering to this Altar.

So we take a deep breath and all of us together in the Merkaba Field of Divine Mother with Great Silent Watcher forming the outside of this Merkaba Field in Turquoise Blue. We will all together move down through the Thrones to Divine Mother's 5th Dimensional Retreat where you find yourself standing around the Sacred Altar in the first level of the great hall of Divine Mother and her retreat, 5th Dimensional retreat, and let us visualize standing before the Altar in the great hall, Warm Orange emanating from all the walls, the floor emanating an off white with green and rust colored Italian onyx, the colors of Italian onyx.

In this setting I will give you a moment to once again make your offerings to the 5th Dimensional Altar of Divine Mother as she takes her seat and sits upon the Throne, and on either side of Divine Mother Goddess Shakti, Lord Shiva. We offer our love and gratitude to Shiva and Shakti and we see now joining us around the circle the Cosmic Guardians and Aspects of Divine Mother each bringing their own qualities. You can see many Angels coming to witness this event, and you can hear the singing, the celestial sounds in the background as this very significant and amazing meditation is about to begin with our own Beloved Divine Mother. Take a few moments, take in this scene, set your intentions and the next voice you hear will be that of our Beloved Nasrin. I thank you and wish you a fantastic holiday season and a great New Year. So It Is.

Nasrin begins: 13:36

Hello everyone and welcome to 12-12. We have survived the year 2014, so far and it has been a very interesting year, and this is the last of the series for all of us. I would like to remind you that usually we don't have a 1-1 channeling session; however, I am pretty certain that Mother is going to do something and maybe give us something that we will post and then inform all of you by email that she has given us a message for January. I don't know when that will happen. My hope is that it will happen before the end of the year and we would have it posted maybe in the first few days of the New Year. We shall see. I know that there is a lot Mother wants to tell you.

From everyone at Waves of Bliss as Jim has said we wish you a wonderful ending of the year and a New Year and Happy Holidays and please rest and let us remember each other and pray for each other as we move into the New Year.

Divine Mother begins: 14:50

My Beloved Children of Light I Am your very own Divine Mother. I would like to tell you that I have important exercises to give you tonight. One of the exercises is about ending and closing the Portal of this year. This is the last Portal of the year. Also I would like to give you an exercise that you would perform- if you would kindly do that for me- going into Winter Solstice. Winter Solstice falls around 20th, 21st, 22nd of December; and it's the longest night of the year; and it is the point where darkness gives into Light because days will start getting longer right after Winter Solstice.

So it's a significant moment in each year's point from the duality of the light and dark perspective. It is a time where Divine Mother starts awakening the forces of Light to become greatly active again. So it's a good time right now for all of you to give some Energy to meditating with Divine Mother; and I'm giving you this meditation instead of waiting until the 21st. I'm asking you to do this meditation every day going through the Solstice and then continue it please moving into the New Year.

We are in a very important Energy cycle which has started around Thanksgiving and it will continue til 9th of January, but then there is a 10 day phase of another cycle beginning, and certain portals opening for the New Year and a lot of Energy pouring in. So it takes you then to the 19th of January. I would ask you to bear in mind that these days are very important. While you are celebrating the holiday season, you're celebrating the New year, remember that the heavenly portals are open and a lot of the Energies of the Divine Feminine are being anchored right around now going all the way into 19th of January to accelerate the New year and to start it from a high plateau. So when we get to the exercise that I wish for you to start for that ceremony for Winter Solstice and to take it into the New Year I will tell you this is the one.

Meantime I want to address two other things. One of them is a progress report how well we have done together in the course of the year and I am pleased to say that we have done great things together, and we're ahead of the schedule so that the plan your very own Divine Mother and members of the Divine Feminine Council have had for this year has been fully accomplished, fully completed and we have gone above and beyond the original plan; and we have paved the path for greater and better things. So we are starting this Spiritual New Year and the Gregorian New Year from a place of high altitude, high plateau, and I'm very happy about that, and so are other members of the Divine Feminine Council, so I want to ask each of you to feel good about that.

The second thing I want to tell you is about what to expect from the New Year. So let's look at the Energy of the New Year. Well it's 2015 so let's add up the numbers, $2 + 0 + 1 + 5$, it makes 8. So this is a victory year, this is a year for reaping the harvest. It's a very important year for also starting to anchor Energies and planning long term plans. I would say 2015 would be a good year for you to plan things that you want to manifest in the course of a 10 year plan, in the course of a 20 year plan, in the course of a 30 year plan as well as everything you want to manifest within the year itself.

2015: let's take the last number because the last number signifies which of the Deities- besides the fact that it is a victory year- which of the Deities are significantly supporting you. Just like 2014 it was a 7 year but it was also a 4 year which was the year where Great Silent Watcher was helping us. With her help, with her holding her Scepter of Fearlessness and Empowerment and her Protection we managed to do more than expected. We managed to go above and beyond what we had planned. Now good news is she's going to be behind us, she's going to be behind Goddess Victory as we move into a victory year but also there's good news in the fact that 5 is the number for Mother of Universe. So always remember that Divine Love Energy, that Vibrant Pink Light of Mother of Universe. And to create an umbrella to embrace Earth and Sanat Kumara, who's our Planetary Logos, she adds a little touch of Fuchsia Pink.

So always remember in this year as we move into the year, to call upon Mother of Universe, specifically for Energies of Healing and things to do with relationships, things that love and compassion would enhance, so family relationships, romantic relationships, business relationships, social relationships even from nation to nation in worldly affairs. You can call upon Mother of Universe and ask her to pour her Compassionate Light of Vibrant Pink and the added Fuchsia touch to enhance the Energies of Sanat Kumara, to honor the Energies of Sanat Kumara, to invoke the presence of Sanat Kumara whose consciousness is overlighting this entire planet and the consciousness of all souls. Meantime, always, always, always, in the course of this upcoming year from this moment on until I tell you otherwise remember to call Goddess Victory and Great Silent Watcher. Great Silent Watcher will continue to help us.

So as you plan your 10 year plan, your 20 year plan, your 30 year plan remember to always invoke Great Silent Watcher as the biggest, the tallest, the most powerful, the most resourceful, the most impressive and significant of all Great Beings, the biggest tool we have in our toolbox, and Goddess Victory with her Energies of Victory and specifically for the year 2015 again as we embark upon at least a decade long journey that we want to invite Goddess Victory to be with us.

Imagine if you start a year planting the seeds for an entire decade and imagine how that acceleration will start speeding up things every year that we advance and we continue because we bring the benefits of and the momentum of that we have gained each year to the following year. So this year of 2015 as we move into the Energies of Healing with Mother of Universe and victory with Goddess Victory we bring the Blessing, the Protection, the Empowerment and the Fearlessness that our Beloved Great Silent Watcher has offered us.

This is going to be an amazing year, a year of getting things done, a year of changing the old patterns, a year of moving away from old ways and old things and finding new ways, finding short cuts, finding simpler ways, finding ways to simplify and enjoy your lives. Sometimes inadvertently you end up complicating your lives. I ask you to remember as we move into the Energies where a new cycle of Energies pour in, keep asking for simplified life, keep asking for ways to enhance life by simplifying it, keep asking for complexities to be removed and released. There's no need for complexity. Complexity is the product of busy minds, the product of static Energy. Things that are simple, things that are straightforward, things that happen smoothly and fall into place with a flow of Shakti, the flow of Life Force; those are the things that bring joy. Those are the things that give you an opportunity to enjoy as it falls into place.

You know that analogy, live to fight another day, and is it necessary to think of life that way? Is it necessary to think that we should pray or hope that we live to fight another day? Or is it better to think of it and to put that intention, live to love another day, live to embrace another day, live to enjoy another day, live to win in another day, live to be happy and continue to simplify life so you can enjoy it. So let's make our new slogan instead of live to fight another day, let's make our slogan, live to love another day with Mother of Universe as our patroness as we move into the Energies of her Divine Love, her Vibrant Pink Light. Let's call this year a year of loving and embracing life. With the Energies of Goddess Victory backing us up let's embrace this life and ask for victory. Let's call this a year of being victorious. With the Energies of Great Silent Watcher having your back and protecting you and empowering you and instilling Fearlessness within your hearts and minds let's make this year a year where you enjoy the pleasures of life that come simply, easily, smoothly, lovingly, gently and give you an opportunity to completely embrace them and be embraced by them. That's my prayer and my offering and request and petition from the Deities who are present.

I want to remind you that you're standing before the Sacred Fire and in the course of the year one of the things that we did was we received 12 Cosmic Guardians who came to Earth and offered their specific qualities and those qualities were Power and Protection, Prosperity, Life and Nurturance, Joy and Gratitude, Empowerment, Balance, Balance of the Masculine and Feminine Polarities, Abundance and Health from higher dimensions specifically 5th Dimensional Energies of Abundance and Health, Divine Love, Victory, the Frosted Blue and Platinum of Victory as well as the Energies of Pink and Gold with Platinum of Victory.

I talked about the Lilac which was about the Balancing of Polarities; I talked about Joy and Gratitude, that Warm Yellow Light of Joy and Gratitude. I talked about the Empowerment that is a Pearlescent Gray with a touch of Purple in it. I talked about the Divine Love, again the Energies of Mother of Universe. Talked about Goddess Victory's Energies, both the Pink and the Frosted Blue.

Then we have that Cinnamon color, the Energies of Karuna, the Sweet Energies that make life lovable and enjoyable and kind and sweet, that's a cinnamon colored Light with an aroma of cinnamon. We had the Energies of Divine Plan in that Warm Orange Light. We have the Energies of Earthly Abundance in that Greenish, Reddish Light, that Dark Red mixed with some Green, it's a red oak, red maple tree leaf. When you look at it, it's green but it's also a deep, deep dark red, and the Energies of Prosperity that Pearlescent Fuchsia Pink Light, the Cobalt Blue of Power and Protection, the Turquoise Blue of Great Silent Watcher, the Copper Gold of Divine Mother, the Amber Light of Mother of Cosmos.

So we had the 12 Cosmic Guardians come forward and they invited Divine Mother to offer an Aspect of herself to be overlit by these 12 Beings. I'm inviting them from the inner chamber behind Divine Mother's Throne to come and stand around the Sacred Fire and be involved in the healing and the petition that I'm about to offer and this Energy that I want you to take into the Winter Solstice and give momentum to move into the New Year and this Energy which will become the grounds, the soil into which you will plant the seed of all your tomorrows, the seeds of all the intentions that you want to manifest as a long term plan in the decades to come.

I want you to please to consider petitioning each of these 12 Aspects of Divine Mother to be present as you set intentions for what you want to manifest so they are all now standing around the Sacred Fire. Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan and our Beloved Great Silent Watcher and Goddess Victory are holding their Scepter up and making a triangle by touching the points of their three Scepters, I'm asking Mother of Universe to be the 4th point because we're moving into the Energies of this New Year, and it is Goddess Victory and Mother of Universe standing facing one another and then the other two points are Great Silent Watcher and Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan who are also facing each other. They are holding their Scepters high up, the points are touching, their Scepters are tilted creating a dome. So Goddess Victory gives her Frosted Blue and Platinum Light, Mother of Universe gives her Vibrant Pink with Fuchsia added, Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan gives her Warm Orange Light and our Beloved Great Silent Watcher gives her Turquoise Blue Light. Streams of these 4 Lights are pouring down and they make a big huge dome.

And inside of that dome we are all standing, with the 12 Aspects of Divine Mother and the 12 Cosmic Guardians are standing with the other Beings like Mother of Universe, Mother of Cosmos, other members of the Council, Divine Mother.

Lord Shiva, Goddess Shakti are invited to sit upon their Thrones, the Thrones that Divine Mother has built for them on either side of my own seat, my own Throne. They are invited, Lord Shiva and Goddess Shakti to hold the Primordial Light, they are the most ancient of Beings and they carry the Primordial Light on your behalf, on our behalf, on behalf of the Divine Feminine Council and they bring it into this New Year.

So notice that they are weaving the Filaments of that Primordial Light and streams of Light are now being added to the Dome that's created by the 4 Beings that are holding their Scepters, and the dome is carrying those Filaments of Golden Light that are the gifts from Lord Shiva and Goddess Shakti.

Now the celebration and the exercise I want you to take to the New Year and I want you to perform around the Winter Solstice, as light takes over from darkness at the end and completion of Winter Solstice which falls on the 21st of December this year. The ceremony I would like you to continue starts here. It starts with me kneeling, it starts first with me kneeling facing Lord Shiva and Goddess Shakti and as I am facing them I am also invoking the 4, the 4 who are going to be the Guardians of this year and the long term plan that may be a decade, 2 or 3 decades long depending on how long you want to extend your long term plan and that is Great Silent Watcher and Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan, Goddess Victory and Mother of Universe. This year it is Goddess Victory and Mother of Universe. Next year mother of Universe will give way to the next Deity whose year it is but the other 3 will continue, so will Lord Shiva and Goddess Shakti, they are permanent and Mother of Universe will stay in the circle with the 12 Cosmic Guardians but she will vacate her post as the Guardian of the year.

So what I ask you to do- as I am kneeling down- is to kneel with me and I am petitioning Lord Shiva Goddess Shakti, the Council of the Divine Feminine and all the Deities and members of the Divine Feminine Council and I am petitioning them for this specific gift to be given to each of you. I am asking you to hold your Scepter. Remember Jim asked you to take your Scepter of Power from the tray, the Angel holding the tray, you are in your ceremonial robes, so this is an official celebration, this is an official ceremony. You're holding your Scepter above your head with both hands, Divine Mother is holding her Scepter with both hands above her head, you and I are kneeling. Our left knee is touching the ground and blessing the ground with the Feminine Energies that move through the left side of your body and it doesn't matter whether you're male or female. Everybody runs the Feminine Energies whether they are male or female, they run it through their left side and they run Masculine Energies through their right side and again it doesn't matter whether you're in a male body or a female body. You run the Masculine Energy in your right side, you run the Feminine Energy on your left side. So the left knee touching the ground, the right knee is holding your body upright and that knee is pointing to heavens. So the Masculine Energy is deferring to the heavens above.

As we are kneeling, left knee touching the ground, right knee bent pointing to the heavens above, our Scepters above our heads, I ask you to repeat after me. “I invoke Lord Shiva Goddess Shakti and the Deities of the Divine Feminine Council and for everyone present here today, I request for all karma and karmic entanglements that relates to each individual’s life span with people places and things that no longer serves them and delays their Divine Mission to be removed and released from this moment on. This includes aches and pains, degenerative diseases, benign diseases, disabilities and inability whether they’re recognized or unrecognized that may be running in the family from generations before. It includes fear in the Physical Body, in the Etheric Body, Emotional Body, Mental Body, Spiritual Body and the Light Body. It includes all emotions that may be trapped in the 5 Body System and Light Body. It includes the mental blockages and mental instabilities, stagnancies that may be stagnant or remaining in the Physical Body, the 5 Body System and the Light Body carried over from previous generations. It includes 7 generations past and will enhance the lives of 7 generations ahead of each of you even if some of you may not have generations of descendants.”

For example if you don’t have children of your own it doesn’t matter, the children of your siblings, the children of your loved ones, the step children, the children of those that you touch, the children that you cross paths with we ask to be included. Every one of you have been a child at some point, it doesn’t matter if the child comes from your own vessel or if it comes from the vessel of another. Everyone has been a child at some point and everyone deserves not to carry the burden of karma.

For your benefit I am going to explain what it is I am asking these Deities to do so you’re clear. You know there are those things that run in a family. For example, good parts I would mention, everyone is ambidextrous in this family, they can cut with both hands, they can write with both hands, they can accomplish everything that people who are right handed can only do with the right hand, people who are left handed can only do with the left hand, that’s a good trait, but there are also traits that hinder you, for example dyslexia, for example knee problems for example migraine headaches, for example back pain, for example some mental, emotional issue, also fears and phobias that may be running in the family or may be running from one lifetime to the next and you don’t know why but you have a fear of heights, you have a fear of confined places, you have a fear of water, you have a fear of dark, darkness, being in a dark place, being in a dark room, you have a fear of being outside alone, you get the picture. That may not be running in the family but somehow it’s something that you have and you don’t know when it started but it’s there, even if you do know when it started, maybe you haven’t done anything about it, maybe you don’t know what to do about it. These are the kind of things I’m asking them to remove. So when I say karma and karmic entanglements with people places and things this is what I am referring to, that if migraine headache as an example ran in the family and maybe it bypassed a generation but you have it or your child has it, your mother had it, I’m asking for 7 generations going past and 7 generations going ahead of you for all the roots of whatever causes, whether it’s in the genome, in the DNA structure, it’s adopted, it’s adapted, it’s environmental, it’s habitual, it would fall environmental, it would fall into one of these, it’s karmic, it’s been brought from another lifetime that has been etched into your psyche, whatever the cause I’m asking these Deities to go into the energy of it and release it on your behalf.

So this is what we’re doing, we’re petitioning them to give you this gift. So far I have explained to you what the actual petition is, what gift it is we’re asking. I want you to be very clear what I am asking them. Sometimes people become afraid of the word karma, or karmic entanglements, I love this person I don’t want them to go out of my life. I want to live with them, I want to be with them. Those are not the kind of things I am asking for you to be relieved from. I am asking you to be relieved from things that cause blockages, old patterns, distraction, pain, struggle, stuff that you feel helpless about, stuff that you feel fearful about. I am asking this not just for you but I'm asking it for everyone in your family and again as I said it includes step children, it includes siblings, it includes nieces and nephews, it also includes all the way to 7 generations, so say great, great, great, great, great, great, great grandchildren, even if they are step grandchildren or children and grandchildren of others that you have crossed paths with and again same thing with ancestors, so go 7 generations and say grand, grand, grand, grand, grand, grand, grand, go on 7 grandparents, great, great, great, great, great, great, great grandparents, all of those are included.

Now some of you are seeing the Lights that are pouring in. While we're doing this petition we will turn to face Great Silent Watcher and very specifically ask Great Silent Watcher to send Angelic Watchers who will come with Elementals. It will be the job of the Elementals to go into your Physical Body, your 5 Body System, your Light Body and even go into the Akashic Records. It would be the job of the Angelic Watchers, supervised by a Silent Watcher who will go into the Akashic Records, find the root cause of those events, find the reason why that was chosen for you by you as a lesson and void that lesson, delete that lesson and same thing with a debt. Go into the Akashic records and find out when that karma and karmic debt was created and take over that karma and have it paid which means if you owed something to someone, whatever the nature of it, whatever the degree of it, whatever the extent of it, whatever the substance of it, whatever the lessons there are, that Deity, which in this case is Great Silent Watcher and all these members of the Feminine Council, they would take it over and pay it on your behalf.

Now you may say, what about the lessons I am supposed to learn from it. So, the answer is, the lessons we request that you learn it, but rather you learn the lessons in pain and in struggle you learn the lesson by your consciousness being raised so you understand it and learn it naturally. I will give you an example. Imagine when you were a child, you were an unruly child, imagine that, I am giving an example, that at the age of 14 or 15 you sneaked out of your bedroom and you got into the car and you drove your parents car and you had an accident, now you have a karmic debt to your parents. The way you would learn that lesson would be that someday you would have your own child who would do something similar to that and the roles would be reversed. Now you're the parent and this is what your child would do and that would be the heartache. Now is it necessary for you to go through that heartache? Is it also necessary for you to be in a position to see the pain that your child goes through to help you learn that lesson? If the Deity, in this case Great Silent Watcher and all these Beings, would forgive, would help your parents, whether they're living or passed on, to get to that place of nullifying, deleting, voiding that lesson, that pain which they suffered and now you have to suffer it because you put them through it and help your child learn the lesson of, why would I want to do this, why would I like to sneak out and do this? Whatever it is I will go talk to my parents and I say this is what I want to do, and we'll sort it out. Wouldn't it be a better world if that karmic lesson didn't have to be paid by your child going through the struggle of teaching you that lesson? Of course the world is fair, your child would have made an agreement to teach you that lesson, in the meantime there was a lesson for your child, whether it's a girl or a boy.

Now imagine if these Deities replaced that lesson that your child would learn by raising the consciousness of the child to know, why would a child do that? The sense of adventure, the sense of learning, the sense of danger, all of that comes into play. Imagine redirecting that sense of adventure, that sense of play, that sense of doing something different, whatever the root causes, into something productive instead of something destructive. These are the kinds of karma and karmic entanglements I am asking to be released and you can extend it to specifics like: a migraine headache or a knee injury or a knee anomaly, this knee problem, say for example with the cartilage or with the knee cap being constructed the way it is, it runs in our family, my parents had it, my grandparents had it, great grandparents had it, why? Why is it necessary for it to run in the family? Now I need surgery, now I can't run a marathon because it's something that runs in the genome. I am asking for those things to be released, it's not helping anyone.

Obviously you would have made an agreement with your parents and grandparents and great grandparents to have that karma, to have that lesson and I'm saying let these Deities take care of that lesson, let your lesson be redirected into something that's productive and helps the Divine Feminine.

If you are free from that pain, whether if it's an emotional or mental pain, whether it is a fear or phobia, whether it's physical pain, whether it's a pain in not being able to meditate, not finding the right teacher whatever the nature I'm asking these Deities to help you clear it even to the extent of those issues you don't even know are an issue. Sometimes people do things they don't know why they do it. They don't even think that's there a better way of doing it. Ah we've done this all our lives why should I change it? Why should I do it differently? It has worked so far in our family, everybody does it in our family, in our community, this is our culture.

Well if it's an old pattern that is not serving you, not enhancing your life. If it's something that complicates your life, if the technology has improved by now for you to do it differently, there's a better way, an easier way, an enhanced way, a more enjoyable way, then why, why should you do it that way?, The old way, the old fashioned way, the culturally confining way just because it runs in the family or it runs into the community it runs in the culture?

Even those things that you are not aware you're doing which complicates your lives, which depletes your Life Force, which takes too much time and energy out of you. I ask these Deities on your behalf and I am asking you to invite them to do it for you. I can ask all I want, if you are not willing to receive it, if you're not understanding the significance of the gift that's given to you, if you're not ready to ask for it, it will not be helpful to you since issues come to the surface day by day.

This is not something we're going to do once and forget about it. This is something we're setting in motion. In 3 months' time or in 3 years' time something might come to the surface and you might look at it and say, huh, I didn't notice this but my family has been doing this for as long as I know and you know what? I don't think it's necessary for me to do it. That's the kind of thing I am talking about. It might take you 3 years from now to get to that place of realizing I don't need to do it this way. The seeds for you to realize you don't need to do it that way is being planted now. You would gain the maturity in some areas of your lives, maybe in 3 years' time and maturity is one of those things, there are so many layers of it. Right now you have the layers of maturity where everything that is in your life and is complicating your life and needs to be removed is obvious to you. The moment these layers are removed, new layers will come to the surface and that would be the time for you to do this exercise and ask for those things to be released. So this is not a cure all thing that you do one time. This is something you will do, this is something you are given the gift to request. This is something that has been brought to your consciousness.

So these are the things that have been given to you, the opportunity to take advantage for releasing all karma and karmic entanglements. Things that are mentally, emotionally, physically, spiritually distracting, delaying, causing pain, making complications, standing in your way and replacing them with things that enhances your lives, allows you to have more joy, allows your body to expand, allows your mind, emotions, soul and spirit to connect and to take you to higher places.

Guided Meditation to release issues: Now the actual visualization that I am offering you is that you visualize that we have set this petition out, it has been given to you. You have asked for it, it's available to you.

So what you visualize is: you visualize yourself in this position where you and I are each time you want something released, and what you're doing is you're envisioning that. Great Silent Watcher has appointed a Silent Watcher, one single Being who's still humongous, just as Great Silent Watcher herself is. This Being steps down the Energies of Great Silent Watcher and connects to your past, your present and your future. This Being has access to the Akashic Records. This Being will supervise a bunch of Angelic Watchers to come with a bigger bunch of Elemental Beings, Fairies and Devas, who come in the form of Fairies and Devas but also in the form of Spheres of Light. This Silent Watcher will go into the Akashic Records, find the root cause for things, void those root causes and then send the Angelic Watchers and the Elementals to go and fix it within your body, within your 5 Body System, within your Light Body.

So what you're visualizing as the end result is that you are surrounded by these little, beautiful creatures, including Spheres of Rainbow colored Light who are the Elemental Devas of Healing who will address at DNA level the issue and the issue can expand from having a migraine headache to picking your nose to being afraid of heights, to doing something a certain way that is redundant and replacing it with a new way that saves you time and money, saves you Energy and enhances your life.

What you are seeing right now is that there is a big Being towering over you illuminated in Turquoise Blue Light. That's the Silent Watcher, then you see huge Bubbles, huge meaning many, many Bubbles come together and create a huge Bubble, those are the Watchers and then you see small Bubbles, but many of them and those small Bubbles are Rainbow colored and they are filling your Physical Body Sheath, your Etheric Body Sheath, your Emotional Body Sheath, your Mental Body Sheath, your Spiritual Body Sheath, your Light Body Sheath, the entire span of each of these Energy Bodies and your Physical Body is now taken over by these little Rainbow colored Bubbles that carry the Elemental Light for healing of all issues from within your Physical, Etheric, Emotional, Mental, Spiritual, Light Bodies releasing it from your DNA structure, releasing it from your path.

This is why I say karma and karmic entangles with people, with places, with things and from within your Physical, 5 Body System and Light Body. The visualization is that 1- you go into that place where you have set the petition up, 2- the petition has been accepted, 3-you have kneeled with your Scepter with Divine Mother by your side, 4-you have all these Great Beings around you. 5-You are in Divine Mother's presence, all of that is already in place.

What you're visualizing ultimately and carrying over with you from day to day is: being completely overlighted by these Rainbow Bubbles who are all over your Body, your 5 Body System, Light Body which is encased by a huge Bubble of Turquoise Blue Light made of small Bubbles that are Energy Essence of Angelic Watchers and towering over you is a Great Being emanating streams of Turquoise Blue Light, she is an Aspect of Great Silent Watcher, she is your very own Silent Watcher and her job is to watch you and keep going to the Akashic Records and find the root cause past, present and future because in the records it doesn't just say this is the past, it says this is the past, this is the present, this is the future, the whole timeline is available to the Silent Watcher. This is how you address this specific issue. This is your part.

Every time you find something you want to be relieved from, every time you think of something you need help with and remember Mother is kneeling by your side even for things that you are not certain in how to ask or what to ask. You can bring it to Mother and say Mother this is a feeling I have I don't even know what to ask or how to ask it, let Mother take care of it and then it will come to your consciousness how to ask it and it will get removed. So this is the exercise.

Summary and Recap of the Meditation Exercise-The exercise consists of you seeing yourself under the huge dome. What is the huge dome? The 4 Beings that is Great Silent Watcher, Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan, Goddess Victory, and Mother of Universe creating that huge dome with their Scepters. Under that huge dome are all the Cosmic Guardians and all the Deities we have invited and Lord Shiva Goddess Shakti. You're kneeling with Divine Mother. You're inside a huge Bubble of Turquoise Blue Light, that Light is being emanated from your very own Silent Watcher. Inside of the Bubble of Turquoise Blue Light your Physical Body, your 5 Body System and your Light Body is filled with Rainbow colored Spheres, Beings that carry their own Energy Essence. They are Elementals; we call them the Elemental Devas of Healing. They are inside of these Spheres of Rainbow colored Light. They emanate the Spheres of Rainbow colored Light into your Physical Body, 5 Body System and Light Body. Through that emanation they heal you.

They heal whatever the ailment is, whether the ailment is within your Body or outside your Body. Even when the Element is you have a piece of land that you've been planting stuff and it doesn't grow, whatever that karma is: say, you have with a land. You have a lovely house, you've been trying to sell it, it doesn't sell. You have an apartment, you want to get rid of it and move into a house but it doesn't happen; you can even bring things like that. You're in a job, you're not happy, you're feeling stagnant, you want a better job. You can even bring those types of things and let these Beings help you.

This is my gift. This gift is given to you, it's available to you. Are you going to wake up tomorrow and everything is going to be a bed of roses? I wish and I hope and I put the intention that it be the case. Having said that, you make the bed of roses yourselves, you got to be willing to see yourself worthy of life being a bed of roses and each day making those roses brighter by letting go of everything that makes the bed of roses murky and dark and fearful. Take those gray filters off of your glasses and let it be a rosy filtered glasses, than everything will be a bed of roses. So this intention is in place for you. This gift is in place for you. Your part is to take advantage of it. Your part is, every day remind yourself that it is in place, and if you don't have a specific thing that you would want to be released then say Mother whatever you think would benefit that I would release today, you take care of it and set that intention right now but say it every day. Say,

“Mother I offer this day to you and I ask you to relieve me of all karma and karmic entanglements. Replace them with love, with compassion, with selfless service, with accomplishing my Divine Mission.”

I hold every one of you in my own heart and I pray that you are the embodiment of your Divine Mission and that every day of your life you do above and beyond as you have done in the year 2014 and as you shall do with the help of all these Beings whom I am grateful to have as your help. I Am your very own Divine Mother. So It Is.

Nasrin concludes: Thank you everyone and goodnight.

Jim concludes: Thank you Nasrin, thank you Divine Mother, and all the Great Beings and I thank you. Have a wonderful holiday season. Goodnight.
