Grounding Meditation-Feel Uluru beneath your feet, the great red rock in Central Australia, Ayres Rock where we begin our grounding every session. It's a sacred, very sacred monument, natural monument, and we feel our feet against the top of the great red rock. Be aware that everybody on this call is standing with you. As we all feel the heartbeat of Uluru, which is the heartbeat of our very own Mother Earth, we begin to slide into Uluru, great red clay colored rock. You can see the Red Clay colored Light all around you and you can feel as it engulfs you, holds you, nurtures you, loves you and releases the dross from your body and your being and from your Earth Crust Chakra. Focus a second on your Earth Crust Chakra which is right beneath the bottoms of your feet and feel it be cleared and cleansed by the Red Light of Uluru; also your Crown Chakra just above your head.

As we slide down, envision that your Hara Line is activated- the Pillar of Light that extends from the bottoms of your feet all the way down to the center of Mother Earth-engulfing your Earth Crust Chakra. Begin to send roots from the bottoms of your feet down around your Hara Line, all the way down; and see those roots wrap around the Earth Core Crystal that's at the center of the Earth. You're holding yourself with your root system tight to Mother Earth.

See that Divine Mother's Energy is around you, the Copper Gold Light with roots extending down around yours. See Goddess Victory and Great Silent Watcher all wrapping their Light around you, Copper Gold of Mother, Pink, Gold and Platinum of Victory and the Turquoise Blue of Great Silent Watcher wrapping their roots around yours holding you tight to Mother Earth.

Now see that the tree trunk forms around you; and the tree trunk's roots are forming down around yours and all the other Beings' roots and holding us all together firmly to the Core Crystal. The outer layer of this tree trunk that surrounds you is Emerald Green in color bringing the Energies of Abundance and Healing to you and everything that passes up and down through the tree trunk. See that this tree trunk extends up through the heavens and into the Pool of Creation where it spreads out its branches and leaves into the Pool.

We all together pull up through the root system the Amber colored Life Force Energy of Mother Earth which is in the Core Crystal; and we're pulling that up through the root system all the way up until it reaches the bottoms of the feet. You can feel it moving into your feet and legs and it's bringing the Life Force Energy of Mother Earth; and it is another layer of cleansing and cleaning of the static energies and the rushing business of the day as it leaves your body. Feel and see this Amber colored Light move up through your legs, through your hips, through all the Chakras of your body; and it moves up through your torso and spreads out into the tree trunk and into your 5 Body System, your Energy Bodies and Light Body. The Amber colored Light moves up all the way through your Crown Chakra, filling your arms and legs and every iota of your Physical Body and your Energy Bodies. It moves up through the tree trunk all the way up to the Pool of Creation as you are the catalyst to bring the Life Force Energy of Mother Earth all the way up to the heavens above.

We ask Mother of the Cosmos to pour her Cosmic Life Force Energy, which is also a deep Amber Colored Light into the Pool of Creation. The tree pulls it down through the tree trunk; all the way down, filling the tree trunk to your Crown Chakra. This more vibrant, darker Amber Colored Light fills your body and your being and also activates the Life Force Energy from Mother Earth and rejuvenates it; and gives it additional power and pep and energy. See the Cosmic Life Force Energy moving down through your body, filling your 5 Body System, and moving all the way down through the bottoms of your feet, through the Hara Line and your root system all the way to mix in the Core Crystal with the Life Force Energy of Mother Earth.

You've been the catalyst to pull that Energy into Earth. You've been the catalyst to pull the Life Force Energy up into the heavens and this service is greatly appreciated by both Earth and Divine Mother.

Now see that Great Silent Watcher is standing on the deck around the Pool of Creation and pouring her Gold from the Pot of Gold into the Pool of Creation; and see the Gold pouring down through the tree trunk, reaching your Crown Chakra, moving through your body and your being, into your Light Body and 5 Body System. This Gold colored Light is poured from Great Silent Watcher's Pot into the Pool of Creation and moves all the way down filling your body. Feel the distinctly different Energy that this Pot of Gold Light brings as it moves through your body down through the bottoms of your feet all the way down to the Core of Mother Earth mixing with the other Lights.

Now we move up as the second wave from the Core Crystal of Mother Earth, as all the Energies mixed together move back up through the root system to you, and we move together through the tree trunk all the way to the Pool of Creation, all the way up through the heavens to the Pool of Creation and we find our self swimming in the Pool of Creation. We see our two Angels standing on the side on the deck around the Pool of Creation and we step out, and on the trays we see our ceremonial robes which we place on our body, and our cape, and we take our Scepter of Power from the other tray. We thank these Angels who have come to assist us with all our hearts and we turn to face Divine Mother sitting on her Throne.

We move to Divine Mother, and as we get closer she stands up, holds her arms out with her cape of Copper Gold, and we move in to be hugged by Divine Mother. She wraps her cape around us, holds us tight in her love as this Copper Gold Light fills our body, our being. We can feel the nurturing effect of the Copper Gold as well as the clearing and cleansing qualities of the Gold and the empowerment Energies of the Copper colored Light.

Divine Mother stands. As we hold her hand, we walk together to the Sacred Altar and we move to step in front of the Sacred Altar. Before we face the Altar we turn and we greet Lord Shiva and Goddess Shakti sitting on their Thrones on either side of Divine Mother's Throne. We send our love and our blessings to Lord Shiva & Goddess Shakti. We're approaching Shivaratri and we send all of our love and our gratitude for all that Lord Shiva does for us in bringing the power to us to remove karma, to burn away the karma and karmic entanglements, to allow us to more easily handle this world, our Divine Mission, and all aspects of our being without the load of karma, the heavy load of karma which Shiva is able to work with us to help lighten.

Goddess Shakti who reminds us and blesses us with the ability to flow with the Shakti at all times, to go with the flow, recognize the flow of Shakti, recognize the Divine Feminine flowing through everything that we do, everything that we think, everything that we plan, to be able to find the right resonances to ebb and flow in unison with the Divine Feminine, with the flow of Shakti. Goddess Shakti's Energies lightening our load, karmic entanglements and extra karma, allows us to feel that flow and to flow and move with it which always brings greater abundance, greater achievement in everything that we want to do. The best way to achieve anything and everything we want is to be able to do it with momentum; the momentum that the flow of Shakti gives us; and our blessings and our gratitude to Goddess Shakti for providing us with that remembrance and that Energy.

Now we turn with Divine Mother and we stand before the Sacred Altar; and once again we're entering the year of 2015. Great Silent Watcher is standing in the North towering above everyone holding her Scepter to the center. In the east Mother of the Universe is standing huge with Great Silent Watcher. She is touching her Scepter to Great Silent Watcher's. Cosmic Guardian of the Divine Plan is in the south and our Beloved Goddess Victory in the west. Great Silent Watcher with her Turquoise Blue, Mother of the Universe with her Pink, Vibrant Pink Light, Guardian of the Divine Plan with her Warm Orange, Victory with her Pink, Gold & Platinum Lights and they're all pouring down creating a dome around everyone. See all the great Beings standing around the Sacred Altar making their offerings on this day, this Gateway Portal day.

As we stand with Divine Mother and all of the Beings around the Altar be aware every one of us is standing there also. Take a moment, make your offerings, set your intentions and state your love and gratitude for each one of these great Beings who have given so much to be here, to bless you, to bless this planet and to bless Divine Mother and all that she's doing for Earth and humankind and for Sanat Kumara. See now that Sanat Kumara joins this entourage standing to your left, with Divine Mother to your right, receiving all of the blessings from Divine Mother, all of the great Beings here, as well as Shiva and Shakti.

Take a moment, set your intentions and the next voice you hear will be that of our Beloved Nasrin. So It Is.

Nasrin begins: 13:52

Hello everyone and welcome to 2-02-2015. Remember that you are inside of the grid. The grid which is going to be our grid for protection, for anchoring, for grounding, centering, for bringing abundance for the rest of the year of 2015. Remember that in this grid you are already in the bosom of Divine Mother and everywhere around you is Copper Gold Light. You're protected in Divine Mother Energies and you are facing north where Great Silent Watcher is pouring her Turquoise Blue Light and her Gold from her Pot of Gold. Then you're turning to the east and you see Mother of Universe, the Cosmic Being who's the head of a universe which is a sister universe to our own, a bigger one than ours and one that is a more highly evolved universe than ours. Her Energy is Vibrant Pink. She's sending the Vibrant Pink to you inside Divine Mother's bosom.

Then you turn to the direction of south and there's a Being you know as Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan. I explain a little further for those of you who may be new. This Being has come from the core of the Cosmos to provide us with her ability to choose on our behalf the highest and the best of Divine Plans so that our souls can serve in the highest and the best possible way, so this life that we are spending here on Earth is used in the best way throughout the lifetime, and that we stay focused on accomplishing our Divine Mission, our purpose for this lifetime. Her Energy is a Warm Orange Light.

Then you turn in the direction of west and it is Goddess Victory, Goddess Victory has many different Lights that she offers us to make us victorious. In this occasion she's giving us Platinum, which carries the highest Feminine Energies, Gold which carries the highest Masculine Energies, and Pink. Pink is very important. There are very different varieties and hues of Pink, but all of them relate to the Energies of Divine Love. So Goddess Victory with her Victorious Light embracing us in Divine Love, and she stands opposite of Mother of Universe that is protecting us and our entire universe as her little sister. Our universe is a little sister to her universe and she's the head of that universe and she has come because she has done it for her own universe and has been successful, and she's here to help our own Divine Mother who's the head for our entire Multi-Dimensional Realty, our Cosmic Conglomerate to help.

We say Divine Mother's Energy encompasses all of the female Deities. Every person in every faith worships and loves and is devoted and believes in a female Deity. If you add all of them up and imagine a mother that's a mother to all of them, that's the image of Divine Mother, and this is the Divine Mother in whose bosom you're bathing in Copper Gold Light. She has chosen Copper Gold as her Light because it's perfect for this time, this juncture in our history. It clears and cleanses negativity and it raises our vibration to make our lives easier, better, more enjoyable and more fruitful.

Your daily routine for the rest of this year- Now it's very important that you imagine this every morning as you wake up. So you wake up in the morning and before you begin your day it's really important that you imagine that you're sending your roots to the Core of the Earth, you're extending the tree trunk and bathing in the highest Energies. Imagine the Pool of Creation at the highest heaven and there is Energy coming from the highest heaven down into your body and from the bottom of your feet and from your tailbone all the way down, sending roots and releasing fears and worries and concerns.

Then you imagine that you're swimming in the Pool of Creation, and then you imagine that you're absorbed into Divine Mother's bosom, and then you imagine your standing in what we call a Grid of Light- which means a bunch of Beings standing around shining their Lights on you; and in this case, Great Silent Watcher, a Being who is the source of our Light, she carries the Turquoise Blue; Mother of Universe, Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan, Goddess Victory, and you receive all these Energies.

Last week I had an email from a member of our group who said, I'm noticing that recently you're giving this grid and I want to know if I should now move to this grid or do the one we used to do last year and we did this, this and this. I sat and meditated how to respond and Divine Mother said: "it's like sitting on a card table and having a good hand and then leaving the table with money on the table because you didn't play your best hand." I kind of laughed because I didn't expect Divine Mother to talk about it like this. Leaving the table and leaving money on the table, but that's the analogy she gave and it makes a lot of sense.

Every few months we change the grids and we give you the latest and the newest. I know you get used to something and it feels good and you don't have to try and figure out what the new one is; so there's reluctance in giving up the old and going into the new. And so a few months go by and you're still doing the old grid. But what happens when you continue to do the old grid while we've all moved on- or most of us have moved on to something new- is like Mother said, leaving money on the table and not playing your best hand. Why? Because after awhile when we do this work together that old grid which you're still continuing to do is already anchored, it's already there. It's already part of your body and being.

Remember we keep hearing, anything you do for 30 days, anything you do for 33 days it becomes part of your body and being. So if we've done it for a few months- because we still need to anchor it on behalf of Earth, on behalf of humankind, on behalf of our loved ones- then we certainly have anchored it. So when Divine Mother and these Deities give us something new, it's really good that you print it right away or within that first month or the second month that it's given and sit down and make a bullet point for yourself.

I'm one of those people if I write something down in my own handwriting I won't forget it. So I sit down and I draw it for myself; and for me that's the go to. Invariably after I have sat down and written it down or drawn it, I don't even need to go back to it but I have it, it's there, it has my Energy. It's like you're really bringing it and anchoring it at the level of putting it two dimensionally on a piece of paper and then it's there; it has even moved further from the 3rd Dimension into really, really harsh reality where it's on a piece of paper. You may not need to do that, you may be smarter than me and get it faster and I hope that that's the case; but in any event it really is important that you move into whatever is new when the group moves to something new because then you're moving with the Energy of the group. It serves two purposes. One is that you personally will benefit immediately from something that's new and something that's better, something that has higher Energy, more protection, more love and nurturance. Secondly, in the company of the group you get a chance to be of service when we're all anchoring a new Energy.

You stay behind and you do the old grid then what's happening? You really are being left behind. You really are leaving yourself behind in gaining the merits of anchoring something new that everybody else is doing, and you're saying ah well, not yet I'm still not done with that old thing. The thing of it is Mother knows when to give us something new, so if she gives us something new chances are we're all ready to get it. If you've participated in a session and in that session something new has been given then she knows everyone who participates.

You know how, many times has it been, you forget a session, "oh my god I forgot a session" or you register for something and you don't get a chance to do it? Well maybe because that's not the time. You're doing the old grid and you should be doing the old grid but when over and over again you're beckoned to do something new and you stick with something old then not only are you leaving money on the table that you could benefit from but also you're depriving yourself of gaining the merits of serving in that way because every member of the group that does the new thing together with the rest creates a huge entity, a huge group force, group power that empowers the entire group and its power grows exponentially. When we come together as a group our power becomes exponential. It's not the sum total adding okay 12 people so it's 12 times what it would have been if one person had done it. It actually becomes exponential. "When two or more of you are gathered in my name....", it's that same principle. When there's more than two, more than a certain number, it has the potential of taking us to critical mass; and sometimes the number for critical mass is a small number, half a dozen, or two dozen and that's all it takes for us to anchor the Energy.

So together inside of this group we go before Divine Mother, and I thank you as Jim has, for your participation in these Portal Channelings events. These are by far the most important events. Everyone who participates from across the globe is serving by their participation and by adding their own Energy, their own love, and their own service to the group energy and the group entity that we create together, and together we will change our world for the better.

My prayer is that every one of you and your loved ones would feel the joy and the expansion that these Gateway Portal Channelings and the Energies that we anchor bring to our world. It should start with each of you. It should start with all your loved ones benefiting from the work that you do. So in joy and gratitude, we send each other love and we join these amazing Deities who are here to serve us and help us change our world. Let's take a deep breath.

Divine Mother begins: 28:35

My Beloved Children of Light I'm your very own Divine Mother.

2-2 is a very auspicious Gateway Portal Day. We're almost at the point of the full moon. That always helps too. Full moon always accelerates things. So meditate and offer your prayers and intentions at the time of the full moon because the potential to receive answers and to anchor Energies and to realize your dreams or get your wishes answered, is at its highest around the time of the full moon.

Always start new intentions, new beginnings at the time of new moon because it's like a baby, it's pure and it's innocent. The month is pure when you start something at the new moon. You might have heard people say – Don't start anything, it's the end of the month, wait until the moon is new. This is because as the month goes towards its end it gets heavier. So the full moon is for realizing the full potential. It's the full empowerment. The new moon is to begin new things, to start from a place of clean slate, to start the slate from its most pure and innocent, most clean.

So right now approaching the full moon on 2-2 what I would like to give you is a gift that brings me great joy. Last month, the very first gift of the month with the Portal Channeling was that I gave you the Gold from Great Silent Watcher's own Energy field, and I explained to you that I'm going to give you the image that Great Silent Watcher's holding a huge pot on her shoulder, and she tilts it and she pours Gold, Liquid Gold from it into the Pool of Creation, and that you are swimming in the Pool of Creation. You are also envisioning that standing under the dome as Great Silent Watcher pours her Turquoise Blue Light; she's also pouring the Gold. Mother of Universe pouring her Vibrant Pink, Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan pouring her Warm Orange, Goddess Victory pouring her Pink with Platinum and Gold.

I would like to add this gift tonight and this gift comes from Goddess Victory, so keep focused on Goddess Victory. Let me remind you that Goddess Victory has the Rod of Light. It's like a rod, it has a pointy point like a very sharp pencil or like one of those beautiful selenite wands that many of you have, and this Rod carries her Energies of Victory. Now from her Rod which is now pointing to the center of this grid to the highest point of the dome she is pointing her Rod to the highest point which is directly above your head where you're standing in Divine Mother's bosom and she's pouring her Light.

Now imagine the Pink Light mixing with the Platinum and the Gold and the intensity of the Platinum and the Gold is such that it turns the Pink into a Champagne colored Light. The mixture of the Gold glitter and the Platinum glitter or Silver colored Platinum, its substance is Platinum and Platinum is like shimmers of Silver Light. If those two mix and then carry themselves inside the substance of the Pink the mixing of the Gold and the Platinum will give that Pink a Champagne colored Light or a Beige Pink colored Light. We're going to call it Champagne but in case you were wondering, there are variations of Champagne color. It's a Pinkish Beige and she's pouring that Light down from the dome and you're receiving it directly as a beam of Light, as a shaft of Light into the top of your head and into your entire body, and Divine Mother magnifies it because you're in her bosom. She magnifies it with her Copper Gold.

I want you to understand the significance of this gift from Goddess Victory. Remember we talked about the numbers of this year? 2015 all adds up to 8 which is Goddess Victory's number, hence this gift from Goddess Victory. She gives you this gift to carry throughout this year but it's not confined to this year alone. This gift is yours for the rest of this lifetime. The myriad of benefits that it provides, I can only explain a few of them, and words cannot truly explain the benefits but I'm going to try. What is it that Goddess Victory stands for? For the Quality of Victory, to make you victorious, to make sure that any project you embark upon you are successful in it. To make sure that you don't even go near projects that are dead ends, that have bumpy roads ahead, that have obstacles in front of them.

Now the beauty of the Light that is pouring from Goddess Victory's Rod and pouring down into your body, into your 5 Body System, into your Light Body, is that it allows her to help you always choose the right combination of things, always have foresight. You meet someone; on the surface they seem wonderful. First appearances, everything is good. It could be someone in a business environment. You decide to give your business to them. It turns out; well first appearances were not all they were made to be. Now Goddess Victory and her Rod in this format, giving you that Champagne colored Light would allow you to go past first appearances. If someone presents you with a situation you will be able to have foresight to see through the first appearances. Furthermore, this Energy that is pouring down to you would allow you to rise up to situations where you won't even attract someone who would be two faced or be good on the first appearance, but not deliver when it matters. It would help you absorb to yourself, absorb to your environment people, places, things, decisions, plans, projects, designs, ideas that begin victoriously, go through victoriously without obstacles and end victoriously so you don't get delayed or distracted, you don't have bumps in the road, you don't have to climb obstacles. This is the significance of this Energy and this gift that Goddess Victory is giving you.

Furthermore, for every one of you in the area where you live Goddess Victory is going to plant a splinter, chard, like a javelin of this Rod of hers to become an antenna that she plants. It's invisible to normal eye but it is visible to someone with psychic powers, someone whose 3rd eye is activated. Therefore within your immediate environment, let's say using your homes as its center, as its focus, Goddess Victory will plant a chard of this amazing Rod of hers like an antenna at the central focal point of your homes. In that way that antenna that she has planted from a splinter from her Rod will attract to itself everything that is victorious, everything that pulls the Energies of Victory and dissolves anything that is of obstacles, releases dross, pain and struggle. In that way allowing the flow of Energy to be smooth and allowing the bumps, kinks and creases to be released and removed, dissolved from your path.

Furthermore, Goddess Victory is going to send many of these chards to specific areas where they're members of Goddess Victory's own Soul Lineage. We've talked about dormant Aspects of Victory, so members of Goddess Victory's own Soul Lineage. Many of them we call them dormant because at some point in the past history when Goddess Victory had to pull her Energy away from Earth she made all of those people who were incarnate on Earth at the time, and it was important for them to stay behind, she made them dormant in the sense that she made them forget that they are members of her own soul family.

Now sending these chards, these javelins, these antennas into various parts of the world where dormant Aspects of Victory are incarnate is a wonderful thing, a reinforcement for all of you, and something that each of you who have made an intention to help Goddess Victory and to awaken that part of yourself as a member of her soul family to be reinforced. That part of you which has always felt, "why are people not understanding me? Why are people not seeing what I am seeing? Why are people so different?" That part of you will begin to feel as if you belong again, because by sending these chards and awakening those who have fallen asleep over many thousands of years and many incarnations to then gain their power and begin to come to the consciousness that they're not alone either, and for all people of like mind, for all these people, for all the times that you have said, "where are the people who would understand me? What happened to the people who see the world through my eyes? Why is it that even my family members can't understand what I'm saying? I say something and I mean it with all the goodness in my heart but they read so much into it that it gets all diluted, it gets all misplaced, it gets all twisted. Where are those people that would understand me?"

Now sending these chards from her Rod of Power, Rod of Victory and the awakening all the others, is like an injection of joy, injection of victory into a whole bunch of people who will all come to life again, find themselves again, and find people of like mind, and many of them will seek you as their teachers. They will find you and they will find solace in you. And as each of you will help 1,2,10 a 100 of these, you gain more power, you gain more hope, you gain more joy in your heart because this is what your soul wants you to be able to accomplish. This is the agreement you have made with your soul to do good and you've always said, "I'm here and there's more I have to do in this lifetime than meets the eye but I'm not sure what it is I'm supposed to do. I wish I knew. I wish I could find someone who would tell me what it is I am supposed to do. I wish I could find a people I'm supposed to help".

So the great news is that she sends these shards of her Rod of Victory like spears that will fall onto Earth and awaken all those others who have felt similarly to the way you have felt in this lifetime and mostly even for those who have lost hope in coming back to loving this life and experiencing joy. Even those who feel that there's a lot of darkness around them, there's a lot of darkness surrounding them. They're going to find their own Light is increasing to the point where they have no longer any fears of that darkness. They're no longer so zoomed in on that darkness. They're no longer seeing so much of the darkness, so much of hopelessness, so much of the anger, so much of the violence, but they're seeing hope and joy and partnerships, friendships, mentorships and the quotient of joy increases, the quotient of Light increases, the quotient of hope increases, the quotient of friendship increases, the ways that people find one another and find solace in each other increases.

The ways that your students will come to you: now a student teacher relationship doesn't always have to be in the classroom. It doesn't even have to be in a spiritual setting where you sit and give them the mysteries. Your teachers can manifest in a myriad forms. A baby can be a great teacher; and you as a teacher can touch multitudes of people; and somebody standing in line at the grocery store can be one. The person who's bagging your groceries can be one. The exchange of Energy between you and those people can be subtle, just a look, just a loving glance, just a thank you, just reading their name badge and saying their name and anchoring the Energies of Victory through their name into their 5 Body System Light Body. That can be life changing and that can magnify the ability for those people to rise in vibration.

Same thing with places, you can go to a place, you can be stationary inside your car listening to a mantra or listening to music sitting in traffic and you can bless that land and you can awaken the Energies of Victory because you were stationary in your car yet exchanging Energy with that land, through that highway that you are passing through, through that back street that by mistake or because of some roadwork you find yourself. You sit on a rock and you pause for a moment during a walk, you stand with your pet because they're stopping to sniff something and you just feel an Energy exchange. It can be as subtle and as passive as that and you awaken something in that land on the crust of the Earth you become the antenna because you carry the Energies through that Champagne colored Light and through the blessing that Goddess Victory has given to you exchanging Energy with places, also exchanging Energy with things.

Now when we say "things", it can be inanimate things but it can also be animate things. It can be sentient things and it can be insentient things. You hold your crystals in your hand to give a healing to someone. You hold your crystals in your hand to just play with them. You pick a river rock from a river, that's a form of crystal. It's denser than a crystal but they're from the same family. They're all mineral kingdom. You go to the ocean, you bathe in the ocean, you bless the ocean and you're anchoring your Energies and the Energies of Victory. Someone else walks into that ocean right behind you, the water isn't the same, the water's always moving, but the Energy is the same. You just walked on that sand and all the creatures that are in that water, in the vicinity of where you're swimming or standing they're receiving the Energy and they're magnifying its impact and they're transferring to other parts of that water.

The surface of the whole Earth is covered by waters and all these waters are connected, so every time you go to the ocean, every time you go to a body of water, bless that body of water. Every time you go to a land bless that land. Every time you pick a flower bless that flower and remind that flower and bush that it is part of the Energy of Victory. That it has been blessed by you who carry the Energies of Victory. Tell that plant that has given a flower to you, be victorious, hold your head up, you're now carrying the Energy of Victory; you've given me one of your flowers. Even if it's a cut flower which they've put a lot of miracle grow and a lot of chemicals and it stinks of chemicals even when you bring it home, even that plant. It has the merit of sitting in your living room, on your dining room table, sitting somewhere in a corner giving your pleasure and joy.

The nursery from which it comes from is blessed because you have some of the cut flowers from that nursery, even if you never step foot in that flower nursery. The Energies of Victory through the consciousness of that flower is transferred to all the other flowers and to that nursery. This is how all encompassing this Energy that Goddess Victory is giving you can be and this is how easy it can be for you to be a beacon of Light, an antenna of transferring these Energies, but most importantly I want to ask you to be aware that you're transferring the Energy to your loved ones.

You're changing the lives of those you cross paths with and your loved ones are on top of the priority list. So hold your loved ones in your heart. If you get a chance to be physically with them, give them a big hug, and while you're doing that transfer this Light of Victory to them. If you can't be with them, imagine that you're holding them in your arms, hugging them and transferring the Energies, and do it for 7 generations of your ancestors, even those great, great, great, great, great grandparents that you never saw. Do it for 7 generations of your descendants, even those great, great, great, great grandchildren that you may never see and extend it for 7 generations ahead of you, 7 generations behind you, that's 15 lifetimes. Imagine if even a handful of people did that how easy it would be to gain critical mass.

So imagine Goddess Victory's Rod of Power and imagine her sending shards of it like a javelin throughout the entire globe, to all parts of Earth, awakening all the people who deserve to remember how special they are, awakening your loved ones, awakening your 7 generations past, 7 generations ahead of you, and your loved ones, your descendants, your ancestors 7 generations past, 7 generations ahead of you.

I hold you in my own heart. I kneel before Goddess Victory and thank her for this gift. I kneel before Great Silent Watcher and thank her for her Pot of Gold. I kneel before Mother of Universe and thank her for her Vibrant Pink. I kneel before Cosmic Guardian and thank her for Warm Orange. I kneel before each of you and thank you for all that you do on my behalf, on behalf of humankind, on behalf of Earth. May you receive exponentially, eternally and I hold you in my own heart with all of my love eternally. I'm your very own Divine Mother. So It Is.

Nasrin concludes: Thank you everyone and goodnight.

Jim concludes: Thank you Nasrin, thank you Divine Mother, thank you Victory and all the Goddesses and Cosmic Goddesses of the Divine Feminine, til next month goodnight.;
