Nasrin begins:

Hello Everyone and welcome to 9-9-2015. Jim is traveling and we will begin by doing our grounding meditation and then I will talk to you about the beautiful meditation that Divine Mother gives us for this portal channeling and go into what really is the benefit of using the energies of this new Cosmic Guardian of Compassion. So let us begin with the grounding. As you envision yourselves in a grid of light in a group setting with everyone from all across the globe joining us for this 9-9-2105. September is going to be a very important month. There is going to be eclipses and the so called blood moon and a lot of holy days that are celebrated across the globe. We just had a newsletter from Karunamayi with information that this is the month of Shraavan or Shraavana, that is a very holy month and lots of important days. Also from an astrological point of view this is a very important month for a lot of upliftment and awakening and empowerment.

For our Equinox Ceremony Divine Mother is going to give us a new Cosmic Guardian who is a Cosmic Guardian for Balancing Physical Strength and Stamina with Divine Power and Strength, and that's also a gift from Mother. That will be live on the 20th of September 2015. I invite all of you to join us for that one, and this way in one month you get two new Cosmic Guardians to be added to the entourage of all the deities that you work with.

GROUNDIGN WITH ULURU-So, let's take a deep breath together as you envision Golden Pink Light coming out of your heart and moving to the hearts of your loved ones and members of this group wherever they may be.

Imagine that you put your feet on the sacred red clay colored rock called Uluru or Ayers Rock in central Australia. Divine Mother tells us that this rock is as sacred as any sacred site you might find around the globe; imagine that you absorb the red clay from the bottom of your feet and you glide into the rock. You bathe in the energies, absorb the red clay rock color and see a boulder size red clay sphere around you that will protect you through the month of September and be charged and be regenerated every time you do this meditation or any meditation where you place this sphere around you. We do this every day in the morning by seeing ourselves glide into Uluru and absorb the red clay energies and place the boulder around us.

Now imagine you send your roots from the bottom of your feet and your tailbone into the core of the earth and in the core a beautiful crystal that absorbs the roots and sends an amber life force energy into the roots that come up and shoot up a shaft of light which we call the hara line that is your connection to earth and go up to the consciousness of your body from the bottom of your feet and move up like a French press in reverse as the amber is rising up your legs, hips, torso, head, and from the top of your head through the golden silver cord that connects you to the higher realms, and it goes all the way to the pool of creation in the highest of all realms.

And the energy from the pool of creation starts pouring down as you imagine the roots going to the surface creating a tree trunk and over the trunk of the tree we call the emerald green light that brings you health and abundance and next to that emerald green the plum ray of rejuvenation which is a gift from Divine Mother. The two merge, the plum and the green and in the center as they seep into each other the reddish green color the plum mixed with green color that is abundance from earth. And Cosmic Guardian of Earthly Abundance will watch over you and these energies.

Now the branches and the leaves of the tree are bathing in the Pool of Creation and you imagine your own consciousness now raised to the pool of creation after sending those amber lights from the pool of creation down to the core of the earth back up to the Pool of Creation down again and finally leaving it up there while you bathe in the Pool of Creation and you see that all the deities that we love are lining up sending us their light. Their signature energies and the colors that you are familiar with, and if you're new then trust that they are sending you their light and their love and they know you even if you don't know them yet; and you move into the deeper part of the Pool of Creation where there is a huge fountain. And the color and the energy of the water or the light is much lighter and more pristine. And you jump into the layers, the first rung or the second, if you feel that you can jump that high, and you become more pure and more ethereal and ready to absorb the light.

Then you notice a Bridge of Light opening that takes you directly from the fountain to the promenade that has a boardwalk around it and as you glide on that golden bridge you come to stand on that boardwalk and see that all the deities are cheering you on.

Two angels appear, they offer you your ceremonial robes which you put on; your crown and your scepter which you then get adorned with. Your cape around your shoulder holding your scepter you will walk with the Angels as they bring you before the throne of Divine Mother. Standing with Mother facing you, see her sending her copper gold light to you. Absorbing the copper gold you begin to move to Divine Mother's bosom as if you are magnetized to her. She receives you. Opens her beautiful copper gold cape and pulls you to her bosom and holds you there.

Now, while you continue to imagine that you are sitting in Mother's bosom bathing in the Copper Gold Light I want to remind you that this is a part three of a series which began three months ago (in the July Newsletter) with Mother first giving us her own copper gold light from the fingers and the palm of her hand, that she placed on top of our heads. In the second month after that, that would've been August, she then brought the actual Ray of Compassion in a Pearlescent Cream Color. Champagne Color, like effervescent bubbly Champagne a Creamy Colored Light. This month she's going to offer you that light washing over you, but also she's going to present to you the actual being, the deity who is the Goddess of Compassion.

So you may imagine that you have already been cleared and cleansed; your entire Five Body System purified with the copper gold light of Divine Mother that starts in the head region and moves into the body and through the layers of the Five Body System, to then reach your Light Body, the highest of energetic bodies and the part where allows you to connect to the higher realms and do out of body journeys where you go and meet your Guides and Divine Mother. And behind the Copper Gold you have received this beautiful energy of Compassion the essence of compassion a Ray or Colored Light that is very much needed right now on our earth; and as your bathing in these energies I want to take a couple of minutes and talk to you about what compassion really means from the point of view of Divine Mother and the higher realms.

As you move to awaken spiritually you begin to realize that what compassion means to you may not be considered compassion to unawakened people and I will give you an example.

A dear friend asked me to pray for a friend of hers whose brother was in the hospital, and she said "he's only 45 years old can you please pray for him?" "

When I went to pray for him what came to me was the body had deteriorated to the point where I certainly could pray for him- but the most compassionate way to do it was to send him to the light, because he really didn't have any more time left in the body, and praying for him to stay in the body would have not been a compassionate way but it would have been a painful way to hold him attached to the body and to prolong his agony. So what I did was that I went before Divine Mother and I said "Mother I offer you this man who's the brother of a friend of a friend, but you know all your children, and I offer him to you."

I wrote back to my friend and I said I will pray for him but please know that it is in his best interest to move on, because a window has opened for him to go to Higher Realms; to his next job and his next incarnation. His next soul mission has already been appointed and lined up, and it is best if he uses this portal that's opening for him right now, to glide into the light and leave; rather than stay behind and agonize in this body and prolong the agony for himself and his loved ones.

Within 24 hours she wrote back and said that the young man died, early the next morning. Then I went in to send him greater light, and making sure that he embraced all of his future possibilities.

Now to me, that's ultimate compassion and I understand for a mother for a sister for a brother, to see their sibling, child leave the body is agonizing and very hard to take, but sometimes the true compassion comes from being able to see what's right. I give you this example and a couple of others that I want to give you because it's really important that we realize, especially since as we move towards these more intense energies through the end of the year; and as the new year opens up, it is no news to any of us that; earth is going through her own changes; and earth shifts are happening around us, and a lot of times there is a level of migration of souls from this body to becoming souls moving into higher purpose.

The compassionate way for us to look at situations like this is for us to know that Divine Mother really knows what's best for all of us and to trust her. That she will not take anyone's life unless she knows she can offer them something better; and even though it may be painful for those of us who are left behind to see our loved ones leave.

It is also important for us to realize that a greater, more important, bigger play is unfolding. And we don't know everyone's role in that play. We only know the small part that we play in this third dimension which is only the tip of the iceberg. So the compassionate way is always to take one step back and do what Linda May Campos in her blogs for our sister site, Indigo's Awaken describes as impartial observation, or I call the witness.

When we go into the consciousness of the witness, first of all, we remove ourselves from the situation so we don't fall prey to the depths of emotions. Because when we get too involved in the emotions it becomes harder for us to hold space for the people who need help, people who come to us for help.

I'll give you an example of another dear friend who is now tasting the fruits of becoming an empty nester in the sense that she just took her daughter to go to college. The first few days were the honeymoon phase, until the actual classes started and her daughter became frustrated and overwhelmed. So she called her mom in that place of agony saying, "I don't know how to cope, this is too much work. I don't know where to begin." So I happened to be calling right after she had received the call and her voice was out of sorts and I asked her, what's the matter?" And she said, "I've been beside myself because I had a conversation with my daughter who called me from college and I feel the energy in my body and all I want to do is cry."

So we had this conversation back and forth and I tried to explain that when she goes into the emotions- feeling her daughter's emotion, and identifying as an empath with those emotions, she's not helping her daughter. Nor is she able to conduct her own very busy life. Interestingly she completely agreed with me and furthermore she said, "I know, I know all about it and I have been working on myself to not fall into this energy, but I don't know why I feel the way I do. I feel this tension though out my body and I feel that sense of helplessness that my daughter was feeling."

So together we went back to the energies of compassion and the light of compassion and we went into a meditation and I suggested she calls Divine Mother and the next thing was, I had to leave that conversation on the phone but I received a message from her saying, she feels much better and she has been praying to Divine Mother and meditating and sending healing to her daughter; which is also what I did even though I was not asked to do anything; but it seemed the right thing to do by sending both mother and child the love of Divine Mother and praying to Divine Mother.

How to Pray with Divine Mother-I want to tell you a little bit about when you go to pray to Divine Mother. Be careful when you pray to Divine Mother. Be careful in the sense that sometimes when we love someone and we think the compassionate way is to tell Mother what we think should be done and then asking it as if we're telling a friend and saying it like we know what's best for the people.

Sometimes we tend to forget that what we think is the right thing for the people that are our loved ones, may not necessarily be the highest and best, and even though Divine Mother constantly tells us that she wants to know what we think should be done, and that's very compassionate of her to want to know our best and highest desires, our utmost needs and desires from the core of our hearts.

Even though she gives us permission, she encourages us to do that, and even though it is good to consider Divine Mother and the Divine Feminine creative force as our friends, our loved ones, there's a fine line between taking that and then telling them what to do, and taking that and then going to the mentor, going to someone who has much greater powers than we do.

It's one thing to; let's say in the case of this friend, going to Mother and saying, Mother I ask you to help my child. I would like to see her let go of her tension. I would like to see her able to cope. I would like her to release the feeling of helplessness, but you know the deep core of her being, you know what is best, you do all of that which you feel is the right thing, and if what I say is right then you do this and more.

Always add the “and more, what you know is best.” Always! Whether you are asking Mother for yourselves or you're asking Mother for other people, places, or things, or even when you are praying for peace on earth, and for the collective consciousness of souls; even when you are praying for stray animals or for extinct species or for your little crystal that falls and chips its tip. And believe me; you can call Divine Mother and Cosmic Guardian of Compassion. That crystal, offer it to Divine Mother; it can receive the healing and heal itself. Even though it may have taken many hundreds of thousands of years for it to form, the healing can be instantaneous and it can be restored to a state of where it can be of perfect use for you even with its chip, and then you will see under a magnifying glass over time the tiny tiny little crystals begin to form much faster than any scientist would expect. Those are the phenomenon's that are happening to us as we pray and work with these crystal structures or as we pray for the animal kingdom.

This reminds me of the example of yet another friend of a friend with her pet who knew something was wrong with her pet and started dowsing the pain out the pet's intestine and stomach region, and even though the pet ultimately developed an issue and ended up having a small surgery, what the vet was saying was he can't believe how easy everything went given that it was a major operation and we can't believe how fast she's improving.

Use of Pendulums-The point is, healing and prayers work and using your pendulum to send the healing to the specific area is one way to focus the energies, and it is called dowsing. In other words you use your pendulum to dowse good healing energy in, and dowse negative ailing energy out. In actual fact you do the reverse. First you dowse out the ailment, then you dowse in the healing. It's an interesting way to do it especially if you are drawn to dowsing, or to using crystals for healing. You can do it through a pendulum which usually has a crystalline structure with a point, or you can use it with certain crystals like a Clear Quartz or a Selenite Wand.

You can use your crystalline structures when you go to pray with Divine Mother or with Goddess of Compassion. And the way you do it, you bring your favorite crystals and you hold them in whatever formation you usually hold them to perform your healing. In that way, the energy of the crystal becomes magnified while you're praying to Divine Mother and it will carry the healing energies that you are requesting from Divine Mother, and it will spread that energy into your environment and then you can use it for healing of your own body, or the bodies of others.

On our site we have both Clear Quartz, amethyst, and Selenite in various shapes and sizes. These days Selenite is becoming more and more popular in the form of selenite wands or selenite chards which are natural. Natural smaller pieces that are carved out of the large ones. The wands are smoothed out and clear surfaced and they have a point, it's all done by a machine but it still carries the energy. The shards usually are natural and they don't have points and they can be used for clearing the energy. They do shed a little bit. So selenite is a good medium for using in conjunction with your prayers and going before Divine Mother.

So I now leave you with Divine Mother's message and I ask you as you perform this meditation through the month of September until we come back together in October, please pray for earth and earth's changes.

Please pray for all the people, all the places, all the things, and for the mineral kingdom and all the crystals to come to the rescue of humankind. For the animal kingdom and all the animals, birds, creatures in the sea, the mammals, that they can withstand all the changes and that they can be the bridge for all of us.

Pray for the plants and for their ability to hold their roots together and continue to provide sustenance for all of us, and also pray for Mother Earth to go through the changes that are happening around us with ease and grace. Pray that she is gentle to herself and pray that she learns all the lessons that she needs to learn, and again, these are our ideas of what is the right thing. You can always say to Divine Mother, "Mother give me the thoughts what to pray for to be helpful to you, to be helpful to earth and whatever I'm asking you the request because in my limited way that's the best I can do.

You do this and better or you do what's better in the grand scale you are used to as you look at every possible alternate reality and all that's ahead of us and decide what's best for the tiniest of creatures, to the biggest of creatures which is Mother Earth herself, and you know everyone's heart."

The best thing for all of us that makes our lives much easier is if we can reach that place of complete trust, and from my own personal experience I can tell you in occasions where I put my one hundred percent trust in Divine Mother's hands, things happen with much ease and grace and the flow of creative force is much easier, much faster. It happens with ease and grace. It happens with complete love and nurturance and it's a win-win.

I wish for all of you a win-win in the month of September as we reach the last quarter before winter and Winter Solstice and I invite you to come join us to receive this gift from Divine Mother now, and for fall equinox on the twentieth of September.

Let us take a deep breath as Divine Mother joins us

Meditation to receive Cosmic Guardian of Compassion With Divine Mother

150722DIMO-gf

My Beloved Children of Light I am your very own Divine Mother.

I ask you to envision yourselves standing before the Throne of Divine Mother. You have anchored your energies into the Earth. The tree trunk, the tree roots, the tree branches and leaves are in place. You have bathed in the Pool of Creation. You have received Energies from all the Cosmic Guardians and the Deities that you love. You have reached the fountain in the center. Bathed in the purest and pristine of Lights in the Pool of Creation walked upon the bridge, walked onto the boardwalk and the promenade, stood before your Angels, received your ceremonial robes and your scepter, and now you are standing before Divine Mother's Throne.

Envision Divine Mother in her ceremonial robes pouring her Copper Gold Light onto your body and your being. Envision the Copper Gold Light emanating from Divine Mother to your body, pulling you to Divine Mother as you kneel before her, right by her Throne, right at her feet, and as I place my hands, both on your forehead, left and right covering your temple. The palms of my hands touching your 3rd Eye, my fingers touching your Crown, pouring the Copper Gold into the head cavity, pouring it down your body, reaching to the bottom of your feet and your Earth Crust Chakra, down the Shaft of Light to the Earth Core. The Energy moving up to the Lotus of your Crown, reaching into the Lotus and shooting up the Antahkarana Cord to your Soul Star Chakra, and up the Antahkarana Cord all the way to the Pool of Creation, and reaching from your Physical Body to your 5 Body System, every layer imbued with Copper Gold, reaching into your Light Body. Your Light Body cocooned with Turquoise Blue and the Tornado of Turquoise Blue established around the cocoon.

I now ask you to notice that I send you the Light of Compassion through my hands, through my body, in the same way, pouring into your 3rd Eye, your Crown, your head, your Physical Body, down the Shaft of Light to the Core of the Earth. Up the Antahkarana Cord to the Pool of Creation, expanding to your 5 Body System, all the layers of your 5 Body, expanding further into your Light Body, with a Cocoon of Turquoise Blue encasing the Pearlescent Cream with a drop of Peach that shines and shimmers with the Light. And you bathe in the Light of Compassion, and as your body fully absorbs the Light of Compassion I ask you to become aware that standing by my side as you kneel in front of me is the Cosmic Guardian of Compassion. A tall Cosmic Guardian with very soft features. Features very close to what Lady Quan Yin looks like. She's wearing robes of that color, a very Light Peach, Creamy Peach with sparkles and shimmers, and she has a headdress of a very light peach pearls, a very ornate headdress. At her feet see a Divine Mother Aspect forming. The Divine Mother Aspect will become the Being who will receive the Energies of Compassion and steps them down from the Cosmic Guardian of Compassion.

I am going to ask you to walk with me stepping away from the Throne as we stand to the left of the Throne and observe together this phenomenal as Cosmic Guardian of Compassion takes her seat upon my Throne with the Divine Mother Aspect at her feet, while she imbues that Divine Mother Aspect with the Light of Compassion and creates an exact replica of her own Signature Energy with the Divine Mother Aspect that looks just like her, wearing the same ceremonial robes and the same headdress..

Once the Energies are fully anchored into the Body and the Being of the Divine Mother Aspect, I am going to invite you to step into the Body and Being of the Divine Mother Aspect and sit at the feet of the Cosmic Guardian of Compassion while she remains seated upon my Throne, and allow her to place both palms of her hands on your forehead and the fingers on your Crown Chakra. She will begin to give you the Creamy Peach Light of Compassion that has been stepped down from the Cosmic Guardian of Compassion prepared by the Divine Mother Aspect. I will stand behind you, and I will continue to send the Copper Gold Light together with the same Creamy Peach Shimmering Light of Compassion from behind, magnifying the Energies as the Cosmic Guardian sits over the Divine Mother Aspect, and you inside the body of the Divine Mother Aspect.

Recap and Instructions for daily Meditation-I ask you every morning as you arise to imagine yourselves in this position. Imagine yourselves inside the Body and Being of Divine Mother Aspect of Compassion kneeling at the feet of Cosmic Guardian of Compassion who is seated upon Divine Mother's Throne with Divine Mother standing behind you. Cosmic Guardian of Compassion has her hands over the top of the head of Divine Mother who's receiving the Divine Mother Energies together with the Compassion Energies and translating them to you. It pours into your forehead, into your Crown, into your body, your 5 Body System Light Body as you rest inside the Body and Being of Divine Mother Aspect of Cosmic Guardian of Compassion, and your very own Divine Mother stands sending the same Energies mixed with the Copper Gold to seal you in the love and nurturance of Divine Mother and the Compassion Energies of the Cosmic Guardian of Compassion.

Keep this image at hand. Keep this image in your mind's eye from this moment on. Every day and remind yourself of it, and put yourself in this grid as many times during the day as you can member until we all come back together and repeat this exercise in the Inner Circle.

I hold you in my own heart in great gratitude for what each and every one of you are accomplishing on behalf of the Cosmic Guardians, on behalf of the Beloved Deities, on behalf of the Divine Feminine.

I am proud and humbled and I stand loving you from the Core of my Heart.

I Am your very own Divine Mother. So It Is.
