Hello everyone this is Jim and welcome to the 7-07-2016 Gateway Portal Channeling. I thank you all for your service. I thank you all for being here and participating in this event, whether you're here on the live call or you listen to the audio later, I thank you.

Take a deep breath and we will begin. Visualize that you're standing on top of the great red rock, Ayers Rock in Central Australia, also called Uluru. There is a very sacred and ancient vortex, and we start our grounding exercise standing, imagining ourselves standing, on top of it. And we also imagine that everyone who's participating in this call, whether it's live or whether it's listened to at a later time, since time is irrelevant to these meditations, find themselves standing on Uluru with you, be aware of their presence, be aware of their energy as we together all form a group energy.

As you become relaxed imagine that you're sliding into Uluru, you're sliding into the rock. Around you is the Clay Red colored Light that is Uluru, Uluru's nurturing and clearing and cleansing Light. As you feel yourself cleared activate your Hara Line, which is a Pillar of Light below the bottoms of your feet that extends all the way from your feet and tailbone to the center of Mother Earth where there is a Core Crystal. See that Pillar illuminated. And send from the bottoms of your feet; imagine you're sending your roots down around the Hara Line all the way to the center of the Earth wrapping themselves around the Core Crystal and holding you tight to Mother Earth, grounding you to Mother Earth.

Now we call on the Goddesses of the Divine Feminine. You may call the ones you know by name to wrap themselves around you and send their roots down, Divine Mother, Victory, Mother of the Universe, Mother of the Cosmos, Guardian of Divine Plan and Great Silent Watcher all surrounding you and sending their roots down around yours to hold you tight to the Core Crystal, providing more grounding. And then the final layer is the tree trunk that we imagine being established around us. This tree sends its roots down around all of the roots, all the way to the Core Crystal providing the last layer of firm grounding to Mother Earth. And we see the cylinder of the tree trunk around us and imagine that it extends itself all the way up through the realms to spread into the Pool of Creation where the branches and leaves of the tree fill the Pool of Creation, connecting us from the Core Crystal with you as the catalyst, making a connection all the way up to the Pool of Creation and back down again to the Core Crystal.

Imagine that around this tree trunk, the bark of the tree trunk, imagine that there's green moss growing on it, Emerald Green colored Light, the Light of Healing & Abundance which bathes everything that goes up and down within this tree trunk in that Light. And around that you see the Plum colored Light, Divine Mother's Plum colored Light of Rejuvenation around that. And imagine a Tornado of Turquoise Blue Light spinning around that reaching all the way from the Core Crystal to the top of the tree trunk in the Pool of Creation. And we imagine the Cosmic Guardian of Stability with her Dark Reddish Blue Light, the same color as the outside of an eggplant, imagine that Light on the outside around Great Silent Watcher's Turquoise Blue.

With those Lights in place, now focus on the Core Crystal and see the Amber colored Light which is the Life Force Energy of Mother Earth building up in the Core Crystal, and as we see it we call on our Beloved Goddess Gaia, the Deity of Mother Earth, to come forth and to allow us to celebrate her, give her our love and our gratitude to participate in this meditation. And we see the Amber colored Light move up from the Core Crystal, through the root system we've created, all the way up to the bottoms of our feet, and come up through the feet, legs, into the body providing clearing and cleansing and healing as we let this Amber colored Light fill the Chakras of the body, fill our 5 Body System and our Light Body and move all the way up through our Crown Chakra and then pour out into the cylinder of the tree trunk, and move all the way up to the Pool of Creation where it pours into the Pool of Creation.

Now imagine Great Silent Watcher standing and pouring her Turquoise Blue with an urn on her shoulder. She pours Gold mixed with the Turquoise Blue into the Pool of Creation, Mother of the Universe pouring her Vibrant Pink & Gold, Mother of the Cosmos her Vibrant Amber colored Light mixed with Gold, Divine Mother pouring her Golden Brown Light, Guardian of Divine Plan pouring her Warm Orange & Gold Light and Guardian of Compassion pouring her Beige & Peach colored Light into the Pool of Creation and Goddess Victory also pouring her Light, her Champagne colored Light mixed with Gold into the Pool of Creation.

All these Lights pour down through the tree trunk to our Crown Chakra, through the Crown into our body, filling our Chakras, filling our 5 Body System Light Body with the Cosmic Energies, and then moving down all the way through the root system and the Hara Line to the Core Crystal, making one trip down, mixing with the Light at the Core Crystal, the Life Force of Mother Earth. And as all these Energies now mix together they move back up all the way through the root system to the bottoms of the feet, into the body, up through the Crown, all the way up to the Pool of Creation, mixing once again, being rejuvenated by the Energies of all these Great Beings, and once again the Lights pour down through the tree trunk, to the Crown, mixing, clearing our bodies, and moving down through the bottoms of our feet all the way to the Core Crystal.

This time as they mix together and they move back up, we let our consciousness move with the Light, moving all the way up through the tree trunk to the Pool of Creation and you find yourself in the Pool of Creation. And you look along the edges and you see each one of these Great Beings and all of the Deities, the female Deities from the Cosmic Council of the Divine Feminine, along with those from Mother Earth, Sanat Kumara, Christ Maitreya, Master Jesus, Mother Mary all standing on the edge, and we pull ourselves out and stand next to the two Angels that have our personal trays in their hands where our ceremonial robes are, we place those on.

The other tray has our Scepter of Power which we take in both hands and we turn to face Divine Mother's Throne, and we see her in the distance sitting on her Throne. On either side of her, our Beloved Goddess Shakti and Lord Shiva, and standing behind Divine Mother - Great Silent Watcher. And we all together glide towards her Throne and we find ourselves standing before Divine Mother. She's pouring her Golden Brown Light which holds within it the Copper Gold Light onto us, and she stands, raises her arms and we're pulled into her bosom surrounded by the Golden Brown Light of our own Beloved Divine Mother. Take a moment, feel the Golden Brown Light, feel the presence of all these Beings, feel the presence of Divine Mother. I'll give you a moment to say whatever you would like to say to any of these Beings who are all gathered around Divine Mother's Throne now, and the next voice you'll hear will be that of our Beloved Nasrin. So It Is.

Nasrin begins: 10:41

Hello everyone and welcome to 7-7. Let's remember that this is the month we celebrate Guru Purnima, a celebration of going to the beloved spiritual teachers and masters and honoring them. So to honor Divine Mother and the entourage of the Deities that we work with I suggest that we perform a ceremony tonight in offering gratitude and love to Divine Mother.

Imagine yourselves standing before the Sacred Fire and take a moment to invite your loved ones and that includes Mother Earth herself in the form of a suspended miniature globe right above the Sacred Fire as we offer our love and gifts to Divine Mother into the Sacred Fire. The fumes of fire and the love we pour into the fire can reach up and heal our planet, all creatures that depend on our planet for their life, and all generations past and future that will live or have lived on the planet. Invite your loved ones and invite the miniature aspect of Earth to be suspended up.

Now imagine that we petition Great Silent Watcher to come forward and hold her Scepter of Power above all of us and start pouring her beautiful Turquoise Blue Light from her Scepter into the Sacred Fire and bathe Earth in the healing Light of her Turquoise Blue Signature Energy, the Life Force that gives life to everything manifest in our creation. This Turquoise Blue is the Life Force of Great Silent Watcher. She is the Being who held the thought form of creating this entire solar system and then took that thought form and pulled it into her bosom and sat on it and sat with it for over 2.2 billion years until it was ready to become fully manifest, fully physical. It came from the non manifest, non physical to physically manifest form. So the Turquoise Blue is the Life Force from the Source. The Source of all life that everything, everyone, every place on this Earth experiences, the 5 Elements are alive because of it. The air we breathe is alive and gives us its Life Force because of it. That Turquoise Blue is pouring into the Sacred Fire.

Now in the company of all your loved ones imagine that Angels bring trays with sacred flowers and sacred fragrances, aromatic fragrances that have healing potencies, and they put a tray in front of each one of us. And we take either a whole flower or take petals from a flower, dip it into various aromatic oils and fragrances that are on the tray, and then hold it in your hand in front of your heart and make a wish, what you wish to offer Divine Mother. It can be that you wish for her to have joy and happiness in everything she does. It can be that you wish for her to be happy with each of us and all that we do, and that she would guide us to serve her and take her closer to herself and allow us to gain more wisdom, more knowledge and more power to serve. Each time you make an intention you hold it in front of your heart, you pour your love from the heart into the petals of the flowers that you have dipped in the sacred aromatic oils, and then you throw it into the fire.

If you run out of thoughts and ideas say, now I offer you whatever makes you happy. I offer you whatever is on your mind. I offer you health and healing in your body. I offer you peace in your emotions. I offer you elevation of all your ideas, completion of all your projects with your complete joy and celebration, removal of all obstacles from your path. I offer you and ask for you to have victory in everything you touch, for every project and plan to unfold to the best of your imagination. For every one of your children to please you above and beyond limitation, and add your own thoughts, I offer you every thought I think. I offer you every food I eat. I offer you every breath I take. I offer you every action. I offer you every smile and every tear. I offer you every moment of joy and satisfaction. I offer you every moment of grief and sorrow. I offer you my experience of life and all the ups and downs of it. I offer to wash away your pain. I offer to take the sour taste of life and replace it with a sweetness of satisfaction and joy. I offer you gratitude for all you are and all you do in my life. I offer you gratitude for your presence in the lives of my loved ones. I offer you gratitude for being alive in this lifetime and serving as a general in your Army of Light. I offer you all the merits I gain so that you can use these merits to accomplish more on behalf of all creatures, for the healing of Earth, for the return of peace on Earth, for the return of prosperity to Earth. For all the gems to love you and give you their potencies and healing qualities so you can use that healing to accelerate the healing of Earth and all creatures, I offer you all the flowers so that they bring joy to your heart, and for that joy to become magnified and spread through the 5 Elements, become contagious and penetrate into the hearts of everyone. We then can celebrate the joy you give to us with your presence here on Earth. I offer to petition all your Beloved Deities to come and serve you and help you in succeeding in all of your plans to serve the Light and benefit Earth and all creatures.

I invite Goddess Gaia to come so you can shower her with your love so she can heal the Earth. I ask Goddess Gaia in this day of celebration, in the days in this month until we reach to the full moon where all the Energies are magnified, that she would be the catalyst of channeling joy, celebration, resources, people, places and things that serve you, and to distribute that to all of us who are also in your service so together with her and all the resources that she withdraws from Earth and magnifies through her own Being we can give to you and magnify what you do our Beloved Divine Mother.

I offer to wash your hands with these aromatic oils, with the petals of these flowers. I offer to garland you around your body, around your neck so it can release the pain from your body, the fatigue from your mind and your heart, raise your soul in joy to see that we all love you and we all celebrate you.

Keep picking those flower petals, flowers, dipping them in the aromatic oils and offering them in the Sacred Fire, and see the fire jump up to receive the gift and to turn it into sacred ashes as the smell and aroma of the oil and the petals of the flowers spreads in the air and brings healing to the 5 Elements. See that Great Silent Watcher is pouring her Turquoise Blue Light into the Sacred Fire and magnifying everything that we do.

See now that the Topaz Blue Cosmic Guardian of Protection is pouring Powdery Light of Topaz Blue into the Sacred Fire. It mixes with the Turquoise and it pours down; it creates a dome around all of us. See Silent Watchers and Angelic Watchers who protect the dome and create small bubbles that come together to make the dome stronger, they come in hordes, they come in hosts, they spread their wings and they support us by covering every inch, every iota of this space between all of us and the dome with their presence and with the Turquoise Blue Topaz Blue Light. The Light of Protection, the Light of Fearlessness, the Life Force that gives life and magnifies that life in everything, in everyone everywhere.

Imagine now Goddess Victory coming in and pouring from her Rod of Power the Platinum and Frosted Blue Light of Victory. The stuff that makes everything it touches victorious. The stuff that makes everyone it touches victorious, the Frosted Blue and Platinum Light of Victory. Goddess Victory stands with a big smile towering over everyone, very tall, very powerful holding her very long Rod of Power illuminating it and pouring Liquid Platinum Light that radiates a Frosted Blue from the Platinum Shimmers. Frosted Blue as if you take very light blue colored water and put it in the freezer and then it gets a frosting like the color you see from an iceberg, its White but it has a Frosted Blue colored Light emanating from it. In this case with Goddess Victory it's Platinum Shimmers shining through the Frosted Blue. Goddess Victory blessing everything we offer.

Now notice Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan walking in still taller than everyone else with a Warm Orange Light emanating from her body and her robes as she extends her hands up in the air and it reaches so high up that we're not able to see how far it goes, and then from the depth of the skies above, from the inner heavens way above us she pulls in the best plans, the best projects, the best thought forms, designs and ideas from various realities, from various parts of the universe to bring it to our Earth for the benefit of all creatures, also to make it available to Divine Mother so she can take the Life Force of these highest alternate events and circumstances and pin them to our individual realities so we can benefit from them, so we can be the catalyst of magnifying those intentions of Divine Mother and manifesting those events in our own individual lives and in the lives of our loved ones, that allow us to serve the highest and the best.

Breathe that Warm Orange Light that is now pouring down a Powdery Warm Orange Light like a cloud, like a cotton candy cloud coming down and covering everything from inside the dome, pouring down and reaching like a gold leaf except it's a Warm Orange shine that starts forming over each individual person and pouring into the Sacred Fire, and when it burns it has a smell like the smell of bark, fresh bark, a little bit of maple, a little bit of cinnamon filling the air. The smell of fresh autumn leaves in the bonfire.

Then notice that Divine Mother picks up some of the ashes and holds it in front of Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan who then pours the Liquid version of that Warm Orange Light into her hands where the sacred ashes turn into a paste and the color of the paste is warm orange. And then Divine Mother comes forward as each of us imagine that she's standing in front of us individually and she will rub it on our chests, on our Chakras, on the front and back of our body, on our throats, on our faces, on top of our head, the palms of the hands, the bottom of the feet, over and over in circular motion releasing what no longer serves us, absorbing and directing goodness, love, light in the highest qualities in the place of all that is released, and there's a cooling sensation that goes with the rubbing of the paste as the paste touches your skin and your skin begins to absorb it, thirsty of the Life Force it offers, and imagine that we continue to make our sacred offerings.

Now the Angels have arrived and they have trays full of gems, and we pick up the gems. Imagine all the gems that you like, rubies and emeralds, diamonds, pearls, coral, ornamental beads made of wood, made of bones, made of sacred metals, gold, silver, platinum, pewter, copper and imagine offering these items into the Sacred Fire as we offer our gratitude to Divine Mother, to Great Silent Watcher, to Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan, to all the Deities present.

Now imagine Divine Mother going back to the Sacred Fire as we all make our offerings of gems, and this time she takes another handful of sacred ashes and takes it before Lady Victory and she asks that Victory pour her Light of Victory, the Platinum Light with Frosted Blue to make a paste. Paste is a Platinum colored paste but it radiates and emanates the Frosted Blue.

Divine Mother approaches each of us individually and we each have the experience simultaneously together imagining that Mother is standing with each of us individually and rubbing, once again starting from the chest, from the upper chest going up to the throat and the face and the Third Eye and the Crown and then going down to the Cosmic Heart, Personal Heart, Seat of the Soul, Solar Plexus, Sacral Plexus, Root Chakra, moving down the thighs, knees, calves, feet, pointing the Energy to the Earth Crust Chakra and the Hara Line, and sending it directly to the Core of Earth intending for Mother Earth to be victorious and to receive the Light of Victory. And while she's busy doing this imagine that the Angels appear again and this time they're bringing us food in the form of nuts and fruits, grains and roots, vegetables and berries, and we make offerings of all that is on the tray, and Divine Mother goes for the third time to the Sacred Fire and takes a handful of the sacred ashes and brings it to Goddess Gaia and asks Gaia to add her Signature Energy. And as you take these sacred offerings that are all coming from Earth, especially the food, the grain, the fruit, the berries, the vegetables, think that it all comes because Gaia has willed it for us. She has opened the flood gates of abundance to all of us, to all the creatures. And see that Goddess Gaia takes from her own heart these Fiery Orange Amber Tongues of Flames and pours it onto the sacred ashes, and the fire starts working its way into the powdery ashes to turn it into a Amber Orange colored paste, close to the one that Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan gave us except this one is more colorful, more vibrant, whereas the Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan's was a Warm Burnt Orange, this is a vibrant colorful Yellowy Orange, like the skin of a vibrant orange.

Goddess Gaia asks Divine Mother to add her own Energy to it. She asks Goddess Gaia for help, and in return Goddess Gaia asks Mother to give her Energy. So now after Gaia has added her Light, Divine Mother pours her own in the form of a vibrant Golden Brown Liquid Light. So the Golden Brown and the Vibrant Orange kind of mix and add to that Amber colored Light which has become the Signature Energy of Goddess Gaia. The Fiery Amber colored Light is now enhanced and together they walk towards us and we each imagine as if we are the only recipients, but everyone simultaneously has an image of Divine Mother standing in front, and Goddess Gaia standing behind, and both of them rubbing simultaneously in circular motion from the top of the body, starting again from the upper chest, going upward first to the top of the head and then going downward, down the torso, down the legs into the feet and then pointing it to go deep into the crust of the Earth and the Core of the Earth so the blessing can reach to the Core of the Earth.

While this is going on be mindful that these sacred ashes are sending their Energy to the miniature aspect of Earth. Be mindful that Goddess Victory sends her Light through her Rod directly to the globe. Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan sending her Warm Orange Liquid Light, Goddess Gaia and Divine Mother sending their combined Light that is a Vibrant Amber Fiery Light to the miniature aspect of Earth and letting it wash the entire globe from the top to the bottom, and then the Sacred Fire rising up again and sending the fumes to go up from the bottom and base Earth, all the way up, one coming down from the north pole to the south pole, the other going up from the south pole to the north pole.

Now become aware that Great Silent Watcher is pouring the Turquoise Blue Light and the Topaz Blue Cosmic Guardian of Protection pouring her Topaz Blue Light in Shining Shimmering Powdery Light that is now spinning and swirling inside the entire dome, and we all breathe it into our lungs, and it gets absorbed from the surface of our skin, and it moves from the surface of the skin into our 5 Body System Light Body adding the finishing touches and the final layer. We'll take a few seconds to offer our final gratitude, and to envision that all members of our entourage, our loved ones that are invited to participate, all the Beings we have brought and all the Beings we have invited, as well as those who have come in our names are all receiving these Energies and enjoying the profusion of Lights.

As we close our session today with great gratitude and joy I ask you to remember that the full moon falls on the 19th of this month, so we have around two weeks to build up to the full moon with putting intentions and offering gratitude, and then the following two weeks as we go into the receding moon you can ask for the release, or anything that comes to the surface which you know you no longer need. You may also take this opportunity and go lay down, and invite all these Beings, especially Goddess Victory, Divine Mother, Goddess Gaia, Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan, Mother of Universe, Mother of Cosmos, Great Silent Watcher and Topaz Blue Goddess to perform a healing on you to release everything that no longer serves you and to replace it with all the things that will accelerate you and make you victorious. May this be the best Guru Purnima yet and everyone that follows gets better than this, every year. May we stay together and serve with greater Light and magnify the impact of all that Divine Mother does. In her Light and her blessing, Happy Purnima to all of you, So It Is.

Jim concludes: Thank you Nasrin, thank you Divine Mother; I thank all of you and all of the Cosmic Guardians of the Divine Feminine, the Cosmic Council of the Divine Feminine, until next month. So It Is. Goodnight.
