

PTE MS: Meet Your Guardian Angel

Session 2 Meditation Transcript

Hello everyone and welcome.

Let us take a deep breath together on this beautiful auspicious moment of togetherness. Feel the energy of Love permeating everywhere.

Let your Guardian Angel stand behind you and fill you with Light, tower over you and wrap you in its arms, its wings.

Let go of the hands and stand on your own and visualize that everyone takes a step backward to make the circle bigger.

We call upon the energies of our beloved Divine Mother to pour down into the larger circle and we invite and invoke Divine Mother to call upon her specially dispensed Guardian Angel of Love and Protection. On the occasion of 2-2-2011 Divine Mother gave us a special dispensation where, from the Pool of Creation beyond the 122nd dimension of reality, the Golden Light of Creation from the Pool of Creation brought forth a series of Guardian Angels. These are not Guardian Angels who live in the Seven Heavens because the Seven Heavens only stretch up to the 62nd dimension of reality. These are celestial and cosmic guardians that are beyond the realms of the Seven Heavens. They come from the Pool of Creation especially designed and created through Divine Mother's intercession to guard and protect us while Earth and all the planetary bodies in our solar system and other planetary bodies in our galaxy and universe are going through changes.

In a moment I will talk to you about the changes and why these angels are necessary. But now let us set ourselves in a grid so while they're beaming their Light and Love to us we can bathe in their energies and then I will tell you that story.

Specially Dispensed Guardian Angel

Divine Mother's energies are creating a bubble around us. Her presence is in the very center of our circle. She is now commanding her specially dispensed Guardian Angels of Love and Protection to come forth. You are going to see that there is one of these greatly illumined beings for each of us around the circle. So there is now another circle that is forming inside of our circle. Each of us is now facing a specially dispensed Guardian Angel of Love and Protection. From the center of this circle Divine Mother and the entourage of great beings – Victory, Liberty, Glory, Veyga, Venus, Gaia, Isis will send their Light to penetrate into the circle of the specially dispensed Guardian Angels whose backs are to the center of the circle, whose faces are facing each of us.

So now you are sandwiched between your specially dispensed Cosmic Guardian Angel who is standing in front of you and your personal Guardian Angel who has been sent from the Seven Heavens with a dispensation to be in guardianship of you, assisting and guiding in tasks relating to your worldly attainments as well as your spiritual attainments. Your personal Guardian Angel is standing behind you holding you in its bosom. Your Cosmic Guardian Angel is standing in front of you facing you.

As Divine Mother and the Cosmic Goddesses start beaming their Light to the circle of the Cosmic Guardian Angels that Light begins to emanate to each of us. That Light can begin with a profusion of various colored Lights. It can begin with Pure White Light and it can change from Pure White Light to various other Lights depending on our individual needs. What is so special about this circle is that every individual need and desire of each one of us can pave the path for all of us to receive. So if one of us needs healing of the heart, another needs healing of the emotions, another one greater focus on a project, another one greater creativity, another one greater connectivity to Earth, every one of us will receive all of those energies.

The specially dispensed Guardian Angel from the cosmic realms holds both hands up and we are facing the palms of its hands. This is a huge angelic being much bigger than your personal Guardian Angel, tower presence, beaming various colored Light. The Light can be starburst like an opal with all colors. It can be Pure White Light emitting pure Light and then changing to various colored Lights . . . Green for healing of the broken heart and emotions, Aquamarine Blue for empowerment – healing of lack of power and all fears concerning empowerment, Ruby Red for connectivity, bright Orange Light for creativity, Lavender Light for focus and spiritual attainment, deep Purple Light for release of dross, Golden-Pink Light to bathe the heart, Gold Light to raise the vibration, Platinum to connect with Divine Mother energies, Copper-Gold to bring special dispensations from Divine Mother, Cobalt Blue for communication and connection to one another, Pure White Light for the return of Purity and Innocence.

Breathe and bathe and visualize all of these colors, sometimes combinations and profusions all at the same time.

Breathe and bathe. I will tell you the story of these specially dispensed angelic beings that Divine Mother has called from the Pool of Creation and why they are here to protect us and why we need their protection.

We are high level initiates on the path of great spiritual attainment. Not just for ourselves but on behalf of the consciousness of all souls – human, animal, mineral, plant, sentient and non-sentient. We are also responsible for the consciousness of Mother Earth because we are considered the highest consciousness and the responsibility of all creation and all creatures lies upon the species of beings, species of souls, who are the highest consciousness. Everything follows the pattern that is created by the highest consciousness. It's very similar to the story of the Grandfather Clock. You have a hundred clocks in one room. The one with the most power will get every other clock and its pendulum to swing in rhythm with the great Grandfather Clock. It's a force that is the nature of our world, whether it is the force of gravity, the force of magnetism, the force of survival of the fittest, it is what it is. We may not have all the answers but we do know that this happens in nature as it happens in every species.

The trees that are most capable of acclimating themselves to that specific part of the forest take over. When you set a bunch of musical instruments and you begin to tune one, all the other instruments in the vicinity of that one begin to tune themselves in rhythm with the one that is being tuned up. Same applies to tuning forks. You start tapping a tuning fork and you have a bunch of tuning forks they all become activated.

It also happens in the celestial realms and the cosmic realms. The humming sound of the celestial vibration reverberates throughout the cosmic realms. The cosmic vibration reverberates throughout the cosmos. How does that relate to a specially dispensed cosmic angel and why are we in a position now to be receiving a cosmic being as our guardian? Why not suffice with our little Guardian Angel and it's not that little either. It's plenty big enough and plenty wise for us because these Guardian Angels in an instant can find out everything there is to find out about us. They can read us like an open book and in fact they can read us faster than any one of us can read a book. They can read the book of our life and all the lifetimes that are buried in our psyche in an instant. All they need is to be in our energy field because for them past, present and future are just chapters of the same book and they can read all the chapters simultaneously – and that's our personal Guardian Angel, not even the cosmic one.

So why the need for a Cosmic Guardian Angel? Why is Mother dispensing such a humongous energy for us? Because we are a point in the evolution of the world, our species and our planet where a long chain of connected loops come together and are being closed in. It's time for closure. We're at a point of completing a 2000 year cycle, within a 5000 year cycle, within a 13,000 year cycle, within a 26,000 year cycle, within a 52,000 year cycle, and so on and so on until you reach a 52 billion year cycle and ad infinitum.

So from infinity, from eternity, from the point where there is no beginning and no ending, in the Pool of Creation Divine Mother has brought to us these great Cosmic Beings so they can tune the entire orchestra, of which we are just one player, from the cosmic realm all the way to the planetary realm in this little planet of our which sits at a small dark corner on the edge of our universe.

What Divine Mother is doing is tuning each of us and our world – sublime as well as mundane – and the worlds that our world belongs to – the world that absorbs our world and the world that absorbs that world and so on. By tuning each of us from the cosmic point of view which is the equivalent of the Grandfather Clock she makes sure everything between us and the Pool of Creation is cleared and cleansed and tuned. She has a very smart plan in which we play a very important role although even our planet is a measly speck of dust when it comes to what role it plays.

I just read an article by a scientist who is completing his research and coming to realize that there are billions of stars - our Sun is a star surrounded by the planets in our solar system; we all are obedient to the rules of the star in our solar system – he has proven that there are billions of stars in our galaxy and that there are billions of galaxies in our universe. That may not be news to any of us but in this discovery he has found enough evidence from all of these stars with planetary bodies just like Earth that are capable of hosting life similar to us, planets capable of hosting various life forms. There are multiples of hundreds of thousands and millions of species when you add them all up from the simplest life forms to the largest – amoebas, worms, whales, elephants, giraffes.

What Divine Mother is doing is tuning us in rhythm with everything that's going on in the core of the cosmos so we don't continue to make the mistakes of the past, so we don't fall out of alignment with our divine plan. So we can influence our planet and in return, through our planet, we can influence our solar system and in return our solar system can influence the galaxy, the galaxy influence the universe, and so on.

She is bringing the energies of the utmost purity and the highest vibration and she is allowing the energies of these Cosmic Guardians to trickle down but not lose its intensity. It has to trickle down and be lowered in frequency otherwise in the presence of these beings we will burn out. Just as sitting in the Sun for long periods of time will burn our skin, sitting in any type of Light with a much higher frequency than ours would burn our circuits. So she has created an environment where these Cosmic Guardians are lowered in rhythm to the rhythm of the cosmos, then to the rhythm of the universe, then to the rhythm of our galaxy, then to the rhythm of our solar system and then the rhythm of our planet.

She says if you do nothing but call upon your personal Guardian Angel and commune through your personal Guardian Angel with the cosmic Guardian Angel then you're all set. If you do nothing in this lifetime, make a connection and build a bridge with your newly appointed Guardian Angel who has now returned from the celestial realms knowing exactly what your needs are and allow that young, vibrant Guardian Angel to commune, be the bridge, between you and this Cosmic Being.

So tonight, it is our job to first understand what it is we're doing and then each of you through your own free will have a choice to allow your personal Guardian Angel, this being who is standing behind you and has your back and will continue to have your back from here to eternity if you so wish it. As you grow this being grows and every once in a while this being will be given an opportunity to go back to its home to prepare itself to merge into a higher aspect of itself so that it can do you service. As you grow and gain momentum, gain wisdom, gain knowledge you need to have a Guardian Angel who knows more, who's capable of providing you with the guidance and assistance at the level you have grown to.

So there is a changing of the guard which happens every few years, every few decades, every few lifetimes. But, nevertheless, everything is recorded in your body and each of us is an open book to these beings. It is also recorded in the records that are kept by members of our own soul lineage. Some of the members are St. Germain for those who came on the 7th Ray, Quan Yin, Mother Mary, Master Jesus, Lady Nada for those of you on the 6th Ray of Service, Master Hilarion for those of you who have come on the Ray of Truth, Master El Morya for those of you who have come on the Ray of Divine Will, so on and so forth.

You may not know these names or these beings but these are highly illumined beings and masters who have lived life in human embodiment and graduated to become true masters and then ascended into the higher realms so they can become our guides. They are our guides and the masters we work with. When they want to awaken us they awaken us through our Guardian Angels. They command our Guardian Angels to do whatever it takes that is safe for us, that is the best course of action, that serves us in the mundane world and serves us in attaining our Divine Mission.

Now, to connect from this personal Guardian Angel to this cosmic Guardian Angel would provide us with a bridge not just to be able to accomplish what we have come to accomplish in this lifetime in the mundane and the sublime but what we have come to accomplish in all lifetimes past, present and future from one end of eternity to the other so there is no moment in time or space wasted, delayed, distracted, no part of our mission is aborted, no act is in vain. That is what Divine Mother wants for us and that is how important each of us is in the scheme of things.

On one hand our entire planet and solar system is just one in multiples of billions. On the other hand, this life force that we are and the level of wakeful consciousness that we carry around with us, and the ability to illumine the Light from the core of the cosmos is so valuable and so important that all these great cosmic beings are here to guard us and guide us. A special dispensation has been granted on our behalf for a cosmic being to become our Guardian Angel. And because the Light of this being is a lot too much for us they way we're going to be able to actually fully absorb without endangering ourselves is to let our personal Guardian Angel connect and commune and merge with this cosmic aspect providing a framework for us to work with. Then, when that communion has taken place we can join.

So, those of you who feel this is appropriate for you, of your own free will you may give permission. It would be a good time to ask, why would I not give permission? I don't have any reason why you wouldn't but this is a planet of free will. In this planet of free will we decided that we would do whatever it was that we wanted to do and many of us are like the little child who says "no" because it's an easier phonetic expression. How many babies grow to the point where they say, no. They love it. It's much more difficult to say 'yes' than to say 'no'. Those of us who have been around little toddlers know that at that point where they learn to say no, everything is a no. They love the sound of their own voices.

We're the same toddlers. You see, we came to this Earth and all aspects of God, all our Guardian Angels said, don't do this. You don't want to be doing this. You belong to the realms of Light not this darkness. Yes it's pretty, yes it's beautiful but you don't need to become so dense just to withstand the 3rd dimensional reality. Watch it from the 5th, watch it from the 7th, the 9th, the 12th, the 13th. Watch it from on high. Watch it from the 52nd. Don't go any further down. Don't even go to the Seven Heavens, that's even below your energy field. And we said, "No. No. No" like the toddler and we kept coming down, down, down to the point where nobody followed us. Then we just said no to each other until we got tired of it and made a mess of our world that it has become.

Fortunately for those of us who have awakened to remember that there is another word: Yes. Please. Help. We did remember and we did say, yes I do want my Guardian Angel to come and I do want my cosmic Guardian Angel to merge with my personal Guardian Angel and yes, I want to align my free will with Divine Will because my free will is not going to get me anywhere except a bigger mess.

Mother Earth is tired so she's not going to let us make the mess and absorb it anymore. And by us I don't mean you and I but the collective consciousness of everyone who is incarnate in this 3rd dimensional reality. This 3rd dimensional reality of Earth was not for us. It was for unconscious species of beings whose consciousness is in divine Light, divine bliss. The consciousness of birds is one collective consciousness that's how they know to migrate from point A to point B every winter and return from point B to point A every summer. All the mammals in the ocean, they do their migration or they stay put and stay together. Or even when they separate and when one is in danger the others know and help that one because their collective consciousness is one mind, one mind. They don't even realize that they are in different bodies because they are in one mind and that one mind doesn't say 'good' 'bad' that one mind says 'life', it beats with the rhythm of life.

One of the things that is really amazing to watch is the fish in the ocean with they do their dance. I've always watched it and wondered what makes them make those amazing moves, the shapes, what makes them do that? What level of communication is going on that we are unaware of? What are we as humankind, supposedly the highest intelligence on this planet, missing? How is it that we can't even communicate with each other? Mother with a child, child with a mother, father with a child, siblings with each other, teacher to the student, student to the teacher, co-worker to co-worker, boss to employee, employee to boss – what is it about us that cannot grasp this consistent performance that happens by other species?

What it is, is that we are illumined beings of Light and we had that same exact connection with our own Light when we were in our Light Bodies. We dropped our Light Bodies, we assumed these physical dense, dark bodies of matter that is so dense we can't hear the other person telepathically so we had to go and create language. Then we distorted the language so much that we don't say what we want to say but what we think we should be saying because it pleases the person. We do not do what we really want to do but what we think is the right action because our culture says so, because our environment says so, because it's expected behavior.

Is it any wonder that we lost our Divine Will? Is it any wonder that from the perspective of these greatly illumined Cosmic Beings we are the toddler that only knows how to say, 'no'?

So, is there any reason that any one of us should decide of our own free will to disregard all these gifts? The answer is no there isn't but, nevertheless, we have free will and we honor each other's free will.

[58.42] For those of you who would like to give permission for the communion between your cosmic Guardian Angel and your personal Guardian Angel, call your personal Guardian Angel to engulf you and pull you into its being; so suddenly you have merged into your personal Guardian Angel. Expand, let your skin expand, let your body become fully filled with the life force of your personal Guardian Angel. You're going to feel yourself grow. You're going to feel empowered. You're going to feel yourself inside of the body of your Guardian Angel. You're going to look through the eyes of your Guardian Angel at the world around you.

Now look into the eyes of this Cosmic Being towering over you inside your personal Guardian Angel. Feel the love that is pouring out. Feel the energetic invitation to close the gap, to get closer until you are almost touching. Your chest is touching and you are lifted up. You inside of your own Guardian Angel are lifted up and absorbed inside of the chest, inside of the heart of this brightly illumined being.

The moment you are inside of that Heart Chakra, the Palace of the Heart, what you see is brightly illumined Golden Light. It feels as if you have arrived home. You are walking in a humongous hall, a beautifully ornate Great Hall. The air around you has golden hues as if powdered gold dust is blowing in the air.

Gradually your eyes will become accustomed to this intense Golden Light. Then you will see a very large, beautiful golden altar and you will see many angelic beings similar to your own personal Guardian Angel standing around. Remember you are still inside the body of your Guardian Angel. You're looking at this world through the eyes of your Guardian Angel. You're encased in the body of your Guardian Angel so all of these beings that you see are your size and your shape and every one of them is a guide who is here to help your Guardian Angel teach whatever you need, provide whatever you desire through your Guardian Angel to you.

There are hundreds and there seems to be more coming. There is the sound of clapping wings. There is the celestial sound of music and singing. There's the crackling sound of the fire rising inside of the altar. And there's a celebration because you have arrived inside of the great Palace of the Heart of your cosmic Guardian Angel there's an eternal divine flame which is the source of every one of us. Each spark from this divine flame carries the holographic memory of everything we have ever done and will do from eternity to eternity. Every possibility, every reality, every probable event and circumstance, every way we might turn, every thing we might do from moment to moment is encrypted. And these angels can read the encryptions, not only from one moment to the other but they can read the many variations of each possible action.

Imagine knowing all those what ifs and their answers. What if I hadn't gone to that meeting that day I wouldn't have met this person, but who would I have met? What if I didn't study this course and I did that I would have graduated as somebody different, I would have been employed somewhere else but where would it be?

Imagine that these beings who have gathered in your name know all these answers because all those alternate realities, all those possibilities that came before you and you made this choice rather than that are also alternate possibilities available to you through these angelic forces. They have studied every possibility in time and space regardless of whether it's past, present or future and they can give you the answers. What will happen to me in 3 months time? Well if you go this way it will happen this way and if you go that way it will happen that way. And if you do neither of those two here's a better suggestion.

This is why Divine Mother has given us this cosmic aspect because within the energy field of that cosmic aspect there are all these guardians each of whom is an expert in one particular subject or more uniquely related to us.

So, take a look around you and see the celebration. Feel the sense of joy in this communion. Take a look into the altar and hear the crackling sound of the flames. On one hand it is a joyful sound, a lively sound. On the other hand it's crackling because it's pulling anything and everything that stands in your way of being the best that you can be. It's crackling to transmute it, to burn it, to pave the path, to illumine the path, to add to your creativity and let your creativity flow, to make your mind sharper, to heal your emotions, to connect you with your soul and your higher aspects, your higher selves, and to let you be victorious in everything that you do.

So standing here let each of us give ourselves and opportunity to set our intentions. If your mind goes blank while we meditate together, call upon Divine Mother. In fact, let's all call upon Divine Mother together and ask her to become a witness to these events. Let us invite her to be our guest here in the Palace of the Heart of our individual cosmic Guardian Angels. Let us lovingly ask her:

Mother I have a million things I want to intend but I offer them all at your feet and I surrender my thoughts, my ideas, my concepts. I surrender my fears, my worries, my concerns. I surrender all that I know and all that I do not know, all that has unfolded and all that is as yet to unfold I surrender at your feet. I ask you to choose on my behalf because you have my good in your heart, you love me, you cherish me, you hold me dear, you have made so many sacrifices of your own time, your own life force. So, rather than me telling you what I want, let me first say, Mother, I offer it all to you.

You will for me what you want. Thy will be done, Mother. I want to be the embodiment of your will. I want to do as you wish. I want to rise up and be worthy of your highest desires for me. I want to let go of my fears. I want you to give me the courage that I need to become worthy of willing myself to do what you want. I want to be able to look at myself through your eyes, Mother, because when you look at me you don't see me as I see myself. I see myself with guilt, with shame, defensive, sometimes offensive, most of the time feeling unworthy, lacking confidence, lacking trust, feeling betrayed, tired of struggles.

When you look at me you see a high illumined being of Light, so highly illumined that you would dispense cosmic beings to come in my service. Let me see myself through your eyes and let me abandon all my fears to see what you see, to be what you wish because you would only wish the best for me. You have no reason not to. If I can rise up to be the best that I can be I would only make you proud and together we would do great things. Make it known to me, Mother, clearly define, clearly unfold the path, clearly take my hand, walk by my side, show me the way, guide me in the direction that is most appropriate and beneficial for me and useful for you. I do want to be the embodiment of your Divine Will and my Divine Mission.

I want to live this life enjoying being alive every day. Letting go of this dullness and this heaviness that the world around me imposes on me and I impose on myself. Breathe your breath of life into me, Mother. Breathe your breath of life into Palace of the Heart where we are standing. Breathe the breath of life force as you will it into me as I have merged into my personal Guardian Angel. Let my cosmic Guardian Angel pave the path, blaze the trail and illumine it with your Light and your Love.

Be my courage, be my strength, be my guiding light, open my heart to trust you and to know that every moment of every breath you are fully aware of me and where I am, what I do, and how to best guide me. Let me know that every moment of every breath is guided by you. Every moment of life is filled with your life force. Let me know that. Forgive my need to be constantly reminded but this 3rd dimensional reality, this density makes me forgetful and it pulls at me and tugs at me so much that I lose my focus on you, on your Divine Will, on my Divine Mission. Keep bringing my focus back to you, your Divine Will, my Divine Mission. Keep reminding me of your presence.

Every moment of every day with every breath be patient with me Mother. I will grow, I will learn, I will change, I will do your will, I will do you proud. Build my confidence in myself for somewhere along the way I've lost it. I know you are confident in me, let me see through your eyes and gain my own confidence back. Let me shine the Light that you shine upon me without dulling it. In fact, let me magnify the Light that you shine upon me. Give me the power to magnify the Light that you shine upon me. Give me the will to illumine the Light that you shine upon me. Give me the desire to want to run rather than drag my feet because I'm running to you.

We are at the point in this cycle of evolution where we have turned the corner moving our face away from the darkness of despair to the Light of your presence. Let me remain one pointedly focused on your bright Light. Let this Light of yours blaze the trail and magnetize me to you. Let me always find my way back to you. In fact, don't ever let me out of your sight so I don't have to find my way back because never ever again do I want to lose you. Never ever again do I want to feel like nobody has my back. I want to constantly feel your presence because I know you're there, I know you're here, I know you're everywhere but I forget. I realize that the density of the 3rd dimensional reality is necessary because the dross is being released and transmuted and that is what I am feeling but hold me above it all. Hold me above the dross, above the density. Keep me engulfed in your Light. Let this cosmic Guardian Angel constantly clear the energy field. Let this cosmic Guardian Angel go everywhere before I go so this density doesn't hit me. Mother, you said, send this Guardian Angel to the shopping mall, to the movie theater, to the places of work, to our homes and the homes of our loved ones to clear and cleanse, to purify, to raise the vibration so our job becomes easier. So I'm asking you, let this Guardian Angel clear everything including my heart, my mind, my emotions, my soul, my personality aspects, my belief systems, my memories.

Let me remember that it's all about you and me returning back to your heart and never leaving you. It's all about remembering how to get back to you. Mother, remind me. Let this cosmic Guardian Angel teach my personal Guardian Angel and let them both pave the path. Let me not get lost, not get delayed, not get distracted, not even for a moment.

And Mother I ask you that your will be done with me. I align my will with your will. I give you my free will and in its place I ask that your will become my will.

Now let's take a moment and from each of your hearts ask whatever else you want to ask of Divine Mother to dispense with the cosmic Guardian Angel, to build a bridge between the cosmic Guardian Angel and your personal Guardian Angel and to call all of these hundreds and thousands of guardians. They've come because they want to serve you. In your own words tell Mother that you wish every one of these beings to serve you so that in turn, you can be in greater service to her. Not only to serve you but to serve your loved ones, to serve Mother Earth, to serve the Masters, to serve your Guardian Angel and other angelic guardians and forces, to serve in transmuting the dross, to serve in releasing the negativity, to serve in raising the vibration, to serve in awakening the unawakened souls, to serve in protecting every one of our loved ones and even the not so loved ones – people we are annoyed with, people we are angry with, people we are disappointed with. And, even more so, if we were not there to pray for them who would? What would become of them? The plight of someone who has done us injustice is not a good one because every one of us in our own way are in service. Harming and hurting one who is in service to the Light has consequences. So we are here to pray for those who have harmed us, who have done us injustice, as well as those who have loved us and those we love.

We'll take a moment of pause.

Remember that you can come back to this moment. For the next 24 hours until the next session constantly focus and remind yourself that you are in the Palace of the Heart of your cosmic Guardian Angel embodied and encapsulated inside of your personal Guardian Angel in the company of hundreds and thousands of other guardian angels who are here to offer their service to you and all of us are standing before the presence of our very own Divine Mother.

Keep setting intentions, keep offering prayers, keep putting invocations. Remember, these three days fall on a 3-day portal. Gateway portal days are very important energetic vortices where the gateways to the heavens are open where whatever you ask for is magnified. Prayers that are put forth on these type of days are answered with great magnificence and magnitude. These are the prayers that get etched into the fabric of time and space to bring forth the reality we want to create. So keep reminding yourself that you are not only inside of the Palace of the of your cosmic Guardian Angel but our group is energetically connected, multiples of Cosmic Guardians, multiples of hundreds of thousands of Guardian Angels are gathered together in our name. We are all gathered together in Divine Mother's presence in service to the Light, in service to our Divine Mission.

When you go to bed tonight, put yourself back before this altar, look into Divine Mother's eyes, see the air filled with Gold Dust – emanations of Light from the heart of your Cosmic Guardian, see the multitudes of Guardian Angels flapping their wings and singing celestial hymns loving each of us. Send that Light, that brightly illumined Golden Light to everyone, everywhere across the globe – human, animal, plant, mineral and Mother Earth herself in all of her glory so that she can be glorified even further and come out of these natural disasters that she has to create to clear and cleanse her auric field and to place herself in a higher vibrational frequency with great ease and grace.

We are all held in the bosom of our personal Guardian Angels in the Light of Divine Mother until we come back together again.

Thank you for creating this wonderful reality together.

So it is, it is done amen.
