

PTE MS: Spring Equinox – 2015

Transcript

My Beloved Children of Light I'm your very own Divine Mother. I welcome you to this Spring Equinox of 2015. I have requested once again that this month the guided meditation for Spring Equinox be offered to you right at the beginning of the month when the newsletter goes out, to give you an opportunity to provide you with a springing board, with a diving board, two-three weeks before the actual event of Spring Equinox comes into its zenith.

This year of 2015 is a very important year because fortunately in the course of the last year we gained great momentum and we accelerated beyond our own landmark points for 2014. What I am doing- with giving you certain exercises a few weeks before the actual date- is to create that momentum even further and allow you to start the exercises a few weeks early to keep building up on the already existing momentum; and to build you up to jump from even a higher diving board- that has already been provided to all of us because of everything that together we achieved in the year 2014.

I would also remind you that Spring Equinox is actually the first day of the New Year from Earth's cycle and the perspective of Earthly Energies. So we have moved into the Energies of the Spiritual New Year with November of 2014 and the Energies of Diwali the Festival of Lights. We have entered into the Gregorian New Year with the first day of January 2015, and the third of the three events is the Energy of Spring Equinox. Of course Kwanza and Passover and all those holy days have already been sandwiched in between November and Spring Equinox. So we have a few steps that we have already climbed and we are at the point where we can gain great momentum together.

Grounding meditation I will therefore begin with a grounding meditation, and I ask you to envision yourselves as part of the Group Energy, and every member of the group, the core group, as other components of this Group Energy, every one of you standing on top of Uluru and absorbing the Energies from the red rock.

Every one of you envisioning yourselves inside of the huge Sphere that carries the Red Orange Clay colored Life Force Energy of Uluru and I want to remind you that I gave you the substance of a rubbery ball, that in texture, it is like thick rubber. The same kind that you would use in your car's tire except that it has the elasticity and the consistency of the rubber, in that it will not allow any external forces of lower energy penetrating. At the same time it will amply allow the higher vibrational force fields because it is a sentient Sphere of Light that has its own consciousness in recognizing the higher Energies and it will allow the higher Light.

So around you envision that each of you stands in your own boulder or Sphere of Orange Red Clay colored nurturing Life Force Energy in the form of a Sphere and that there is a large Sphere that holds the entire Group Energy, every one that participates in these group events, and everyone that will join us in years and years to come. It is my hope that some day these guided meditational exercises be the kind of exercise that young and old, people of all ages and all denominations and all doctrine, would exercise as a routine principal; and I ask you to put that Energy and that intention into the Group Energy so each of you gain the merits for being the spearheads. In that way everyone that joins in years and decades and centuries to come will contribute to the merits that you gain and you contributing to their awakening, to the awakening of Earth and consciousness of all souls, to the reaching of critical mass, for the awakening of souls, and for the higher vibrational Energies that Earth will absorb, and for the higher consciousness souls who will migrate to incarnate on Earth, and for the seed races that will unfold on Earth during the future many thousand year cycles, because with each cycle we move to a higher plateau.

There will come a time, even though it may seem improbable now, there will come a time when Earth and the consciousness of humankind will be raised to the point where there will be no pain, no struggle, no darkness, no greed, no deception, but it will be all caring and sharing and living the higher soul purpose. And every soul will incarnate remembering that they've come to be of service, and that everyone is equal, and everyone deserves to be loved, everyone deserves to share the resources, and everyone is responsible to help and serve the multitudes and masses.

I ask you to envision that you grow roots from within your own Sphere of Red Clay boulder size Energy field. You're growing roots that will penetrate into the crust of the Earth and illuminate your Earth Crust Chakra, your Hara Line, sending this Red Clay Life Force Energy and your own Personal Signature Energy through those roots to wrap themselves around the Core Crystal of Earth, pulling the Golden Light from the Core Crystal and the Amber Light, which is the nurturance Life Force Energy that the Red Life Force of Earth and the Gold Life Force that emanates from the Core Crystal together make. And pull that Amber Light up the roots while you envision that all the members of the Divine Feminine Council wrap their roots around you. And then they wrap a sheath that becomes a Cylinder of Light that covers the entire Group Entity and the Hara Lines of everyone and creates a shield around the Group Hara Line, and it goes all the way up to cover your Earth Crust Chakra, up the consciousness of each of your individual bodies, up the tree trunk with the bark protecting the tree trunk and the cylinder on the outside of the bark.

The triple layers of Emerald Green on the outside of the bark with a layer of Earthly Abundance in that Reddish Green that is the mixture of the Plum Ray of Rejuvenation given to all of you by Divine Mother, which is the outer most layer of the bark. The Plum and the Emerald Green mix as they merge in the middle to bring you Earthly Abundance. And I call upon Cosmic Guardian of Earthly Abundance who carries that Reddish Green Life Force Energy to stand and offer you the Abundance from Earth. The Cosmic levels of Abundance that she brings to Earth to raise the vibration of Earth, to turn it into what Earth can absorb and digest, and then to bring that which the Earth has received from her in the form of all manners of abundance, health and wholeness as well as abundance in the form of resources and financial matters, objects, including relationships and higher Energies.

Envision that the bark and the tree trunk continue through the Hierarchies of the Realms and Dimensions to reach all the way to the Pool of Creation. And from the Pool of Creation, the Cosmic Amber Life Force is pulled to the branches and leaves of the tree, which bathe in the Pool of Creation and pours down the Antahkarana Cord, down the tree trunk into your Crown Chakra, into the consciousness of the body, into your organs, into your chakras of the body, your 5 Body System, your Light Body, and bathing all the way, expanding to the edges of the Red Clay Force Field around your body and going all the way down to the bottom of your feet, down your Earth Crust Chakra, down your roots, down inside of that Cylinder of Light that is offered to you from the coming together of all the Shields and all the Force Fields of the members of the Divine Feminine Council, reaching to the Core of the Earth, blessing the Core of the Earth, merging with the Amber Light from the Core and then shooting back up, all the way to the Pool of Creation, merging to the Amber Life Force in the Pool of Creation and shooting down to the Core of the Earth, and shooting back up to the Pool of Creation.

And I ask you to bathe in the Pool of Creation as you become aware that all the members of the Divine Feminine Council, including the 12 Cosmic Guardians and their Divine Mother Aspects who step down the Energies are standing alongside of the boardwalk, the circular boardwalk that forms around the Pool of Creation, every one of them holding their Scepter of Power above their head. And I ask you to bathe in the Pool of Creation and bathe in the Energies of each of them as they pour their Energy into the Pool of Creation and allow the merging of their combined Forces. The 12 Cosmic Guardians, Great Silent Watcher, Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan, Goddess Victory, Goddess Liberty, Mother of Universe, Mother of Cosmos, your own Divine Mother, Lord Shiva and Goddess Shakti, Christ Maitreya and Sanat Kumara. So that gives you the Energies of the entire 18 layer grid as well.

So bring the intentions and the Energies of the 18 layer grid that we have built up together during the Course of Comprehensive Healing with Divine Mother, a 9 session series of Comprehensive Healing from theMysterySchool. And bring in all the Energies that we have so far built with the eight sessions so far, and to be continued with more in the series of Healing and Manifestation, Divine Mother's Healing and Manifestation.

And go deep into the Pool of Creation to the center of the Pool of Creation where there is a fountain from the purest and the most pristine Energies of the Pool of Creation shooting the Energies up in a multitiered fountain and bathe in the first few tiers of the fountain. The first few tiers of this sculpture that is in the depths of the Pool of Creation and imagine that a Bridge of Light forms from that sculpture, beautiful sculpture with multilayers. When you look up you cannot see the highest layers because they move up into the highest heavens and above the clouds and you can't tell how many layers of purer and purer essence of the substance of the Pool of Creation exists in each of those layers that extend upward.

You can come here and bathe in as many of the tiers as you are allowed to go and then an invisible, actually it is visible to you, but a Bridge of Light, the Bridge of Light is formed that brings you, teleporting you. You glide in the Light, you swim in the Light, you teleport from that fountain to the promenade and stand with all these Beings as your Angelic Beings stand on either side of you, one offering you your robes and your cape and the other one your crown and your Scepter.

This will be a ceremony performed on the occasion of March Equinox and I ask you to perform it as many times as you can before we reach the actual day of March Equinox. If you happen to do this, if you happen to come across this ceremony somewhere outside of March or Equinox, imagine that you are connecting yourself to the March Equinox of 2015, because that way you will gain all the merits from whatever point you are all the way back to March Equinox, and when you do get to do it even if it is 10 years or 50 years after the actual event, you will gain all the momentum that others have gained who have done it at the time. So you will gain 50 years worth of momentum, 10 years worth of momentum, or 10 days worth of momentum if you begin 10 days after the first round of people received it.

Now in your ceremonial robes, your scepter and your crown you allow your Angels to accompany you to stand before Divine Mother's Throne where Divine Mother stands to open the edges of her cape and send a magnetic beam, shaft of Copper Gold Light that magnetizes you to Divine Mother's own bosom. As you get closer and closer to Divine Mother you feel the loving nurturance absorb you and the Copper Gold Light engulf you and you find yourself as if encased, engulfed, and enraptured, enwrapped in Divine Mother's own heart and breathe and bathe the Copper Gold Light.

In my company I will walk with you to go before the Sacred Fire Altar that resides in the 122nd Dimension as part of Divine Mother's own Altar, and I ask you to envision the two Silent Watchers, one who carries the responsibility of clearing the karma and the karmic entanglements from fifteen generations, past, present, and future of your own personal incarnations. The other who is responsible for clearing karma and karmic entanglements from your entire Soul Lineage of Light, including the Soul Lineage members all the way to the Monad, which consist of 33 other members and yourselves, each of you, that's 34 and your Monadic Head of the council, your own Monadic Council, and continues on beyond the Monad to the heads of our own Soul Lineages.

Each of you come from various Soul Lineages, and along the line of your Soul Linage there are various Deities. For example if your Soul Lineage goes to the Planetary Logos, then the head of his or her lineage also counts and takes you to the next level, in this case Sanat Kumara, as the Planetary Logos, and represents the Energy beyond your Monad, and then Energy beyond his Monad is Lord Melchior.

So all of these Beings are here; and one thing I would like to do in this occasion is to invite not just the Being who is the head of the lineage but the office. So to give you an understanding, when we talk about the office of the Planetary Logos that includes everyone who has ever occupied that office, it also includes the Throne of that office, in other words the Energy of that office.

Think of it as, take the example, you have the president of a country and that president is backed up by everything the country has to offer. In this case, imagine that Sanat Kumara, to be the equivalent of the President of the United States, and his office be the equivalent of the Whitehouse. So imagine when we say the Office of the Planetary Logos, it would be like saying every President that has resided in the Whitehouse. So we are talking about every Planetary Logos who has resided as the head of the Office of the Planetary Logos, and we're not just staying with Earth. In this case we are including those amongst the planetary heads and their offices who are part of the Soul Lineage. For example, Lady Venus as the head of Planetary Body Venus carries the responsibility of being the Logos for Venus, but also carries the responsibility of being the role model for Earth. And therefore when I say I offer everyone from the Office of the Planetary Logos and the associated offices then I am inviting the Office of the Planetary Logos from Venus and Goddess Venus, and all the Beings who have had the pleasure and the responsibility of carrying that office.

When I invite Goddess Victory as the Chair of the Office of Victory, then not only the Energies of Goddess Victory is involved, but the Energies of the Office of Victory are involved. And this Being that you know as Goddess Victory is a Being, and in x number of eons she walks off and someone else comes in, but also that Office and the consciousness of the office are included as well as the someone else that comes in after her, and the someone else that has come in before her.

You know this process of moving through the Hierarchies and going through the steps exists even at those levels. Even though it's hard to imagine what is beyond a Cosmic Conglomerate and it is somewhat arbitrary to think something that happens beyond the Cosmic Conglomerate might have any affect on your 3rd Dimensional Life. Nevertheless, if they are there and they are powerful enough to have Energies that encompasses the entire Cosmic Conglomerate and beyond, and we can petition them and they will come to our aid, why would we not want to call them?

As small as we may be, and I include myself with you as 3rd Dimensional Being, because there is a point where I am the equivalent of a 3rd Dimensional Being myself to some of these amazing, humongous Beings. So imagine you comparing your existence at the 3rd Dimension to the 144 Dimensions of our own Reality, and then place me in the equivalent of the 3rd Dimension within my own Hierarchy, and go beyond, and then you have an idea of what it's like for me to invite the equivalent of the 144 Dimensions of my own Hierarchy if I were the equivalent of a 3rd Dimensional Being such as yourselves. And my feeling about it is, if I can do that, if I can invoke such a Being at my level, I would like to invoke them not only to come to my rescue, but to also come to your rescue.

And even though the Universal Law says there comes a point where such a Being cannot bring their Energy, stepping themselves down below a certain level, because their Light, their Energy would be too bright and too immense, and because it would be unfair to them to expect to stretch themselves to such immense level. Even though all of that is true and it tis the law, we can ask, because it is always those who think beyond the box who get greater things done, and for as long as we stay within the limits and confines of what we are taught to be our limitation we will never exceed the limitations. It's only when we dare to dream above and beyond those limitations, only then do we expect, hope, and ask, and only then do we step over the boundary, only to see that it may be possible. If they are unaware of our existence perhaps we have a role to play in making ourselves known to them, then we're giving them a choice.

It is also Universal Law that says, "Ask and you shall receive". Perhaps once we give them the opportunity to know we exist, then we give ourselves the opportunity to have asked, and to hope that we shall receive, and I encourage you to do the same. Do the same with all the levels and layers of Beings, including everyone between the 3rd and the 144th and beyond. Dare to dream.

So bring your attention with me to the Sacred Fire, and see that all the Beings are making offerings in honor of the arrival of the New Year, the spring, a new beginning. I would like to bring your attention to one specific Being that you may not have had the pleasure of knowing as yet, and this Being, a female Being that is standing to the right of Great Silent Watcher in the position of north, with Lord Shiva and Shakti seated directly to either side of her, behind her, and Great Silent Watcher standing right by her side.

I am asking you to walk within the Energy Field of Divine Mother as I walk to stand on the other side of her from Great Silent Watcher. Again, the way we stand, become aware that, directly behind us, Lord Shiva and Goddess Shakti are seated, and they are continuing with their task of weaving the Filaments of Light from the Primordial Source of Light to create the Seed of Life that becomes the seed for the new seed race. That task will continue on, and for as many events as we will perform together in the future, I will remind you until we know for a fact that the seed is absolutely complete. And it may take a few years, and even after the seed is complete we can always refer back to it when we wish to anchor a new Energy that will benefit the future generations. This ceremony for Spring Equinox definitely counts as a beneficial ceremony that deserves to be anchored into the seed race.

Cosmic Guardian of Spring and Renewal- I bring your attention to a new Being. Now this Being is the Deity who is responsible for the beginning of every new yearly cycle. If we were to give her a name it would be the Guardian of the New Year, the New Season, the New Earthly Cycle, the New Yearly Cycle, Earth's rotation that gives us the opportunity to begin the first day of spring every year. She's the Harbinger; she's the Guardian, the Queen, the Carrier of the Energy of that Newness, of that New Beginning. The reason why the ceremony is so important to me and I have given you such a long prelude is because I want you to make a friend of this Being, because this is her job. Her job is to bring in the new and to absorb the old, the stagnant, the heavy and to dissolve the obstacles, to purify that old stagnant Energy, to flip it, turn it all into Light and start from a clean slate.

Her Beingness is the equivalent of a black hole. What is the responsibility of a black hole? It pulls in all the dark, stale, stagnant old Energy, eats it up, turns that darkness into Light and shoots it out as new life from the other end. Now if you are at the point where you're looking into the black hole you would think that a black hole is an object, a catalyst for annihilation, but it really is a catalyst for transformation. What it does is it takes the dark and turns it into Light.

This Being's job is to take the old year and to muster up enough Life Force Energy to turn that old dark winter cold, stagnant, heavy year, and in an instant absorb it into her Being, flip, turn the switch, and turn it into Light and give it enough Life Force Energy that like the first day of spring, which is the harbinger of newness and life on all the trees, on all the grass, on all Earth, and that joy that bubbles as the depression of the dark, long days of cold goes away. That feeling of joy which bubbles to the surface as the sun shines, the days get longer, and life begins anew and you look at the trees and life starts, and you look at the nests of the birds and you see eggs and you see baby birds everywhere. And you look at people around you and they are busy, and they are working, and 9 o'clock, 10 o'clock at night there is still activity in some parts of our world where it's still light. That's the power which is contained within the Force Field of this Being. She flips the switch, and she turns that power on, and she regenerates the old and stagnant, and she refreshes and rejuvenates the old and heavy, the weary, and turns it into fresh new beginning.

I want you to take a moment, get ready because we're going to go face her. And at first I'm going to stand with her, and I'm going to exchange Energy, and I'm going to allow you to absorb her Energy while you're still in my bosom. And then gradually I'm going to allow you to get energized by her, and then separate yourself to be magnetized to enter into her Energy Field, into her Life Force, into her Beingness. And you're going to see a multitude of Lights, a rainbow of colors, except the span of the rainbow of her colors is well beyond the colors of rainbow available on Earth. So there are Golds and Platins and Pewters and shimmers and mixture of colors and the spectrum is much wider. It encompasses ultraviolet and infrared and all the good that is contained within the two ends of the spectrum, the stretched out spectrum that goes beyond ultraviolet and above infrare

I want you to feel her Energy as you're absorbing and expanding your 5 Body System, Light Body, until you're in a place where you want to go in and merge with her, you want to feel her Energy one on one. And if you feel that you would prefer to go and merge with her in the company of Divine Mother, you may do so by feeling yourself fully engulfed in the Life Force of Divine Mother's Copper Gold Light, and together we merge into her Being and expand.

I would like you to feel her Energy. I would like you to make a personal connection with her. I would like you to have a one on one experience of her. If you feel that experience is enhanced in the presence of Divine Mother, by all means, but don't let that be a way to hide yourself from her. Let that be away of enhancing your Energies, expanding your Energies, and allowing you to absorb more of her Energies, and I want you to please spend time; this is all I ask you.

In the course of the month of March from any point that you start, I ask you to at least do this for a couple of minutes every day. That you imagine you are in the company of Divine Mother merging into her Being, and then finding yourself in that place of oneness with her, finding yourself trusting that you can confide in her, and you can ask her for all those things you wish that she would flip for you, all those things that you need to turn the switch and start from a clean slate. All those things that you wish to gain momentum to move faster, to move in the right direction, to move with greater focus, with greater clarity, with greater pace, the release of all those things that keep it heavy for you and keep you from gliding through the Light, gliding through the ease and grace, gliding through the joy and happiness.

I want you to please build a relationship where you go in and you get your fill of that momentum which she offers that acceleration which allows her to fill you, turn the switch, help you flip something that's dark and heavy to something that is pure and clean and joyful. I want this life to be as easy for you as flipping a switch and if there is one who can help you accomplish it, it would be this Being.

You can call her The Cosmic Guardian of Spring and renewal, New Year, New Life, New Season, the New Spring, Queen of Spring, and I would like to leave this open ended. Therefore I am going to invite you to stay. There's nothing wrong with you saying I am staying here through the night into the morning and when the morning comes and I need to attend to daily events I am going to ask her to help me remain aware of her presence. I am going to ask Divine Mother to help me remain aware of her presence. I'm going to ask all these Cosmic Guardians that are assembled to enhance this experience. I ask Lord Shiva and Goddess Shakti to bless this experience. I ask Lord Shiva and Goddess Shakti to send their Primordial Light to enhance this experience, and I ask you to please sit down and make a list of the things that you want to change. Think of all the things you want to change immediately, all the things you want to change in the course of this year.

Invite her to walk with you every day of this year and turn that day, even the 365th day that is the heaviest day from the day you start, the last day of the year, into an easy day, a light day, an accelerated day. If you do nothing for the rest of the year from Spring Equinox to the next Spring Equinox but remember her, you would have done a great deal to promote your own soul and your own mission, and to promote the anchoring of this type of Energies, this band of Energies, which has never been consciously known at this density. You see her Energy has been drawn out of this type of density and the consciousness of those who live in this density.

She does have an ethereal existence, but it is in the Ethereal Realms, of course she has, because even the 3rd Dimension turns into spring every year, but its one thing that the Mineral Kingdom, the Animal Kingdom, the Plant Kingdom automatically connects from the collective consciousness to her consciousness and the spring springs forth. It's another thing for the conscious awareness of 3rd Dimensional human beings to be connected with her and for each of you to have a reflection of her presence in your mind 24 hours a day for an entire year and for the rest of your lives, even if you forget momentarily, or for a month or three months. The consciousness, the awareness of her presence, the awareness of such a Being existing, has already been lodged and anchored into your body, your 5 Body System and your Light Body. Therefore it exists in your Personal Body Grid, which means it is already posted from your Personal Body Grid to the Planetary Body Grid.

Now what you do in service, is every time you connect with her, every time you consciously put your awareness on her existence you have illuminated more Points of Light on the Planetary Body Grid. In other words you have made her presence more easily accessible to the multitude and masses and to the consciousness of 3rd Dimensional Beings, conscious awareness of her existence. Not collective consciousness that happens automatically, but conscious premeditated awareness.

You know in myths and legends and stories you hear, seven years past and we didn't have a spring, 50 years past and we didn't have a spring, Earth did not have a spring. The Goddess of Spring withheld her Energy from Earth and you read it as a myth or legend. But where do myths and legends come from? That thought exists. So what would it be like if Earth was receptive to spring springing forth and all of Earth, all the consciousnesses came together in helping her consciously, by meditating on her, by reflecting on her, by reflecting on this enormous task that is guarded and guided and orchestrated by one Being? Think of that concept for a moment.

You know we talk, Goddess Victory is the Goddess of Victory, Great Silent Watcher is the source of the Life Force. It's arbitrary; it's something out there, now this is a little bit more tangible because it happens once a year, it's more easily recognizable. When you see the leaves on the trees, when you see the grass growing, when you see the snow melting, when you see the temperature rising, you know that spring is springing forth, you know its happening.

Now imagine a Being guarding, orchestrating, managing, guiding like a conductor of a huge symphony orchestra. Now you play, now you play, now you play, now you do your work, now you raise the temperature, now the sun rays fall on this and this and this. Now we lift the stagnant Energies, now we dissolve the depression from the hearts of those who are sensitive, conducting, orchestrating, and being responsible. Imagine the responsibility, see now you can have an easier understanding, and when you can imagine her responsibility, than you realize that even her job, as enormous as it is, is much smaller than what Goddess Victory does, or Great Silent Watcher does, or the Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan does, why? Because Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan is dealing with something of that nature, only much more enormous, because if she's responsible to come in once a year and to orchestrate things, that's one thing, one principle. Imagine how many alternate realities the Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan will have to manipulate on your behalf for each event that she chooses for each of you, and then multiply it by the number of souls, and that's not just human souls, souls that affect the planet in this dimension and entire 144 Dimensions of Reality. Than multiply it by the number of Alternate Realities and Alternate Dimensions to then come up with an Alternate Reality which she has to choose for collective consciousness of Earth and earthlings and individual consciousnesses of all souls.

You see then it gives you a much better grasp of what it is a Being like Cosmic Guardian of Divine Plan does and a Being like Goddess Victory does, a Being like these Cosmic Guardians who are each responsible for certain qualities. Really those Cosmic Guardians are doing what this one Being does with the seasons, only they do it at a much more expanded level, again, because once again, they're doing it from the prospective of all dimensions and realities.

So the Guardian of Earthly Abundance is bringing the Cosmic layers of Abundance to all the dimensions of Earth, stepping them down, reaching to the 3rd Dimensional Realm and then at the 3rd Dimensional Realm using that abundance according to the needs and capacities of each individual. And then imagine how much harder their job is when the individual is unconscious of their presence, and how bogged down they are when they have to abide by the Law of Karma. Since they haven't been asked they can't do more than a certain amount. They've got the gift in their hands but they can't hand it over because they haven't been asked, because this is a planet of free will.

Interestingly enough this Being, the Cosmic Guardian of Spring and Renewal, the Queen of the Seasons, doesn't have those limitations. Her job is easier, and yet I'm not making her any less important. I want you to understand the enormity of her job, and I want you to honor and respect and use the advantage, the benefit of what she can offer each of you. I'm stating what these others are capable of doing because now you have a point of reference, but don't let me give you the impression that what she does is small.

Your connection with her and your awareness of her presence is going to change your life for the better in such enormous ways that you will never be the same again. Just knowing she exists and tuning to her Energies, and then of course going to her with your various petitions and intentions. Please sit down and figure what things you might want to ask her. The best way in my opinion to deal with her is to sit in her Energy and then ask her to help guide you, to put the thought in your head, in your mind to ask her, to petition her, let her tell you what to ask her. That is always a good thing and that is something you want to do besides asking her the obvious things that go through your mind for your selves, your loved ones, for Earth, for humankind, for the consciousness of all souls, for the planet, for your Soul Lineage and Soul Lineage members, for the heads of the Hierarchies, for the generations of your ancestors and the generations of your descendants, for the seed race.

I please ask you to hold your hands over the seed that is woven with the Primordial Light by Lord Shiva and Goddess Shakti and ask for this Energy, her Energy, her miraculous ability to flip a switch and turn everything from darkness into Light. Put that into the consciousness of the seed, and stay for as long as you wish.

This indeed makes me enormously happy, it gives me great pleasure to be able to offer you this gift and I have to tell you I would have done it sooner had I been allowed. You all know there's nothing that I want more in this whole world than to be able to offer you more gifts, the ability to do more things, the ability to have greater help, so please use this help that is available to you.

Stay in her Energy, feel the profusion of Lights, merge and mingle in her amazing Light, get to know her, ask her to show you a look, a Signature Energy, a way that you connect with her, a way that is your sign, your knowing that she's present. Ask her, petition her, hold the hem of her robes and say I won't let you go until you tell me, you give me, you help me, you guide me and you connect with me and you turn everything stagnant into Light, everything depressing into joy, everything hopeless into hopeful. And I ask you that for myself, for my loved ones, for members of my Soul Lineage, for Earth, for humankind and for the consciousness of all souls, for the 5 Body System and the Light Body of Earth and everything that she encompasses, and beyond and beyond. And on your behalf I ask all the Beings present to multiply and magnify your intentions, and to offer their own intentions on your behalf. And to help this spring, make this spring be the best ever for Earth. Let her absorb all the negativity, all the poison, all the pollution, let her absorb all the fear and anger and all the warmongering, let her dissolve all that.

These are all the things you can ask besides asking personal things. These are the things you can ask. Not a future for Earth that everyone fears, but a future for Earth that you look forward to. You want to bring generations of your own descendents to this world because it's a beautiful world and it can happen. It can happen.

If we have been given the grace to allow everyone to become aware of her presence, then something has shifted well enough that her presence can become common knowledge, earth has become receptive enough. Grace has been spread upon Earth, so much so, that her Energy now has an opportunity to become common knowledge, posted on the poster board of the planetary posting, Planetary Grid. This indeed is cause for celebration. The ceremony will go into the Akashic Records as one of the landmark events, and the merits you gain by exercising this meditation and repeating this exercise so that you can magnify its posting on the Planetary Grid, it will gain you great merits and it will keep me more and more grateful for all that you do. I hold you in my own heart and I thank you. So It Is.
